And never did thy shadow rest
Upon a grave more truly blest.
Blest that its narrow wall should hold
Such dust within their ear,
Blest by the people, young and old,

FUNERAL OF MR R. J. GABBETT, J.P.

The remains of this estimable and popular gentleman were removed from his late residence at Caherline at ten o'clock this morning for interment at Caherconlish churchyard. Notwithstanding the early hour at which the funeral started, the attendance was very large, the procession of carriages being of considerable length. At Caherconlish the cortege was largely augmented by the tenantry of the deceased in that district, whose numerous attendance showed how much the late Mr. Gabbett's excellent qualities as a landlord were appreciated. The remains were enclosed in a suite of coffins, the outer one being of polished oak with brass mountings, and was strewn with beautiful wreaths.

The chief mourners were—Mr Thomas R Gabbett (brother), Mr J G Minchin, D L (brother-in-law), Mr Jones, Co Waterford, and Mr George Bowles, Co Cork (cousins).

Amongst those present were—General Lord Clarina, Colonel the Hon Lionel Butler Massy, County High Sheriff; Sir Charles Barrington, D L; Mr Edmund Bourke, Local Government Board Inspector; Rev R E Ross-Lewin, General Saddleir, Mr A E Bannatyne, Mr Wm Gabbett, Rev Chancellor Gabbett, Croom; Mr Paolo Gabbett, Rev Thomas Taylor, Mr Edmund Russell, Mr Frederick Finch, Rev Mr Benson, Castleconnell; Mr Ernest Phelps, Mr Edgar Phelps, Rev Maurice Day, Newport; Mr Howley, Richill; Colonel Vincent, Mr H Blackhall, Mr W L Hunt, Limerick; Mr John Morton, Manager of the Provincial Bank; Mr J O'G D'Inog, DL; Surgeon-Major Ward, Mr C H Gubbins, Mr F end, Mr Samuel Winter, senior, and Samuel Winter, junior, Mr J Enright, Mr G H Ryan, Mr P Hartigan, Mr C Keogh, Mr P Lloyd, Mr P Keogh.

Amongst those who sent carriages were:—General Lord Clarina, The Hon Lionel Butler Massy, Sir Charles Barrington, J Fitzgerald Bannatyne, Colonel Vincent, Mrs O'Grady, Erinagh; Mr J O'Grady Delmege, Mr Edmund Bourke, Thornhillis; Mr Ernest Phelps, Rev Chancellor Gabbett, Rev Mr Day, Rev M Westropp, General Saddleir, Mr E Russell, Mr A E Bannatyne, Mrs O'Dwyer, Stradbally; Mrs Enright, Castleconnell; Mr L Hunt, Mr Michael Jones, Mr H Blackhall, Mr Samuel Winter, Mrs Howley, Mr Wm B Fitt, Mr P Hartigan, Mr M Connolly, Mr C Ryan.

Those who sent wreaths included—Mrs Gabbett, Miss Minnie Gabbett, Mrs Minchin, Mrs and Miss Phelps, Mrs Howley, Major and Mrs Walsh, Mrs Seymour, Miss O'Grady, Mrs Torpey.

The Rev T Taylor, Rector Newmarket-on-Fergus, and the Rev J Lynch, Rector, Caherconlish, assisted by the Rev M. Benson, Rector, Castleconnell, officiated at the grave.

The funeral arrangements were carried out by Messrs P McCarthy and Son, George street.

DUBLIN NEEDLEWORK GUILD.

In connexion with the Chrysanthemum Show at the R D Society's Building's Ball's Bridge, a most interesting Exhibition has been held in the Upper Dining Hall. The D N G, members of which are drawn from every rank in society, has for its main object the collection of useful articles of new clothing for distribution among hospitals and other charitable institutions in Dublin and throughout Ireland. The contributions, the vast majority of which is the actual work of the members, are collected each year in November, and immediately distributed, this system of adulteration was ruining the Ir butter trade.

ASSAULT AND THREATENING LANGUAGE.
John Ward summoned David R Ward—on for using threatening language and a fear th he would do him bodily harm, or procure othe to do so, the second for assault. David b across summonses for assault.

Mr Leahy, solr, appeared for the plaintiff, and Mr John Condon, solr, appeared for the defendat.

From the evidence it appears both are fa me residing within a half-mile of each other, Knocknadiha. They were not on speaking t r since July last. On the 13th October David w driving his horse to water, when he met plaiuti and on returning they met again, David deman ing "half of the road," when, as he alleged, Jol called him a "rowdy and robber," whereupon l came off his horse and pulled the pipe out John's mouth. Young Con Mahony jumps from behind the ditch and struck the defendar knocking him down. Complainant's son, P Ward, tore the scarf off complainant's neck, at a general m-lee ensued. David Ward and No Ward gave evienc of witnessing the row, b could not say who was in fault.

The Bench, after a lengthened hearing, d cided not to bind defendant (David) to the pea but imposed a fine of 20s and costs.

NEWMARKET-ON-FERGUS ROAD SESSIONS.

The above sessions were held on Thursda Mr P J Kelly presiding. The other magistrat present were—Major R A Studdert, Mr F Scott, Mr Solomon Frost, Mr James Coffey, Maj Wilson Lynch.

Cesspayers—Mr John Lynch, Mr Rho Murphy.

The first business on the list was the appoi ment of delegate on the West and South Cla Railway.

Mr Solomon Frost, Streamstown, was unar mously elected.

An application to rebuild a gullet on a road n under contract was r-j-cted.

There was an applica ion from Matthew Bro and Robert Nix to repair 264 perches of ros between Punchbowl and Knockroe and Derrymo 250 10s.

This application came before the magistrat and cesspayers on a former occasion and was pa sed, on the und rstanding that the agent wo supplement the amount by half. The agent d elined to carry out this arrangement, and hen the second application.

The County Surveyor gave it as his opini that the road was not required, and was us only by a few local families.

The application was rejected.

The next business was the payment of ro contractors, and it may be remarked that mu credit is due to the County Surveyor for t manner in which roads are kept.

QUEEN'S BENCH DIVISION.

(Before Mr Justice John-on, Mr Justice Holm and Mr Justice Madden.)

The Queen (O'Callaghan) v. the Justices of Limerck.

Mr Holmes (instructed by Sir Patrick C Chief Crown Solicitor), moved to discharge a ce ditional order for a certiorari to bring up a quash an order of the Justices of the Cour Limerick made at the New-castle West P- Sessions in a case in which Sergeant Mong R.I.C, was complainant, and Edward O'Callagh was defendant, by which the defendant was s- tenced to a month's imprisonment for assault on one Mary O'Donnell. The conditional order v obtained on the affidavit of defendant's solci who relied on the fact that the conviction o not set out on the face of it that t prosecution was brought by or on beh of the person aggrieved, or that t person aggrieved had declined to prosecu Mr Holmes argued that the case of the Queer Justices of Wiewlow did not apply to this ce inasmuch as, under the 43rd section of the 2
