was deferred to the Council meet-nt was heard against a jarvey ce, No. 24, preferred by a Mr Haye, that, on the second day of the r he was dragged violently off his ce without provocation.

PETTY SESSIONS-YE TERDAY. OM OUR CORRESPONDENT).

A M Harper, R M (Chairman), and

TRESPASS. led case of Harvey v. Clune for the nss of cattle was again gone into. Kelly, solicitor, represented the and Mr R D Hillard, solicitor, the in gave evidence of the trespass on and tillage land, and proved de-gave corroborative testimony. amed O'Mealy proved seeing Clune's vey's land on a certain d te id that as Mr Hilliard denied deserted that the trespass was not hat his client's cattle were never on d except when in charge of someapplied to have the court hear a named O'Brien, who could give eing the cattle on Harvey's land ugust, but for which they had not objected, as he got no netice, nor imoned. were against Mr Hill ard, having lefence on last court day.

osed that on the day of the Kilrush ind cattle belonging to Clune on ; he turned them out; there was ge of them; he went to Clune's ned him of the trespass, but Mrs ; to tell Harvey about it.

ne, son of detendant, denied ever y complaint about the trespiss. ned On his sol mn oath Harvey nowledge, delivered the cattle, or swore that Harvey did not on the diver up any catile, nor at any mination, witness reiterated her tive v. ne, a returned American, gave further evidence of a similar n said that in this case he never ominable swearing than that of daughter and sons. They swore larvey, who to the court appeared trath, and his witnesses, who ence fairly, were all perjuring was deplorable to see them swear Clune would be fined 20s and ise, at the suit of Harvey against t Clune was next gone into.

lant swore that both men came threatened, if he did not withonses for trespass, to injure him. last Monday, Pat Clune came old him to clear out of the town I get him struck.

i warned detendant that if there I this conduct he would hind him peace. He hoped that there end to this had feeling between s would dismiss the case this time n cases, at the suit of the een disposed of, the court ad-

EXTENSIVE TARCENY.

wening last a young man, named as arrested by Head Constable on suspicion of being a deserter. to an extraordinary discovery.

hardly be said that the tracic news has been received there with the deepest sorrow. It is not known as yet when or where the funeral will take place.

DEATH OF MR RICHARD J GABBETT, J.P.

We announce, with much regret, the death of Mr Richard J Gabbett, J P, which took place today at his residence, Caherline House, Lisnagry Mr Gabbett, who was in his 69th year, has be n in failing health for some time past. He was a mostjuseful public man. While his health permitted he was a regular attendant at the Foard of Guardians, of which he was an ex-officio member, and took a deep interest in the affirs of the Union, while he was one of the most active sup-porters of the Glin School project. He was also a member of the Markets Trustees, a County Grand Juror, and a magistrate for the Castleconnell district. Ever court ous, affable and unassuming, he made for himself hosts of friends, who will grieve to hear of his death.

FUNERAL OF MRS. VANCE, RATHRONAN. (FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT.)

Newcastle, Monday.

The announcement of the death of this estimable lady which took place on Friday at the residence of her brother at Carrek- on-Suir, was received here with feelings of the most profound sorrow by the people of Newes tle, Ardagh, and the surrounding districts, to whom the deceased lidy had endeared herself for her gentleness and and charitalle disposition, her loving disposition. To the poor her kind and helping homeless hand was always open, and in her demisa they lose a sincere and a generous benefactor. her hereaved husband and lamily the urmost sympathy is expressed in their irreparable loss. The remains arrived by train yesterday morning for interment at Rathronan Church yard, and the funeral was very large and representa-tive of all classes. The coffin was carried from the Railway Station to the Church by the the Railway Station to the Church by the young men of the district as a token of the respect in which the deceased lady was held by them. The chief mourners were—Rev Canon Vance, husband; Richard Nash Griffin, brother. Amongst those also present were—Very Rev Dean Bunbury, Rev James Dowd, Rev Canon Wills, Rev Canon Haydn. Dr Ward, Messrs E W O'Brien, J P, D L; Captain Verschoole, Pairick Murray, J P; George Luker Siechy, J P; Major Sheehy, J P; Richhell Curling, J P; Major Furlonge, Dr Bolster, Majer Bolleston, R M; George Pierce, M D; E Sheehy, Samuel P under, Manager Provincial Bank, Newcastle; Mr Deane, Manager National Bank, Rathkeale; P lisier Dawson, C PS; Richard O'Grady, Rathfreda; E B McDonnell, PS Palmer, Manager National Bank, Newcastle; Thomas Hurley, James Brouder, McUrtin (Courtenay's Het-1), Joseph Cregan, John Byrne (Clerk Newcastle; Peter Magner, Patk Condon, Rathreigh; Dr Cremin, Ardagh; Michl Cremin P I. G. John Woulfe, Pat Donovan, J young men of the district as a token of the re-Condon, Rathreigh; Dr Cramin, Ardagh; Michl Cremin, P L G; John Woulfe, Pat Donovan, J Condon, C Cremin, Joe Magner, Michael McCoy, Newcastle. The clergymen who officiated were-Very Rev the Dean of Limerick, Rev Canon Haydn, Rev Canon Wills.

Amongst those who presented fieral and other wraths wer - Mis R leston, the Misses Massy, Mrs E W O'Brian, Mr and Mrs Vickery, &c.

The funeral arrangements were satisfactorily conducted by Mr Maurice Curtin, Newtastle West.

TRANSFIELD'S CIECUS.

This very popular place of amusement having re-opened on 19 h September, continues to be the centre of attraction. It is througed every night which is not to be wondered at considering the elaborate programme presented. Mr Trausfield not only goes in for equine displays, but his bill of fare includes a regular variety company, comrising acrobats jugglers, slick wire performan-

His Honer (to Mr O'Grady)-Do you supply the best mutton at 44 I per lin?

His Honor Tes, your Honor.

His Honor Ton ought to open a branch in South During, You ought to charge 101.

Mr O'Grady was sworn, and in reply to Mr Sullivan said that he took the contract to supply best mutton at 42 per lb. The ment le sent in on Saturday was as good as ever was esten. He had been cost actor since he was able to walk, and the only complaint that was ever made during that period was that one side was overweight. On the Saturday mentioned the mutton wa-kil ed by himself—it was of the best quality. It was sent to the workhouse and the master said he would not take it. He went up and met the master, who refused three times to any why he rejected it. He then said to the master that if he refused to give the reason he was an infernal cur." He went to the yard, where he found the meat dirty and at the merey of cats and paupers. I sent a quarter to Mr. Lowe, Sunville, who I am supplying for 31 years. I sent more of it to Mr C J Coote, Mount Coote to Mr. Richard Bayly, Green Park, who is father-in-law to Judge Johnson His Honor-This is a good case.

Mr O Grady I asked Rev Dr Hackett to take some as a sample, which he did, and subsequently praised it and returned thanks.

His Hener-Arcall these people going on well

Mr O'Grady—Oh. law, yes (laughter). Continuing, he said that as regards Tuesday's supply be did not know what had been done till he got a b tter from Mr Liston to remove it; he sold all Saturday's mat except 80 lbs, which went bad; he now sued for £7 odd.

Cross-examined by Mr Liston-Do you believe O'Rourke gave his opinion fairly? I say now and then that he judged it unfairly, when he said wether was old ewe.

On further cross-examination, the witness said he was award that O'Rourke was a contractor; did not know whether his meat was rejected or not. Mr Begley and his predeces or got meat from him worth £11, for which he was never paid; believed O'Rourke was behind a dor in the workhouse while inspecting meat on Tuesday.

Mr Liston-When O'Rourke was contractor of the workhouse did you not inspect his meat? That statement is false, and as false n w as then; the meat he took back on Saturday was sent to Mrs. Lowe, Dr. Hackett, and elsewhere

D T C Downes, medical officer of the union, in reply to Mr Sullivan, deposed that he saw the four sides of ment at Mr O'Grady's sall on Saturday, In his opi ion it was first-cass quality. On Tuesday he saw one helf side at the workhouse. He saw two quantities of mest, but could not say to which day they belonged. Both were of good quality.

Mr Begley, the most rof the union, for the defence, in reply to Mr Liston, deposed that he recollected the dates in question when Mr Grady supplied the meat, which he reject d dr the grounds that one side was over weight and that the three other sides were ald ewe He was 14 years examining meat in the union He did not examine them further than look at them He did not call in Mr O'Rourke till Monda, evening.

Mr James O'Rourke deposed that he is victualler and knows Mr O'Grady. He was called by Mr Begley to inspect the mutter of the 14th August. It was still his opinion the the animal was old ewe.

Cross-examined by Mr Sullivan—He lear that the sheep which he described as old ew were bought from Mr Coote, of Mount Coote

Mr John Ryan, J.P., deposed that he inspecte the matten in question, in a sort of way, a M O'Grady's stall. He considered one fore-quart to be good.

His Honor said the Guardians of the Kilms lock Union were to be congratulated on having such a master as Mr Begley and such an except Guardian as Mr Ryan. Very often many publications take complaints from contractors. when he saw the master standing forward should be supported by the Guardians by the law. As to the relation of the mast