

the adjourned meeting.
r the supply of oils, brushes, vided between Messrs Bynne y & Co.
rned.

FEVER IN TORONTO.
London, Tuesday Morning.
a correspondent telegraphs:— which has prevailed in Toronto has been intensified by the of coal near Sudbury, about north of Toronto. Thousands led to view the specimens op window. Everyone was would be obtained at 2 dollars 6 dollars now paid for the ct, which monopolises the One officers of the Geological ad these hopes by the stately-discovered mineral is one inferior fuel, and does not t extent.

amed Pappleton, was on Sun-
to the Liverpool Infirmary, raphobia. He was bitten by s ago, and unfavourable sym-while attending divine service day.

rtland writer employed by the rtland Breakwater, pleaded Assises on Saturday to emg to the Government.
also loses his pension, was en months imprisonment.

ed Edward Melia, living in was charged at the Dublin day with having travelled on Western Railway from Bally-o, to Dublin without a ticket.
when searched at the police g ticket was found in the here, no doubt, he had put s pocket. He was discharged.

Coal to be had only from
td., Limerick.

accuracy & value (which must in all cases be an authenticated), are charged 2s 6d each. For ever additional line 6d

BIRTHS.

Blennerhassett—October 30, 1896, at The Terrace, Tralee, the wife of Arthur F Blennerhassett of a daughter.

Graham—November 1, 1896, at Garden House, William street, Kilkenny, the wife of E H
Graham of a daughter.

MARRIAGE.

Walker and Wayt—October 28, at St Michael's, Southsea, Cornelia Lacy Walker, youngest son of the late Thomas West Walker, to Annie Matilda, eldest daughter of John Noble Wayt, of 2 St Mura's terrace, Church road, Dublin.

DEATHS.

Gabbett—On 3rd November, '96, at his residence, Caherline House, Co. Limerick, Richard J.
Gabbett, Esq., J.F., in his 69th year, deeply regretted.

Griffin—October 23rd, 1896, at New York, Aphra, aged 75, widow of the late George E. Griffin, formerly of The Abbey, Bathurst, and eldest daughter of the late George Massy, Glenwilliam Castle, Co. Limerick.

Maunsell—October 31st, at Finnitterston House, Louisa Sophia, wife of the late Frederrick Maunsell.

Starke—On Monday, 2nd Nov., at his residence,
No. 27 Edward street, Limerick, James Starke, dealer in horses, aged 56 years. Funeral tomorrow (Wednesday) at 10 o'clock for Mount St. Laurence Cemetery—R.I.P.

O'Brien—On the 2nd instant, at 34 High street, the residence of his mother, Daniel Joseph, eldest surviving son of the late John C. O'Brien, pawnbroker. Funeral will leave High street for St. Laurence's Cemetery on to-morrow (Wednesday) at 1 p.m.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT.

The Secretary Protestant Orphan Society
thankfully acknowledges from St Mary's Branch—Offertory Harvest Thanksgiving Service in Cathedral—$11.

Statistical and Social Inquiry Ireland.

BARRINGTON LECTURES POLITICAL ECONOMY.

A COURSE of Barrington Lectures on Po-cal Economy, under the auspices of Corporation of Limerick and the Committee the Free Public Library, will be delivered in Athenæum on each Thursday in November, by H. OLDHAM, Esq, Barrister-at-Law, at the h of 8 p.m.

LECTURES.

THURSDAY, 5th NOVEMBER, at 8 p.m.
Subject—The Economic History of Ireland 150 years.

Chairman—Right Worshipful the Mayor

THURSDAY, 12th NOVEMBER, at 8 p.m.
Subject—The Free Trade Policy of Great Bri
and its Consequences.

Chairman—W. Spillane, Esq., D.L.

THURSDAY, 19th NOVEMBER, at 8 p.m.
Subject—History and Purpose of Trade Un among Wage-earners.

Chairman—A. Shaw, Esq., J.P.

THURSDAY, 26th NOVEMBER, at 8 p.m.
Subject—On Strikes and Trade Disputes betw Employers and Workmen.

Chairman—J. Frost, Esq., J.P., M.R.I.A.

Admission to each Lecture 2d and 6d.
Tickets for the course 6d and 2s 0d, to be ha the Free Public Library, Lower Glentwo street; O'Connor, 123 George-street, or at door.

Doors open at 7.15. A Band programme be performed in the interval till the Lec begins.

By order,
W. M. NOLAN, Town Clerk, and Sec. of Committee