DEATH OF MASTER J. W. BURKE IRWIN.

The many friends of Mr J B Irwin, R.M, in this city and county, will hear with sincere regret of the death of his only son, Master Joseph William Burke Irwin, aged 16, who passed away on the 27th instant, at Bournemouth, where he had been staying during the winter for the benefit of his health. The bright little fellow was well known in Limerick, where he was a great favourite, and proved himself to be gifted with varied talents which gave promise of a bright future for him. His death has, it need hardly be said, thrown Mr Irwin and his family into profound grief, and all who had the pleasure of the acquaintance of our late Resident Magistrate will deeply sympathise with him in his sorrow.

FASHIONABLE MARRIAGE.

Yesterday afternoon at St George's Church, Hanover square, the marriage took place of Surgeon-Major A Hickman Morgan, D S late Army Medical Staff, eldest son of Mr Anthony Morgan, J.P, County Cork (High Sheriff 1890), late Captain 95 Regiment, and grandson of the late Mr James Dymons, of Baskin Hill, County Dublin, and Miss Mary Bagnell, youngest daughter of Mr C E Bagnell, of Clonkennan, County Limerick, and of Govan Hill, Glasgow, and 14 Grosvenor place, London, S.W. The service was full choral. The rector of St George's officiated, assisted by the Rev E Haines, M A, of St George's. The bridegroom was attended by Captain Knox as best man. There was only one child bridesmaid, Miss Norah Bagnell (niece of the bride) who was gowned in white satin ornamented with lace, and white straw hat with ostrich tips. The bridegroom's presents to her were a diamond safety-pin and nosegay of pink carnation. The bride was married in a gown of white duchesse satin with full court train, the bodice being ornamented with lace. Her Brussels lace veil covered a tiara of orange blossoms and her ornaments were diamonds. Among those present at the church and reception given by Mrs Bagnell at 14 Grosvenorplace were, Miss Eden, Mr Pape, Miss Bishops, Mr Logan, Mr T Warren, Mr and Mrs Townshend, Captain and Mrs Morgan, Captain Donald Stewart, Doctor and Mrs Bagnell, Hon Mrs A J Ram, and Captain Knox. Subsequently Mr and Mrs A H Morgan left for their honeymoon tour. The presents numbered 200
