DEATH OF A YOUNG LIMEBICK MAN ABBOAD. we regret to record the death, which took place at East London, South Africa, on the 15th April, of Mr Wm Armstrong, youngest son of Mr The deceased, who was only in his 22nd year, had been for some years in the office of Messrs Spaight & Sons, and so late as the month of February last he went out to the Cape, but evidently his constitution was unequal to the severity of the climate. Cut off at the threshold of manhood and in a far distantiand, his death is particularly said and so wholly unerpected that all who know his expected family will deeply sympathise with them in their affliction. By the young gentleman's many friends in Limetick, to whom he was endeared by his kind and unobtrusive manner, the sad news has been received with unfeigned sorrow. We regret to record the death, which took place nt these shows are

The Executive Committee met, this evening. Lord Emly presided. The Restaurant Committee are very wisely arranging for having luncheon and refreshment stalls outside the building, a want which was greatly felt lest year. In connection with the Great Fair, the W. L. & Western Railway will give every facility to visitors. Special trains will be run, and at very reasonable rates. Enquiry offices, banking and, t lephonic arrangements are all to be catered for; and the latest development in horseless carriages may possibly be seen bringing the wenry traveller to his destination. Another novelty will be the maze, whether of mirrors or otherwise we are not quite able to state, but the visitor will soon find this out for himself.

The Chairman, said he had great pleasure in presiding on the constant work in the feature of the Church by the opportunity is flooded to essember of various demonstations of me ting topeller and co-operating in Christian work all were the world. He was sure they would be interested in the report which would be given of the general work of the Alliance, but they must all specially interested in the case, of their fellow-Christians in Armenia who were being so cruelly tented by their Mahommedan rulers. Great Britain had a special responsibility in the mater, and they must all feel ashamed and humiliated at the important position occupied by their Government in regard to those fearful outrages. He would not further cocupy their time, but would call on Mr Mullan to address the meeting.

Rav Mr Mullau said that the present year was the jubiles of the Alliance. In the eligious progress and developments of the last fifty years the Alliance had taken in important part. In the firt place it had testified, amid the divisions of Christian dom, to the cesson till and tundamental unity of the true Church of Christ on earth. Ar Long, &c. At the City Petty Sessions yesterday when the dock cases had been disposed of, the Mayor addressing the Chairman (Mr E, F, Hickson, R.M), said it was with very great and sincere regret that he rose to propose the adjournment of the court as a mark of respect to the memory of their, late colleague, Mr Robert M Dennell, who as well as his father; was for many years asciciated with that bench. He was speaking in the presence of gentlemen who would be able to bear bim out when he raid that the late Mr M Donnell was respected by all classes of his fellow-citizens. He (the Mayor), was brought therical was respected by fitten months into during the last twelve or fitteen months into nel, and he was thoroughly acquaint d with every matter with which he had to deel. The expression of regret which now came from that bench would be shared by every citizen (hear,

Mr J. Guinane seconded the proposition, and said he had to express his personal regret at Mr M Donnell's death. He had known Mr M Donnell almost all his life, and it would be difficult to find a more upright, honest, or more intelligent man. Universal regret was expressed by the citizans at his death; and he wished to join in an especial manner in that expression of Mr J Dundon, solr, on behalf of the profession Mr J Dundon, solr, on hehalf of the profession which he represented, said he desired to express his concurrence in the expressions of regret which had fallen from the bench at the death of Mr. MrDonnell. He had been practising in that court for a great number of years when both the late Mr MrDonnell and his father were on the bench, and during all that time he never heard a word of recrimination between the late Mr MrDonnell and the migistrates on the bench or the late J profession. Personally h. felt the M'Donneil and the magistrates on the bench or the legal profession. Personally he felt the death of Mr M'Donnell very keenly, because he was a close personal friend of his for many years, and he felt deeply the loss of his friendship. He sincerely regretted his death. Mr J. H. Moran, solicitor, said he concurred with everything which had fallen from the magistrates and Mr Dundon, and anything said would be well deserved.

If do not know to whom I am to give the cradit for the selection of the staff—whoever has done so deserves the thankwof the visitors. Fr. in the manager to the boots each appears to vie with the other in his endeavour to make the guests comfortable and happy. On last Sunday he had about 40 at dinner—during the med everyone was attended to without bustle or confusion. I never experienced more ease and comfort in any hotel in which I stayed, and having knocked about very much for the last eight or ten years, I can speak from experience.

One must come and see before one realizes all our talented fellow-c-timen (Mr Barrington, C.E.) has done. After going through the several rooms, I was amax-d at the nearness and good taste of the decorations, &c. It is a marvel to see what can be done without bricks, stone, and plast r.

I cannot conclude without best wing my fonourable testimony to the polite attention of the excellent manager. Not alone are all your wants supplied, but they appear to be anticipated. I again say, if you want value for your time and money, as the charges are most reasonable, got the Lahinch Golf Links Hotel.
