

rowed, and thereafter Corporate property. be carried out more thoroughly than the a. Erecting cottages that happens to be the requirements of ion such as this city e remedied demands have as yet been at unnecessary to point which the artizans heir lives. The old been very excellent) centuries ago, but are falling to pieces d rottenness. Their ast degree and dirty s is not altogether in these places, for nder such conditions. ere these tall and heir battered fronts, unattractive, and cticular. And it is these that the wife er family; and it is it betake himself is not the slightest ent that many parts and squalor, are y city in Europe. e there, and that strong there, shows ility the human or resisting the roundings. Whilst ognised, and are p O'Dwyer must be y out clearly where He has practically ation of the Corpo- ct of Parliament for the purpose of t difficulties which certain parts of the n. The Act was he Housing of the Act an area pro- uthority to be un- or the public good, being protected. uman habitation, condition of the ficient ventilation, niences, or other

street. THE CORPORATION DOCUMENTS.—The Corporation has received notice requiring them to take over all the legal documents belonging to them in the possession of the representatives of the late Law Adviser, Mr Connolly. The notice has been referred to Mr Dundon, the present Law Adviser to the Corporation.

FISHING AT CASTLECONNELL.—The autumnal run of salmon should soon begin; and anglers are looking forward to some tough bouts, as the heavy salmon—for which the back-end season on the Shannon is noted—make gallant fights for liberty. Trout fishers have been few during the week, but anglers for perch, etc., are having a good time of it, one coarse fisher getting 16 fine-sized perch in an hour.

ST MARY'S CATHEDRAL.—6th Sept.—Matins, 11.30 o'clock; Venite, Turle in F; Chant, Langdon, in F; Service, Stewart in G; Hymn, 553; Communion Service, Stewart in G; Preacher, the Precentor. Evensong, 3.30 o'clock—Chant, Rogers in E flat, and Woodward in B flat; Service, Rogers in E flat; Anthem, "They that go down to the sea" (Attwood); Hymn, 484; Preacher, the Rev W J Adams, B A, Succentor.

FUNERAL OF THE LATE MRS MAUNSELL.—The funeral of the late Mrs Maunsell, wife of Mr D. Meares Maunsell, J P, Ballywilliam, Rathkeale, whose death occurred on Thursday last, took place this afternoon, the remains being conveyed by road to St John's burial ground, where the interment took place. The deceased lady was most popular in the neighbourhood where she lived, and her demise is generally regretted. The cortege was large and representative.

CHARGE OF CATTLE STEALING.—This morning, a man named Hamersley was brought up at the Police Court by Head Constable Soden, Newpallas, on the charge of stealing some cattle, the property of Patrick O'Connell, who resides near Doon. It appears that two head of cattle belonging to O'Connell were taken from Mr Dalton's lands in June last, and were sold in Thurles. It was given in evidence that the prisoner was the seller of the stolen cattle. On the application of the Head Constable, a remand was granted.

BAND PROMENADE.—To-morrow afternoon the usual band promenade will be held at Lansdowne Park. The programme, which will be performed by the No. 1 Brass Band, is especially attractive, the items to be performed being as follows:—March, "On the Warpath," J Bailey; Selection, "Carmen," Bizet; Selection, "Gems of Columbia," H Round; Valse, "Boccacio," Suppe; Intermezzo, "Ralliance," J Ord Hume; Schottische, "Sociable," H Round; Quadrille, "Galatea," Wright; Valse, "Fond Memories," Erskine; Polka, "X.Y.Z.," Linter; Finale, Garryowen. Conductor—Mr T O'Brien, Bandmaster.

VISITORS TO KILKEE.

The latest visitors to Kilkee include—Captain O'Brien, Mr M Rolleston, Mr R G Carey, New York; Mr R Hunt, Belfast; Mr M McGreen, Dublin; Mr T Blake, B A; Mr Atkinson and family, Mr Brady and Miss Brady, Mr Mitchell

at this juncture to comment on the cause of the unfortunate accident, as the matter will probably form the subject of investigation in the courts.

VISIT OF MR. LOUIS CALVERT'S COMPANY TO THE THEATRE ROYAL.

This Company will pay its first visit to Limerick next week, and will be engaged each night at the Theatre in some of the most celebrated Irish plays. For Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday, Proof, one of the most popular dramas of modern times, is billed, and this story dealing largely with a battle with which the history of Limerick is associated, viz—Fontenoy, combine with the touching pathos of many of its scenes and the mantle of romance that covers all, sure to attract large audiences. Thursday, Van Wrinkle, Friday and Saturday, The Showgirl's Traum, so that the excellence of the company to whom Mr Calvert has entrusted the representation, coupled with the attractiveness of the plays, should ensure large audiences. Mr Guilfoyle Seymour will take the part of "Pierie Lorance" in Proof, the heroic soldier, and later the broken hearted convict. The two leading ladies of Mr Louis Calvert's company, Miss Ada Mellow and Miss Agnes Knights, come with splendid credentials, the Dublin Press having passed on them the highest encomiums. Their parts in Proof are highly sympathetic, and calculated to display the high histrionic genius which these artistes possess. The engagements should prove a highly popular and successful one.

ROMANTIC ELOPEMENT FROM YOUGHAL.

Just at the close of the season a sensation of a small scale has roused public feeling in Youghal by the disappearance of a young lady, a seaside visitor from the county Limerick. The lady's name is Parker, aged 20, daughter of a retired solicitor, who accompanied her to Youghal in July. She is possessed both of personal and monetary attractions. The lady and her father were staying at Green Park Hotel, where they were introduced to a gentleman named Benson who described himself as an American journalist on a holiday tour in Ireland. As his appearance and manners were gentlemanly and he was well supplied with money, he was well received by the visitors at the hotel. He paid such special attention to Miss Parker that her father spoke to him as to his position and standing in New York and as a result determined to get his daughter away. However the couple outwitted him by sailing on Thursday in a yacht for Queenstown. There they got on board an outward bound steamer for New York on Friday, two hours before the father arrived by rail. The crew of the yacht returned with the boat on Monday, as stated that Miss Parker had money and all her personal luggage in the yacht. Her father followed by the next steamer.—Dublin Mail.

ACCIDENT TO AN OLD WOMAN IN ENNIS.

A woman named Mary Waters, living in one of the lanes running from Mill street to the Quays, has been admitted to the Co. Infirmary suffering from a fracture of the thigh bone. The woman's story is that on Monday night, when she was endeavouring to keep out of her house, a man named John Fox, who is alleged to have been at the time in flight from the police, she was knocked to the ground and the limb broken.