According to the Johannesburg correspondent of the Times the Transvaal revenue for August, as compared with the corresponding period of 1896, shows a decrease of £105,000, or 20 per cent, and the expenditure an increase of £93,000 or 23 per cent. The Treasury balance at the end of August was £475,000, against £1,200,000.

The Madrid correspondent of the Temps telegraphs that he still adheres to the correctness of his report of the interviews between the Duke of Fernan and General Woodford, the United
