THE O'GRADY MEMORIAL.

The Medical Press says—We understand that a movement is in progress on the part of the many friends of the late Mr O'Grady, of Mercer's Hospital, Dublin, to promote a memorial of him and his professional work. It is proposed to hold a public meeting of the profession, at which Sir George Duffey, President of the Royal College of Physicians in Ireland, was to have taken the chair; but, as a recent bereavement makes his doing so impossible, Mr Thomson, President of the Royal College of Surgeons, has undertaken to take his place. We believe that the interim secretaries are Mr M'Grath and Dr Ninian Falkiner.
