

ne sparks got on to the roof umber, and thus caused the e news reached town, Head nd Morrow and a number of no time in driving out to ren-ual in such cases, the out the city last night aggerated character, but ig facts indicate, the ill involve a considerable ex-it good, is comparatively ith what it might have been broke out in a remote part of n noticed in good time. The ppear to be uninjured.

LADY LIMERICK AT ORE CASTLE.

Countess of Limerick have nty seat, Dromore Castle, and tend to remain there for a

Y IN THE IRISHTOWN WARD.

ND THE MAYORALTY.

Town Councillor for the Irish-the vacancy created by the Daniel Kenneally, will take Hall, on Wednesday, the 18th the nomination of candidates ock on Monday next. The rise to considerable public the fact that Mr John Daly's that he should have a seat in is sought to secure a vacancy tion of a candidate who would n in his favour in October, otions take place, and when Mr ed to seek election. The only d is Mr Thomas Dillon, grocer t, Mungret street, and it is porters demur that he should conditions, and consequently ong opposition will be given by the section who desire Mr he Council. At a meeting of Committee, held on Thursday Hall, a resolution was passed to Mr Daly as a candidate for ard. A resolution was also o hold a public meeting on ig next for the purpose of feridature of Mr Daly for the KILLALOE CATHEDRAL.

red Music was held on Monday n service, in Killaloe Cathedral. d by Canon Gillespie. An adthe Lord Bishop, in the course upon the connection of sacred worship. The Recital included Spohr, Mendelssohn, Gounod, ste, Raff, Robinson, &c., all of ed in an artistic and devotional e L Archdall, Ashe, Lily and Koe, D Lefroy, Ethel Stanis-Canon Stanistreet, and Mr r collection was taken up.

HERY PROSECUTIONS AT CROOM.

umbered that a few months ago y Sessions, before Major Rolles-Bevan, Patrick Fay, John ward Morrison, were prosecuted of the Limerick Fishery Board charged by Constable Clancey, John street, with drunkenness and disorderly conduct in the public street. The defendant was ordered to be imprisoned for a month in default of paying a fine of 21s and costs. Bridget Cassidy, an old offender, was charged with a similar offence, and a fine of 10s 6d, or the alternative of fourteen days' imprisonment was imposed. There were several other cases of a trivial nature brought at the suit of the police, small penalties being imposed.

THE LADY'S PICTORIAL.

The sketches in to-day's issue of The Lady's Pictorial include "The Queen at Cowes," "Low Tide at Cliftonville" (a seaside scene). There are photos of the King and Queen of Siam, and of a Royal group at Copenhagen. The fashion illustrations comprise "Smart Tailor-mades for the Holidays" (Messrs. Phillips & Son, Quadrant House, Regent Street), and "The Latest Tailor-made Fashions" (Messrs John Simmons & Sons) The Irish letter, by Amazon, is as usual most interesting, and we find a complimentary reference to the Shannon Development Traffic.

FUNERAL OF MR. J. SHEEHY, KILDIMO.

The interment of this deeply lamented young gentleman took place on Wednesday in the family burial ground at Nantenan. The deceased was the son of Mr J F Sheehy, J P, Kildimo, and had only attained the age of 23 years. His many good qualities and his affable and genial manner endeared him to all, while, along with his personal popularity there is to be considered the high esteem in which his family and relatives are held, and the enormous extent of the funeral cortege was not therefore to be wondered at. The clergymen present were—Very Rev Dr Moloney, P P, V G, Rathkeale; Rev F Moloney, P P, Pallaskenry; Rev L Curtin, C C, do, and Rev Father Bourke, S J.
The chief mourners were—Mr J F Sheehy, J P, father; Mr James Sheehy, brother; Mr Richard Maume, senior, and Mr R Maume, junior, cousins.
Amongst the general public were—Mr Bryan O'Donnell, Limerick; Dr Hannigan, Pallaskenry; Mr W O'Donnell, Mr Peter Curtin, Mr M Naughton, P L G; Mr John M'Donnell, Mr E C Hartigan, B E, Rathkeale; Mr E C Johnston, Mr P Mulcahy, Kilcurley; Mr E Walker Casey, Rathkeale; Mr M J McDonnell, solicitor and coroner, do; Mr Joseph Lyons, V S; Mr John M'Namara, P L G, Limerick; Mr D Naughton, Mr Thomas Cahill, &c.

KILMALLOCK FAIR.—WEDNESDAY.

There was a dull fair to-day, except for yearlings and two year old bulls. Very few calves were bought up, and beef and mutton were scarcely sought after. Beef realized from 48s to 50s per cwt; mutton, 6½d to 6¾d; yearling bulls, 26 to 28 10s, and two year olds from 210 to 220 10s; a few springers went from 810 to 815.

STRANGLER AND THROWN INTO THE THAMES.

An inquest was held at Whitechapel last evening on the body of a man unknown, aged about forty, and six feet four inches in height, which was found floating in the Thames, naked and with a rope fastened round the neck, body, and wrist. The medical evidence was to the effect that the man had been strangled and the body thrown into the river. The jury returned an open verdict.

THE ARMY.

Mr Guinane—Mr Ryan, do you admit the is your ale?

Mr Ryan—I do, sir.

Mr Bourke—That will save a lot of time.
Mr James M'Dowell, manager of the Agency of Messrs Bass and Co, deposed th Begley has been for years dealing with the In consequence of something that came knowledge of the firm, Mr Draper and were sent by him to Mr Begley's establish-in July. Witness then deposed to see in bottles sealed before they were sent to analyst.

Mr Ryan—Mr Begley has been a large mer of yours?

Witness—No; not a large customer.

Mr Ryan—You have had transactions wit for years?

Witness—We have.

Mr James O'Sullivan, Analyst, deposed th has been for 21 years in the employe Messrs Bass & Co. of Burton-on-Trent. H their head analyst. Not a drop of pale brewed or sold by Bass & Co that he or h assistants did not analyse. He analysed bottle (received) on the 6th July. The of his analysis was that it was not Bass' There was not the slightest doubt about He received the second bottle on the 9th and he analyzed that with the same result received the third bottle on the 22nd July, a analysed it, and found its contents were not ale. He took portion of the ale out of each for analysis, and the remainder is in the b

Mr Ryan—Could you tell us whose ale it I could not.

Mr P E Bourke, J P—Were the bottles the George-street house forwarded for ana-Witness—They were analyzed. I coul say that they were not Bass's ale.

Further questioned, the witness said he not swear that they were not Bass's ale.

The complainants' case having closed,

Mr Ryan said that he appeared in this ca Mr Begley, who was known to every mem the Court, and had carried on business in city as a fair and honest trader for 28 years had for several years been getting Bass's ale for family reasons, in consequence of his in-law being agent in Limerick for Ind, Coo Co, he had been getting their ale in add These ales are sold in the William street but in George street he deals exclusively with Bass. Mr Begley had in his employ for four years a confidential man. He d June last, and since then this misfortu occurred. Mr Begley would swear to them he was neither party nor privy to this trans-nor had he any knowledge of it whatever. the death of this man he got two other they did not turn out satisfactory, and h charged them. The first he heard about matter was on getting a telegram at Kill a summons had been served on Tuesday house. No communication had been m him directly or indirectly before the plaintiffs.

Mr Begley was then examined and in Mr Ryan deposed that he was 23 years in This was the first occasion on which he ha into court during that period. He had bee ing with Bass and Co for ale, and for reasons, as stated by Mr Ryan, he has been Ind, Coope's ale in addition. He had, of c two separate labels. There was no differe the price of the two ales. He had a man Martin Tuohy bottling these ales for four years, and he had no reason to find fault w way he did his business. Tuohy died in th of June, and any irregularities that occur the establishment occurred after this death. He had to discharge other men he in to succeed him. He sold the two ales in W