CLARE COUNTY INFIRMARY.

The usual monthly meeting of the Acting Committee of the Clare County Infirmary, was held yesterday.

Most Rev Dr McRedmond presided, and there were also present—Messrs J H Harvey, M S
Horan, and M A Scanlan.

The first business was the appointment of a probationer nurse.

Applications was read from the following—
Miss Cahill, Ennis; Miss Collins, ditto; Miss
Delia M Blood; Ballyvaughan; Miss M Daly,
Ennis; Miss Ellen Carmody, Barefield.

Miss Collins was unanimously appointed.
It was decided to adjourn the consideration of the tenders for the painting and repairing of Dr
Faris' residence at the next meeting.

THE NEW WARDS.

Dr Faris, Resident Surgeon, informed the meeting that he had received a cheque for £50
from Mr Marcus Keane, D L, for himself, his brothers and sister, towards the new wards which they had fitted up in the memory of their father, the late Mr M Keane, Beech Park.

The thanks of the Governors were unanimously voted to the family for their munificent gift.

There was no other business and the board adjourned.
