MR KIRKWOOD AGAIN EXAMINED.

ENORMOUS INTEREST.

Mr John Kirkwood, money lender, again appeared before the Parliamentary Committee today. Mr Ascrott elicited that Kirkwood leat 2400 to a gentleman, whose name was not disclosed. The borrower paid back 2175, and still owed 2187 for interest. But that, said Kirkwood, was no hardship, because the man had not paid. Witness then demurred to answering questions in regard to transactions with a lady. Witness would not admit that he had sold up 27 small farmers.

At the close of the sitting of the Money Lending Committee, it was decided to report to the ing Committee, it was decided to report to the House the recommendation that they be te-
