

McCormack, Nothing, ster, and witness emphatically that he knew the ever in her house. He of Kirby's cows. It might be a question same.

this juncture raised man could not be own cattle, and that if ken against Kirby they under the Prevention of a very strong view of of the allegations made ference to his wife, and sed a question as to his s very important from that a great number of imals and property have ntry, and it would be a ole of a neighbourhood if such as the accused was rpose of obtaining money an could be proceeded l that he made a fraudu- brand Jury, but there was ase. was strange a man could and that there was no to his act, and the sooner e better. glish was examined, and dlege it could not have

Mr Harris, an official Agency office, Limerick, od character, but said he estion of jealousy. would leave the matter ey would convict the prie prisoner guilty, with a rey. as quite unnecessary, as he n out the man was not ions. He did not believe is head.

to the same conclusion. thought the whole thing bly with a dash of drink, up a little he would be all le had asked him to state a rown Cases Reserved, and the meantime he would on bail to appear at next me the case would be de- alled Sergeant McAree on 7 complimented him on the ad conducted the case from de Salis, wife of Count de Salis, of Lough Gur, Co. Limerick, of a son, at the residence of her mother, Princess Caraman de Chimay, at Brussels.

STEALING: 30, a shepherd, was indicted the property of Mr Buckley, ust, 1895. leaving the box, found a ty, and the prisoner was nes Caruthers, the Crown nolle prosequi.

Livingstone—January 2, at 88, Grosvenor square, Rathmines, Dublin, the wife of R D Livingstone of a son.

MARRIAGES.

Berry and M'Kioley—On the 5th instant, at St. Michael's Church, by the Venerable Archdeacon, Hamilton, John Frisby Berry, of Rochampton, Loudon, to Catherine, Margaret (Katie), youngest daughter of Archibald M'Kioley, of Herry street.

Macomish and German—December 31, 1896, at the Methodist Church, Cootehill, by the Rev Moses Douglas, John Stanley, son of James Macomish, of Crieff, Perthshire, to Maggie, third surviving daughter of the late Richard German, Cootehill, Co Cavan.

DEATHS.

Vereker—January 3rd, 1897, at Wellington Villa, Limerick, Rev. Thomas Vereker, M.A., Precentor of Killaloe Cathedral. Funeral at 10 o'clock on Wednesday morning to St. Mary's Cathedral.

Buckley—On the 4th instant, Mary Josephine, widow of the late John M. Buckley (Flavin and Co., George street), fortified by the rites of her Church. Funeral from St Michael's Church at one o'clock on Wednesday, 6th inst.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT.

The Treasurer of Barrington's Hospital thankfully acknowledges the following subscriptions—Messrs John Jameson and Son, Ltd, £10; James O'Mara, 10s.

HUNTING APPOINTMENTS.

The County Limerick Hounds (Mr J. B Charters) will meet as follows:—
January:

Wednesday, 6th.....Askeaton
Friday, 8th.....Adare
Hour—Eleven o'clock.

The Clare Hounds (Hajor Hickman's) will meet as follows:—

January.
Wednesday, 6th Carribane Cross Roads
Friday, 8th Moyriesk Gate
Monday, 11th Shepperton
Wednesday, 13th Buncraggy
Friday, 15th.....Sixmilebridge
Monday, 18th.....Newgrove
Wednesday, 20th.....Kilmurry
Friday, 22nd.....Ballycar Station
Hour, 11.30.

Hour—11.30 o'clock.

The Scarteen Black and Tans (Mr C Ryan's), will meet:—

January.
Friday, 8th Cluggin
Monday, 11th.....Ardglass
Friday, 15th Longstone
Hour 1 o'clock.

Madrid, Tuesday.

A Havana despatch states that Maceo's successor is not popular with the insurgents, whose forces are consequently disorganised.

Another telegram says that Matimo Gome has crossed the Spanish fortified line at Jucar

COLONEL MAZHAR BEY'S TRIAL.

Constantinople, Monday.

Colonel Mazhar Bey's trial has commenced without the dragomans of the French and Italian Embassies being admitted, in spite of the insistence of those Embassies that their representative should attend.

ASSASSINATION OF AN ARMENIAN.

Constantinople, Monday.

An Aleppo despatch announces the assassination of Bedras Effendi, an Armenian. Details are wanting.

THE ACTION AGAINST MR WHITE.

With the consent of both parties, the closing of the record in the action of Miss Helen Guillan Grant, of Dundee, against Mr James Martin White, formerly M P for Forfarshire was in Edinburgh to-day postponed for a month.

PRINCESS LOUISE CONVALESCENT.

The Press Association is officially informed that Princess Louise, Marchioness of Lorne, quite well again.

THE BISHOPRIC OF LONDON.

Dr Creighton was to-day formally elected Bishop of London.

MURDEROUS ATTACK ON A MAN AT EPSOM.

A builder named Ayres, was attacked and robbed by four men at Epsom last night. Ayres is in a precarious condition.

LIMERICK PIG MARKET.

There were practically no pigs in the Limerick Pig Market to-day, the farmers sending the hogs in preference to the stores. It is understood that part of the arrangement come to last week between the merchants and the pig-buyers, that the agents appointed by the merchants to collect pigs in various districts will cease to act on Friday, or, at all events, next week, and farmers in these districts having pigs for sale will have the choice of sending them to the stores or selling at the local fairs to the buyers.

DELICIOUS MAZAWATTEE TEA
DELICIOUS MAZAWATTEE TEA
Fine, Rich, and Delicious.

Sole Agent for Limerick and District—J. KIDD, 103 and 3-George street.