ere a lot of scrambling and rough play took place, until Browne, getting possession, brought the ball to the Garryowen 25, but Brian O'Connor picked up and punted finely into touch. Garryowen again attacked, and the three quarters made repeated efforts to score; but the defence was effective. J Lynch obtained a free in clever style, but T O'Connor failed at goal. After another piece of stiff play, Garry- owen got another free for off-side in an advan- tageous position, but T O'Connor was again unsuccessful. Soon after, half-time was call- ed, neither side having scored.

In the second half Garryowen went to work with characteristic determination, and J O'Connor soon got a try, which his brother Ted nicely converted. The Young Men, who up to this had played with remarkable spirit against a strong attack, became somewhat disorganised, the retirement of M'Collogh being a big loss to their side. The tackling of Stokes, Creswell, Browne, Pike, and Cooney was, however, very effective. Another try was obtained by Crowe, and a penalty goal was also got, the game ending—
