
DEATH OF MR GEORGE W HARRIS, J P ALSTON.

We announce with deep regret the very unexpected death of Mr George W Harris, J P, Alston, Croom, eldest son of the late Mr James Harris of this city, which took place at his residence on Tuesday evening. It appears that Mr Harris became suddenly ill after dinner, and he expired before medical assistance arrived. Amongst a very wide circle of friends his death has caused the most widespread sorrow. A kind-hearted, genial, and most sincere friend, he was held in the highest esteem by all who enjoyed his acquaintance and his decease at the early age of 47, years is very deeply deplored. Mr Harris took a great interest in horse-breeding and in sport generally, and in many ways proved himself a most active and popular county gentleman. We deeply sympathise with Mrs Harris in her great unforeseen sorrow. The funeral will leave Alston to-morrow at 2 o'clock for Mount St Lawrence cemetery.

NARROW ESCAPE FROM DROWNING.

Estimate
The M Aldern
Nolan
Advis
The t
in exc
ing th
to me
Att
of 29
Mr
rate o
amou
The
more
the la
On
cided
3s 2d
havin
than
Gas
tribu