it? They tell it with ~~causing~~ When a uniformly capable company contrives to make the minds of those in the Theatre oblivious—as generally seemed to be so last night—to present surroundings, and not fitfully but fixedly focuses attention on the stage, this is strong evidence of skilful acting. The local public are indebted to Mr W Payne Seddon for another dramatic treat, and he has added to his long list "Jane," "Niobe," "The Professor's Love Story," "The Strange Adventures of Miss Brown," &c, a performance which well enhance his popularity as a successful entrepreneur." The W L & W Railway are running excursion trains from Tipperary, Pallas, Ennis, and intermediate stations on their lines.

FUNERAL OF MRS. CATHERINE KELLY, SHANID CASTLE.

The remains of this estimable and highly re- spected lady were on Thursday conveyed to the family vault at Knockpatrick, the funeral cortege being very large and representative, comprising the principal residents of the district for several miles around. The deceased lady, who was in her 65th year, had been suffering for some time, but it is believed the death of her son, Dr Michael Kelly, in England, a few months ago, so affected her that it accelerated her end. She was mother of the Rev. Denis Kelly, C.C., Leadgate, England. Her death will be keenly felt by the poor, to whom she was always a benefactress.

The chief mourners were—Messrs John Kelly (son), John Kelly (nephew), J S Moylan, New- castle (son-in-law), Rev James Cregan, C C, St Michael's, Limerick, John Cregan, Joseph Cregan (nephews); T D McCoy, solicitor, Newcastle; Cornelius Cregan, Adare; Thomas Hayes, M D, Rathkeale; Michael Duffy, and T McMahon, Newcastle West.
