

tsinghi 112, not out.

SESSION OF THE TRANSVAAL VOLKSRAAD.

Pretori, Monday.

The Volksraad was to-day prorogued. President Kruger, in his speech, said that the monopoly was not the greatest harm to the country, but that the greatest harm was done by persons trying to create dissension among the peoples of the African States.

OILERMAKERS RETURN TO WORK.

The boilermakers and iron shipmakers returned to work this morning, on the original basis upon which they were employed on October 14th.

LIAM INGRAM'S ILLNESS.

Liam Ingram, proprietor of the Illustrated News, is lying seriously ill at present.

ROOFS FOR NATAL.

A detachment of the 7th Dragoon Guards and a detachment of the 7th Lieut Paul, with one hundred non-commissioned officers and men of the Royal Irish Fusiliers, are to be sent to Natal on the 25th inst.

MR. HESS AND HIS CORRESPONDENCE WITH THE LATE MR. SALA.

Mr. Hess, editor of the African Critic, has been ordered by the Court to publish a notice of motion on behalf of the late Mr. Sala, for Friday, to restrain Mr. Hess from publishing, printing, or divulging for any purpose correspondence or letters written to or by the late George Augustus Sala.

TRAFFIC.

Case—Scotlands, £66.

Australian cricket saw the Englishings close for 335, or 24 runs ahead of the Colonials. In New South Wales' second innings, M'Kenzie, Garris and Donnan all got out. At the close of play the Colonials were 100 runs ahead with one wicket still to fall.

Monday from 12 to 2 and 7 to 9 o'clock for medicines and medical necessaries. Chemists, 118, George-street. [July 22]

November.

Thursday 18th.....Edenvale
Monday 22nd.....Clare Castle
Wednesday 24th.....Quin
Friday 26th.....Sixmilebridge

Announcement of Births, Marriages and Deaths, not exceeding 5 lines (which must in all cases be duly authenticated), are charged 2s. 6d. each. For every additional line 6d.

BIRTHS.

Banks—November 15, 1897, at 19 Lower Pembroke street, Dublin, the wife of H. J. A. Banks, 2nd Hampshire Regiment, of a daughter.
Davidson—November 14, at 17 Lower Mount street, Dublin, the wife of Rev. J. H. Davidson, M.A., of a son.

MARRIAGE.

Blacker-Douglas and Pulteney—November 9, at Trinity Church, Nice, by the Rev. Arthur Pulteney (uncle of the bride), assisted by the Rev. Frere Langford, St. John S. Blacker-Douglas, second son of St. John Blacker-Douglas, of Elm Park, Co. Armagh, to Isabel, only daughter of Major Pulteney, late 52nd Regiment.

DEATHS.

Myles—October 10th, at Durham, Ox., Victoria, Australia, George Myles, aged 81 years, formerly of Limerick, and brother of the late Zachary Myles, J.P.
Barry—November 10, at his residence, Leamlara, Carrigtwohill, Co. Cork, Charles Standish Barry, Esq., J.P.
Garde—November 11, at 29 St. Luke's road, Bayswater, Eliza Rachel, widow of the Rev. Richard Garde, formerly Vicar of Catterick, Yorkshire, aged 87.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT.

The Caterer for Penny Dinners thankfully acknowledges the following contributions:—Mrs. O'Brien, Shaanon View, 10s.; A. Friend, 5s.; Mrs. Matterson, £1; Messrs. Denny and Sons, 10s.; Mrs. Hammond, vegetables; Messrs. Bannatyne, flour; Messrs. J. Russell and Sons, bread; Messrs. Lipton, Coyle, L. & Fry, tea and sugar; Messrs. A. W. Shaw and Sons, bacon; Mr. E. Barry, Wilham street, meat; Mr. J. M'Corrick, Roche's street, meat; The Mayor, coal.

An able seaman named Stephens, a native of Cornwall, was yesterday drowned on the H.M. ship Amelia at Bantry.

The Lord Lieutenant has postponed till the 30th inst. hearing the deputation from the Chambers of Commerce on the agriculture and industries Bill.

George O'Dea, Esq., M.A. D. Lynch, Esq., M.J. Riordan, Esq., Michael Spain, Esq., Hon. Treasurer, Martin P. Roche, Secretary.

The CASTLEPARK STAKES (Open) All-Aged Dogs at £2 10s. each.

The GREENPARK STAKES (Open) Puppies at £2 10s. each.

The CITIZENS' STAKES (Open) for Dogs that have never won money on Courses, byes not to count, division at £1 10s. each.

The GARRYOWEN STAKES for Dogs, the bona-fide property of the City and County of Limerick, each.

The Secretary begs to draw attention to the fact that nominations in the Garryowen Stake hounds must be registered in Stud-Books. Full particulars on application to

MARTIN P. ROCHE, Secretary, Upper Mallow street,

Nov 13

BARRINGTON'S HOSPITAL

It is proposed to hold a Meeting of the Board of Limerick on Wednesday, 24th inst., at 8 p.m., in the Board-room of Barrington's Hospital, to make arrangements for holding an early next Summer, in aid of the Institution. The Mayor of Limerick promised to take the chair. All interested parties are invited to attend.

By order of Managing Committee

CHARLES BARRINGTON,
JOHN HOLMES, F.R.C.S.

Nov 6, 1897.

WANTED, House Property to let. Advertiser is open to treat for lease of one or two Good Class Houses or Suburbs. Apply, giving full particulars, to "Houses," office of this paper. Nov 16

At a meeting of railway men at Skibbereen resolutions dealing with the present situation were adopted.

Professor Bryce, M.P., speaking at a meeting, strongly criticised the foreign policy of the Government, especially their action on the Indian frontier.

CARVING AND GILDING.—P. C. Catherine street, Picture Frame Makers.