

as they are issued from the press hand machines. Special rebe made to the lithographic depart-is an important factor in business. There is in stock a large specially prepared stones, ready ng, as also copper slabs, and essories connected with this most and scientific branch. It may that all the machines are by a six horse power Otto by Crossley. This is carefully ena timber and wire screen, which pre-possibility of personal accident. The also works a lift, by Weygood, which each story in the building (three in and on the ground floor the goods are a tarry working over a small set of rails, this they are sent into the lift without the lower story is 120 feet long by 18 and the others are of similar dimenthe second floor is devoted to a compos-and an excellent one it is, splendidly lofty, and commodious in every way. a number of the newest pattern of each containing a moveable drawer in is printer places a "galley," and so leaving the frame can empty out the ording as he sets up. Any person anything of the trade will notice that ipment is not alone a convenience, but is also. Leaving the composing room ded to the top storey, which is again ly ventilated, and here the bookbinding, and paper bag making, are carried on. ed two standing presses for book pur-o a press for gilding and illuminating; rating machines, two paging, and two hing machines. The wire stitching of d programmes is done with wonderful a machine on which there is a reel of las regards the manufacture of labels a quantity is turned out in no time ree hand eye-letting machines, ne machine worked by power. nce, the latter machine, which we saw can in one revolution fold, punch, and e label, and three thousand labels may be turned out per hour by the of which only one operative, a young l be in charge. Likewise, one person, a ployee, is only required to work a for the ruling of books or documents of . This machine, which is of the newest n at the same time execute two different is of work. After passing under the e sheets are sent along by a belt until s under the machine, where they are blotter rollers, and thence they drop into racks, whence they are taken out and r bound in one form or another. At speed this machine is capable of ruling no less than 3,500 sheets, 36 inches wide, nd of this storey several girls are em-the making of paper bags, and they of material before them from which rked most assiduously. As we stated at et the whole concern was a scene of exctivity and industry, and all the work ve inspected bore the impress of skilful-ness, and superiority which even a examination could not fail to confirm. add that adjoining the premises a whole-per store is in course of construction. er stand, the appointments of the firm s Guy & Company can certainly most ly compare with any house of the kind ountry. The very extensive addition re made to their business is a striking their prosperity and their determination pace with the times in every sense rd. They recognise that to satisfactorily the orders of a steady, increasing busi-spirit of enterprise is necessary, have no doubt they will speedily return for their expenditure of arge as it undoubtedly has been.

ances, were—Masters Thomas Hanly, Martin Hanly, Dominick Carr, Alfred Walsh, John Walsh, James Ray, Thomas Collins, William J Halpin, Frank McCarthy, John Flynn, J Sheehan, Alysious Feher, and Francis Lyons.
 The performance will be repeated on to-morrow (Friday) night, from 8 to 10, and on Saturday afternoon from 2 to 4. Those who want an excellent two hours enjoyment should apply at the College for tickets of admission.

DEATH OF MR PATRICK O'DONNELL, KILLEEDY.

Our Newcastle West correspondent reports the death of Mr Patrick O'Donnell, of Cave Cottage, Killeedy. He had reached his 88th year, over 40 of which he was Baronial High Constable for the barony of Glenquin, and which he resigned 4 years ago through failing health, when his son (Mr Harry O'Donnell) was unanimously appointed to the position. His courteous, gentlemanly, and pleasing demeanour on all, even the most trying occasions, won him hosts of friends, by whom he is deeply regretted and sincerely mourned. The funeral took place yesterday, and was very large and representative. The Rev Fr Downes, P.P., Ballingarry, presided at the Requiem Mass.

The chief mourners were—Rev Michael O'Donnell, Adm, St Michael's, Limerick; Mr P E O'Donnell, solicitor, Limerick; Mr Harry F.
 O'Donnell, (sons); Mr D J M'Sheehan, Dublin (son-in-law); Mr M'Sheehy, Sannon-grove; Mr Joseph Sheehy, Rathkeale; Rev Wm Downes, P.P., Ballingarry; Rev P Kirby, P.P., Patrick's-well; Mr Robert Cussen, solicitor, Newcastle West.

The clergymen present were—Rev Wm Casey, PP, Abbeyfeale; Rev Fr Byrne, Tournatulla; Rev Fr Daly, PP, Templeglantine; Rev Fr Gleason PP, Dromcolloher; Rev Fr O'Shea, PP, Croom, Rev Fr Irwin, PP, Castlemahon; Rev Fr Clifford, PP, Money; Rev Fr Quinlan, CC, Newcastle West; Rev Fr O'Leary, CC, do; Rev Fr Reeves, C.C., do; Rev Fr O'Shea, CC, Dromcolloher; Rev Fr Kenrick, C.C., Donoughmore; Rev T Lee, C.C., St Michael's, Limerick; Rev J Cregan, C.C., do; Rev Dr Riordan, do; Rev Fr Fitzgerald, C.C., Templeglantine; Rev Fr Culhane, C.C., Killeedy; Rev Robert Ambrose, C.C., Athesa; Rev J O'Shea, C.C., Castlemahon.

Amongst the general public were—Messrs G L Sheehy, J.P.; Brian Adams, solicitor, Dublin; P O'Shaughnessy, J.P., Richbell Curling, J.P., J B Leahy, James D Leahy, C.E.; E O'F Nugent, National Bank; E McElligott, B.L., John Condon, solicitor, J.D. McCoy, solicitor, Robert Cussen, solicitor, D Hedderman, M. Sheehy, Donoughmore; Joe Sheehy, Rathkeale; Charles Purcell, Provincial Bank; Joseph Cussen, Glen-quin; John Cussen, Glenmore House; Thomas Hurley, Daniel Leonard, Dr. Richard Condon, M O'Shaughnessy, W A Roche, Newcastle; William Galvin, Tralee; M Roche, J Pitts, Churchtown House; P Moloney, Greenpark, Limerick; Chas O'Donnell, solicitor, Limerick; Joe McNamara, Matthew D McCoy, solicitor, Limerick; Dr J L Ahern, Dromcolloher; D Ahern, Dr J O'Leary, Castleishon; Wm O'Leary, do; Michael Leonard, Ringwood, Newcastle; Michael McCoy, junr; Timothy McMahon, Joseph Cregan, J Costelloe, P Griffin, James Cregan, W Cussen, Killeedy; M. Curtin, Courtenay Arms Hotel, D S Lyons, Croom Castle; James F Sheehy, V.S., B Keidy, P.L.G.

The following sent wreaths—Rev M. O'Donnell, Adm, St Michael's, Limerick; Mr P E O'Donnell, solicitor; Mr H F O'Donnell, Miss Mary Ellen O'Donnell, Mr D J MacSheehan, Dublin.

COUNTY-AT-LARGE PRESENTMENT SESSIONS.

The Presentment Sessions for the County-at-Large were held to-day in the Grand Jury Room, to have no was the primary cause of the thing.

Mr Hickson—Was he suffering from matism?

Mr Stephens said the doctor had ordered defendant to work.

Mr Hickson—He will have to go to gaol fourteen days.

Mathew Roche was prosecuted for refusget out of bed on the 13th of January.

Mr Hickson—There seems to be a great of this insubordination going on. Has this been here before?

Mr Dandon—He has, sir. He is a des-character.

Mr Hickson—Well, he won't trouble you seven months at any rate. He got seven on this morning at the Police Court.

Defendant (to Master)—How do you know got up and gave you my full task of work?

Mr Dandon—He is one of the worst cases have in the house. We cannot get any good him.

Mr Hickson (addressing the prisoner) commenced life by getting five years in reformatory, and I don't know how many you have been in gaol since. You will month for this offence.

Defendant—Thank you, sir (laughter).

Patrick Gavin, John Bourke, and Patrick against whom similar offences were proved, each sentenced to a month's imprisonment.
 Colonel Maunsell—What hour have they to get up in the morning?

The Labour Master—At seven o'clock.

Two youthful inmates, who were charged with refusing to leave their beds at the pointed hour, were cautioned.

Mr Hickson said he would like to know the Master how it came that these able-men were admitted to the Workhouse to be a burden on the ratepayers?

The Master—It is like this, sir. These to the Relieving Officer and say they are destitute. He will give them a ticket for ad-to the union and they are accordingly admitted. Their cases come before one or two gentlemen of the Board of Guardians who constitute the Board of Guardians who constitute called an admission board. These men that they are destitute and have no means of subsistence, and if persons are destitute bound by law to admit them.

Mr Hickson—It is a serious thing that ratepayers have to support these idle fellows who can go out and get drunk and squander all their money, and the ratepayers must support them.

Mr Dandon—That is how the law stands present.

Mr Hickson—I was anxious to get the formation.

The discussion then dropped.

COUNTY PETTY SESSIONS.

This fortnightly court of petty sessions held to-day before Mr E F Hickson, Residing, Colonel Maunsell, and Mr William O'Grady.

Patrick Quilligan sued Matthew M'Nair £15s, amount due in respect of a small quantity of land let to the defendant.

Mr Hickson—Is this under the Land 1895?

Complainant—No sir. It was a letting acre.

Mr Hickson—How much land did he let from you?

Complainant—A quarter and ten perches 5. There had been an agreement to that effect.

Defendant stated that there had been agreement verbal or otherwise. He was employed by Mr Quilligan at the time the piece of land, and the latter told him he was in his employment they could see the matter later on. Other parties also concerned from the complainant, who was at the rate of £5 an acre, and was only £7s 6d himself. He (the defendant) was