ing on the speeches of Mr Chamber- rd Salisbury, the Viedomosti adduces hat the British Government contem- aliance with Germany. Instead of new expenditure for a great fleet meeting a combination of Powers, England proposes to hire Germany tant on the Continent. The journal h policy will not succeed for long, but sent it has already gained much—the occupation of Wei-Hai-Wei, the of territory near Hong Kong, and au the Yangtze-Kiang, and now Lord unounces his intention to obtain the the land and sea forces of China. This blow at the independence of China, is no time to lose. In view of the of Continental diplomacy in matters ommon action it is likely enough that ht attend England in the Philippines, incumbent on Russia to exercise her influence for the maintenance of the power in the Far East. The creation epublic in those islands would have an Russian policy, and one must be pre- vents."
