

gatherers had been proposed a it not be better for to meet in conference? The Conciliation compulsory, but the prevent disputes being spring relations.

AND MINERS.

ION BOARD.

miners met in London tion of the Chairman-board. It is understood upon a gentleman, and to the men's repre-

IMPRESS OF CHINA.

Peking, Wednesday. yesterday gave an old and the wives of six o China. The Emperor the Empress. Lady in English congratulated her birthday. The layed throughout the as particularly gracious

RUN DOWN.

LIFE.

states that a lifeboat Point this morning by "h." None of those on up.

TELLIGENCE

LEGRAMS.]

ES—THIS DAY.

- Magic Lantern 1 ;
- Misraux 3 Nine ran
- e 1 ; Merry Mood 2 ;
- Oak Park 1 ; Siberian ran
- Armine 1 ; Bayreuth 2
- Lord Audley 1 ; Chevy
- Four ran
- Breadberry 1 ; Bright
- Eight ran

Announcements of Births, Marriages and Deaths not exceeding 5 lines (which must in all cases be duly authenticated), are charged 2s 6d each. For every additional line 5d

BIRTHS.

Waters—At Thomond House, Limerick, on the 14th instant, the wife of D. S. Waters of a son.
 O'Kelly—Dec. 13, 1898, at Riversdale Cottage, Dundrum, the wife of Joseph E. O'Kelly of a daughter
 Forde—On the 11th instant, at Liverpool road, Kildgrove, Staffordshire, the wife of the Rev J F Forde, Rector of Turlough, Co May, of a son

MARRIAGE.

Bradshaw and Hitchcock—December 13, by special licence, at Kenure Church, County Dublin, by the Rev N R Brunskill, M A, Incumbent brother-in-law of the bridegroom), Benjamin Webb, eldest son of the late John Webb Bradshaw, solicitor, to Annie Louisa, only daughter of the late William Hitchcock, solicitor, and granddaughter of the late Robert Hitchcock, Barrister-at-Law, Divisional Magistrate, and of the late Henry Bindon Fitzgerald, formerly of Limerick.

DEATHS.

Cleland—Dec. 14, at Mountkennett, Limerick, Mary, widow of the late John Cleland, aged 88 years. Funeral Friday morning, 16th, at 9.30. No flowers.
 Ewart—December 13, at 54 Beaumont street, London, Lavens Mathewson Ewart, of Glenbank House, Belfast
 Irwin—December 13, suddely, at his residence, Lisonally, Omagh, William C Irwin, Esq, fourth son of John Chambers Irwin, Esq, Ballinlough House, Co Longford, in the 81st year of his age

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

The Secretary Protestant Orphan Society thankfully acknowledges from—Messrs Denny & Sons, annual subscription, £3 3s; Messrs Todd & Co, ditto, £1; Messrs Alexander, ditto, £1; Mrs Warren, ditto, £1; Miss Maunsell, ditto, £1; Mr Massey Hewson, ditto, £1; Ven Aichdean of Limerick, ditto, £1 1s; Miss Allock, ditto, 10s; Mr Hamilton (London), ditto, 5s.

Miss Russell, Secretary County Infirmary Needle-work Guild, acknowledges with thanks the following:—Mrs Peter Fitzgerald, 10s; Mrs Greene Barry, 5s; F Kennedy Esq, M D, 2s

and Desse

ART POTTERY

IN ROYAL VIENNA AND OTHER HIGH

TABLE GLASS,

ALL THE LATEST

Some Specially

GLASS DISHES, TUGGLASSES AND I

GOODWIN

ARE SHOWING THE

NEW L

IN THE T

FLOOR LAMPS, T HANGING

LAMP AND CAN

GOODWIN

Prices are Exce