

only give a receipt on from the report of Sir Medical Inspector, on his which he recommended and similar work to be the smaller houses in

s. matter was for Dr

(speaker's) opinion the long time in such an un- as at present. He had as again but the Com- take any action in the e and nuisance of every ery lane in the town. ed to take steps towards town and the smaller ented strongly on what disgraceful state of the and windows were all the walls were in a bad f, the town and for their o something in cleaning t any rate.

TOWN HALL.

would prepare a small

MRS LYNCH.

and Mr Macnamara resolution which was "That we, the Town at our first public meet- Mrs Lynch, desire to nch, solicitor, an expres- pathy at the loss he has f his wife."

onal athletic contest be- tive of Scotland and Ballsbridge, Dublin, on attendance of spectators, f Ireland by nine points (Ireland) created a new ng jump with a jump of eland) and Welsh (Scot-

Announcement of Births, Marriages and Deaths not exceeding 5 lines (which must in all cases be duly authenticated), are charged 2s 6d each. For every additional line 6d

BIRTHS.

Harrisson—On the 15th instant, at Ardmore terrace, Holywood, Co Down, the wife of Capt A H P Harrisson, the King's Regiment, of a son.

Cluffe—On the 18th instant, at 34 Haddington road, Dublin, the wife of Gilbert G Cluffe, of a son.

Hawkes—On the 16th instant, the wife of Capt G W Hawkes, Hawkhurst, Bromyard, Worcester, of a daughter.

MARRIAGE.

Ross and Stratton—June 21, at the Methodist Church, Mohill, by Rev James Daly, Drumshambo, James Ross, of London, son of the late Edward Ross, of Edenfene, Ballybay, to Annie, second daughter of Robert Stratton, Mohill, Co Leitrim.

DEATHS.

Fogarty—July 18th, at her residence, Upper Cecil Cecil street, Mrs Philip Fogarty (mother of J. G. Fogarty, Secretary Catholic Institute). Funeral from St. Michael's R. C. Church at 11 o'clock to-morrow (Wednesday) for interment at St. Laurence's Cemetery—R.I.P.

Blake—On the 17th instant, at his residence, 20 Charlemont Mall, Dublin, to the grief of his sorrowing wife, sisters, and friends, Henry Robert Blake, of acute consumption, aged 38 years, for nearly 27 years connected with the Irish Times Composing Staff.

D'Alon—March 30, 1898, killed accidentally on board s.s Falls of Foyers, Albert Gabriel, son of John Edward D'Alon, Esq, J.P., Ballygriffin, Cashel, Co Tipperary.

Cream—On the 17th instant, at South Hill, Killiney, Co Dublin, Alice Lake, wife of C Chevallier Cream.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT

HOUSEKEEPERS' IRONMONGERS. Covers, Cutlery, Brushes, Pot pans. J. P. Newson & Co, William May 12

SINGER CYCLES—We have a Model-de-Lux Singers, 20-inch frame, we are selling at £2 each under value. COLE, NELSON & Co, Limited, 38 & 40, Street, Limerick, April 3

FIRST-CLASS Cook disengaged; is used to cooking for French, German and English families; references from English and Irish. Interview by appointment at Mr. J. J. Agency, Sarsfield street. July 19

STEADY WOMAN, disengaged, well qualified for any situation; is a good plain cook and general servant; no washing. Address in office of this paper. July 9

A Middle-aged Protestant Man wanted for a position, understands the buying and selling of cattle, can castrate and understand generally; can give security for home. Address "P M," this office. July 16

WANTED young lady for cash. Wanted an Outdoor Apprentice. Apply by letter to Kidd Bros, George street. July 12

COACHMAN, single or without family, any gentleman recommend a competent, trustworthy, and active driver, who can ride and drive well, and who thoroughly understands horses. Send full particulars to Fitzgerald, Esq, Newmarket-on-Fergus. July 19

LIMERICK HARBOUR TIDE JULY.

CHANGES OF THE MOON