afforded of enjoying the beautiful scenery on attracted by the blaz, and in once conveyed to the Corporatio t will give them for the conduct Lough Derg will be simply availed of by all who business, this undertaking will desire a delightful day's outing. which, under the superintender Wylde, arrived with punctuality zh success, besides having the BANK HOLIDAY. Yesterday being the first the fire had taken complete po ally adding to the importance of factory, which was enveloped ; Monday in August was a bank holiday, and was mmercial centre. basement to roof. The brigade generally observed as such in the city, all offerta to subdue the flames, six li the principal commercial establishments being brought into use, but all hope and Poultry industry is, as we closed. Business people largely took advantage portion of the factory had disappending of the brigade were then of of the opportunity of spending a day in the le of wide development, but it country, and the excursion trains to Adare, saving the neighbouring building to notice that of late years Foynes, Killalos, and Castleconnell, and steamer were in great danger. So inten-from the fire that the residents ogress has been made in that trips on Lough Derg, which were specially arranged by the Shannon Development Company, te a respectable income may be side of the street were obliged were extensively availed of. During the day the houses. Fears were entertained rearing of fowl, while the city presented a rather deserted appearance, parwould extend to Mesers Spaight ticularly as many people are on their holidays at omparatively little. Irrespective which is situate in close proximity the sea-side. object of averting the danger, a home demands, it is open to employees who were attracted to t Drath of ex-Acting-Sergeant Hickey. His very largely increase its trade a copious supply of water on the hydrant on the premises, and lessened the danger which threat numerous friends in the force, as well as many John Bull likes a good fresh civilian acquaintances, will hear with regret of p chicken, and he looks to the death of ex-Acting-Sergeant Denis Hickey, mountime the Fire Brigade wer with the utmost energy in en able to please his fastidious which occurred at his residence in Limerick on control the flames, or rather conf Sunday last. The deceased had been connected ore we increase our egg and with the city for nine years, and was regarded by the factory, which they succeeded a considerable portion of the valu e less chance there will be for his authorities as an excellent policeman, while was extracted before the roof fell i amongst the general public he was held in much o flood the English markets. esteem on account of his unobtrusive manner. exception the factory was entirely Some weeks ago he was obliged to resign his building, which was only got working order a few months a when you come to think of it." position owing to failing health. The funeral took place to-day from St Michael's, R C Church, all Gazette, "that we should be factory was fully equipped with the machinery, was an extensive of hundred and thirty feef by thirty s sterling per annum in the and was largely attended both by the constabulary s one article of food from and the citizens. The damage is estimated at over tries, when we have the means promises were insured, but not ins SERIOUS ASSAULT BY A SON An assault of a to cover the damage. A body of Head Constable, Feeney, rend t in abundance within our most approvoked and brutal character was comt only eggs, but poultry are mitted in Mary street, on Saturday night, the assistance at the fire. assailant being a young tellow named John rofit under the direction of Carmody, aged 18 years, and the victim his father volent agency (the who is a baker. who is a baker. Young Carmody, as al leged, came home under the influence of drink and THE LIMERICK WAREHOUS rganisation). Agriculture is, TO THE EDITOR OF THE LIMBRICK attacked his father with a small cleaver inflicting several wounds on his head. The injured man ief subject for development, 65 George street, L was immediately brought to Barrington's not to neglect the small Augu DEAR SIR-Will you kindly and Hospital for treatment of his wounds which, Horace Plunkett's Society is issue of to-night that I have d however, proved not to be so serious as his apinterest and good will in the follow in all departments of Irish pearance indicated, there being no fracture. His Nos 13, 14, 15 and 16, George str assailant was arrested by Sergeant Beatty, Mary desire to know and to learn the Limerick Warehouse Comps street, and subsequently remanded by Dr stock-in-trade, book-debts, fixto ng the peasantry to a gratify-O'Shaughnessy to Petty Sessions. furniture, electric plant, and trac his only shows that the every kind, as a going business, at in the premises, 69, 70, 71, 72, ar "THE STRAND MUSICAL MAGAZINE."-LOVERS rish resources is not dependent of music will read with much interest the first street, and 2, 3, 4, and 5 Thomas Government, which is a very number of the new series of The Strand Musical the premises No 12 George str Lipton's, to Messrs William Todd Magazine. The frontispiece is a full-page photo of Johann Sebastian Rach. The magazine is nings." will take over all the properties as f profusely illustrated with photos of celebrated 1898. I have been urged to take t railway reports for the half professionals engaged in the performance of Wagner's master-work, "The Ring of the Niblelowing to indifferent health and de been issued are those of the and requiring rest from business at ungen." Under the heading of "Biographical Sketches of Great Musicians" is an exhaustive of work. Clare Companies. The West You will please permit me to u ery satisfactory, there being memoir of the great Italian Violiniat, Nuccolo occasion to warmly thank the nur and customers of the Warehouse Paganini. There are numerous songs and dance hich a decrease in receipts is pieces by well known composers, and altogether stant and generous support, and int represents the small sum the magazine is of great interest not alone to lovers of the "Divine Art," but indeed to any them to continue it to the spirited this splendid establishment, who ar head of special and miscelintelligent reader. The music is excellently a heavy outlay in the purchase to Compared with the correscomfort and convenience of their printed. patrons by occupying the first and position in the city. There car of 1897, passengers show an YACHTING ACCIDENT. 8s 9d; parcels, £48 12s 9d; about the lenhanced success that This evening a yachting accident occurred in the 12s 2d; and live stock, £30 acquire by the acquisition of this river which happily was unattended with any under the able, energetic, and court ment of Mr Archibald Murray on of a morning mail service serious result, although the occupants test certain that the ample opportunity now some residents in Shannen at teel certain that with the addi-