

ing three times it failed to ly was broken only on the ks.

the amalgamation of the
and Western Railway Southern and Western acute phase. As is well Directors are opposed to ownership in any shape ult of their opposition, a y, it is understood, chiefly shareholders, was recently Limerick and rd, asking that a special olders should be con-
of considering the ad-
these gentlemen from paper at the time sugght not become neces-
ght either resign or fall of the majority. The her to the thought, and plied with is evidenced ears in our advertising short service will be held at 8.45, and at 9.30 will proceed to the station and thence to Ballingrane by the ten o'clock train for interment.

We tender to his sorrowing widow and family the deepest sympathy of his large circle of friends in their hour of bereavement.

DEATH OF MRS. NOLAN, NEWCASTLE.

We regret to announce the death, which took place on Tuesday, of Mrs. Nolan, wife of Mr.
James Nolan, of Newcastle, near the city. The deceased lady was only in her 25th year, and her demise is very keenly regretted by numerous friends and the deepest sympathy is expressed with Mr. Nolan in his great sorrow. Mr. Nolan is brother of Dr. Nolan, Medical Officer of the Limerick Union. The funeral took place to-day from St. Patrick's R. C. Church for the family burial ground at Caherconlish, and it was of an extremely large and representative character, the procession extending a mile in length.

THE DUKE OF DEVONSHIRE.

The Duke of Devonshire visited Manchester yesterday for the purpose of opening the handsome new library which Mr. Christie, formerly the Chancellor of the diocese of Manchester, has presented to the College, and also to lay the foundation stone of the Whitworth Hall, a splendidly designed building in the College Gardens, which was also given by Mr. Christie as one of the residuary legacies of the will of the late Sir Joseph Whitworth. The Duke delivered two short addresses.

sister nationalities into the Irish which may tend to make the breed those across the channel. Of the have been distributed as follows :
out from Waterford and the remain placed by the Limerick Committee Limerick, 21; Tipperary, 19; Galway 2; and Kildare, 1. A supply of bo are retained at the piggeries. former will be distributed to dist upon by the Inspector, care of cour to see that the animals are used or duction and for the benefit of the f district. The sows will be retain Singland, and it is the intention tribute their produce throughout and thus it is hoped to maintain a pure and profitab The total amount expended on the plies is 2523 8s, while maintenanc extras have come to about 2250. It been costly there is no doubt it is the expenditure. Experience has al suggested the necessity for some su ing. That it will be beneficial the question. The merchants have gene root, so to say, to begin the refor materially assisted the farmers by proper stock under their command. already received the merchants courage in the enterprise, the appreciated in every district where placed; and there is evidence of a tendency among farmers to avail t the benefits of the project to the fu It is not, perhaps, too much to ho