

...asers taught free in
 1. Terms to non-pur-2s 6d; course of 10 nstruction to intending ynkhana. GRIFFITHS
 ick-street. March 12

b Extract. (Tea-like).—The up beans) of the natural erful hydraulic pressure, leaving for use a finely a product which, when has the consistence of tea, beneficially taking the place ntle nerve stimulant, sup-out unduly exciting the ns. I unable to obtain ill be sent post free for 9
 ., Limited, Homœopathic

footballer entered the her night, and violently lamplighters who had on strike. A footballer ay possibly find time ads, but he should cergoing out on strike first afterwards.

ALL ON FRIDAY NEXT.—
 ceet, begs to inform above that he has just ery of perfect fitting all sizes, including the irts, newest shapes in d bows, all widths and button evening gloves 1s 6d. Choice selecself colours and em-
 air. Undervests and
 ral wool, silk and wool, e Pique Dress Vests
 hiefs, sock suspenders, great variety. Patent all sizes. [Nov 13

3 to 1 ... Avenue Second, t
 5 to 1 ... Hair, Mal-, t
 6 to 1 ... Virginia, t
 8 to 1 ... Orz 1, t

Announcement of Births Marriages and Deaths, not exceeding 5 lines (which must in all cases be duly authenticated), are charged 2s 6d each. For every additional line 6d

BIRTHS.

Hamilton—May 17, 1898, at Southwood avenue, Highgate, London, the wife of Allan Hamilton, of Baron's Court, Hampstead, of a daughter.
 Norman—May 16, at Rahmines, Dublin, the wife of W. H. Norman of a son.
 Warren—May 16, at Ludlow street, Navan, the wife of H. R. Warren, M. P. S. I., of a daughter.

MARRIAGE.

Nicol and Macrae—May 14, at St Mary Abbot's Church, Kensington, by the Rev Canon Pen-father, Francis Nicol, second son of the late Captain Robert Nicol, 33rd M. N. I., to Mary, youngest daughter of the late Donald Macrae, of Harris, N. B.

DEATHS.

O'Connell—On the 19th instant, at Tower View Terrace, New Road, Mr Colman O'Connell, senr. Funeral at 3 o'clock on Friday for St.
 Laurence Cemetery.
 O'Grady—On the 18th instant, Eileen Mary Rose, second beloved daughter of Wm. F. O'Grady, Esq., J.P., Evelyn Lodge, Ballinacurra, deeply regretted.—R.I.P.
 Forsythe—On the 19th instant, at her residence, 5 Castle street, Anne, widow of the late George Forsythe.
 Adderley—On the 16th instant, at Dunmanway, James Adderley, R.N., son of the late Thomas Adderley, of Dunmanway.

William street, Limerick. Ca application. All Cycle access
 May 12

SINGER CYCLES—We have Model-de-Lux Singers, 20-we are selling at £2 each und COLE, NELSON & Co, Limited, Street, Limerick.
 April 3

RABBITS FOR SALE, 1 graziers equal a brace; 1 Limerick. Apply, KEEPER, Bal E. G. Fitt's, Leverette & Frye's, Limerick.
 May 19

WANTED a Groom; m abstainer, able to drive, harness, and traps well. App expected, and enclosing testiences, to R. R. Studdert, Hazelwo
 May 14

WANTED, by a young man to ride and drive or man rally useful about a gentleman' well recommended. Apply, L. F.
 May 19

GROOM or Coachman wan young active man who th work, and does it; 4½ years will highly recommend him. A care of R. R. Studdert, Hazelwo
 May 19

WANTED immediately b young man, a situati Herd. Can be well recommen B. Fitt, 46 George street.
 May 19