

in the contract list the
this contract arranged medicine not included wholesale current prices recharge affects the Dis-Rathkeale, in which my shares with me the

It is evident that all ness and requisites, for ical chemist has given ately ordered, and such ugs, &c., were urgently an were, by unnecessary pliances, prevented from as a breadwinner, he was, restrictions, in danger of al danger from phlebitis uences of varicose veins. nces, I think it is the medical man to do every-prudent economy, to hy life all poor people, th of their families, and e ratepayers, should be a n to everyone, as, I am to all administrators of minutes of proceedings of as for the 27th October, Dr Hayes get permismedical men to assist at hospital.' To carry out ly I had to get the usual appliances, and as the d not be fully given, I n them as on previous and Co, who sent their arged for £114s 6d.

n was admitted to the complete paralysis from spine, with paralysis
as. It was my duty
way to prolong his life,
miseries which bedsores guardians for two water ther cases. The minutes ollowing record:—'27th that Dr Hayes, medical e, be authorised to order use of the hospital.' It made a distinct requisitarticle, for which the d 26 lbs. I may observe mission with economy, nd that I have the satis-

Announcements of Births, Marriages and Deaths not exceeding 5 lines (which must in all cases be duly authenticated), are charged 2s 6d each For every additional line 6d.

BIRTHS.

Macnamara—August 27, 1898, at Bankyle House, Corofin, Co Clare, the wife of Dr George J Macnamara of a daughter Dalgety—August 29, at Elbridge, Windlesham, the Honorable Mrs Dalgety of a son Donelan—August 30, at Upper Wimpole street, London, W, the wife of James Donelan, M.B., of a son
Smith—August 31, at Piperstown, the wife of Lieutenant Colonel St George Smith of a son

MARRIAGE.

Cooper and Mercer—August 27, at St Kevin's Church, Dublin, by the Rev Bodeil Stanford, M.A., Dublin, son of the late Douglas Cooper, of Newcastle-on-Tyne, to Julia, daughter of the late Captain J Crossley Mercer, of Ootacamund, India

DEATHS.

O'Shaughnessy—On Wednesday, the 31st August, at 49 Thomas street, Anna, the dearly beloved wife of Patrick J. O'Shaughnessy, deeply regretted. Interment at Mount St Laurence at 9:30 on Friday morning—R.I.P.
Ouseley—Aug. 26, at 3 Evelyn terrace, Brighton, Elizabeth Grove, wife of the Rev J.R. Ouseley, and daughter of the late John Grove White, M.D., of Spa Hill, Kilfinane, Co Limerick
Smith—August 28, at her residence, Oakley Flats, Chelsea, Mary E. De Heriz Smith, eldest daughter of of Robert Smith, Esq., Crumlin, Co Dublin
Croly—August 28, at his residence, Ivy Cottage, Lismore, William Croly, aged 71

ACKNOWLEDGMENT

The Committee of the Lying-in Hospital acknowledge with thanks three tons of coal from the Right Worshipful M Cusack, Mayor, for the benefit of the institution.

"SHANNON" CYCLES.—Owing to our being now able to Execute all our own Stove-Enameling and Gold and Colour Tining on the Premises, we are in a position to supply Ladies' or Gentlem n's "Shannons" (standard sizes) from Stock or "To