LIMERICK MAN KILLED AT DONERAILE

An accident occurred at Doneraile yesterday, by which a Limerick man named Daniel Scanlan lost his life. Deceased was in the employment of Messrs Stewart's biscuit factory in Limerick as a van traveller. It would appear that while the wheels were being oiled the van toppled over, causing fatal injuries to the unfortunate young man. Deceased, who was well known in Limerick, belonged to a respectable West Limerick family, being the eldest son of Mr Daniel Scanlan, Rathree, Ardagh.
