wanted to get away from Lim-rick because there was no chance of getting work there. They said they had been employed as firemen on steamers trading in the English Channel. They will be sent back home.

SUDDEN DEATH.

A woman named Mary Vaughan died suddenly during last night at her residence in Broad street, The deceased, who maintained herself by the profits of a small shop, retired to bed in her usual health, but was found dead by her grand-daughter this morning. An inquest was held by Mr Coroner DeCourcy and a city jury, and evidence was given by Joseph Vaughan, son of deceased, that she suffered recently from palpitation of the heart. Dr Humphreys, who examined the body, stated that in his opinion death was due to disease of the heart. The jury returned a verdict accordingly.

THE CORPORATION.

Another meeting of the Whole House of the Corporation was held to-day, at which the arrears of the minutes of Public Health Committee were disposed of. The Mayor presided. A number of bye-laws, in reference to the Public Health department, were adopted. Mr Corbett, City Surveyor, and Mr Dundon, Law Adviser, were directed to see that these bye-laws were carried out.

CYCLING ON FOOTPATHS.

CONSTABULARY CIRCULAR CANCELLED.

The Inspector-General of Irish Constabulary has issued a circular cancelling the previous circular on the subject of cycling on footpaths.
The cancelled circular directed the police only to prosecute for footpath cycling in cases where there was actual obstruction. Sir Andrew Reed now directs prosecutions to be instituted in all instances of cycling on the footpaths.
