

of the citizens has already which we trust will be followed committee offer prizes for a at the students for the work 1st December. The Mayor eriff have each kindly come er prizes for competition n students. There are other ars concerning which can be hool of Art. The Session of auspiciously, and we hope a n taken to develop the latent hich Limerick undoubtedly proof of which the Exhibition ago gives ample evidence.

What a concert will be given by the Havergal Hall on Monday, under the presidency of Sir provincial grand master. The aid of of the masonic schools.

are requested to state that y arranged between Lansdowne County Football Club will County grounds on Saturday me is anticipated.

CATTLE SALE.—Mr F W McCarthy
t sale of dairy cattle at Holy day, for Mr Michael Meehan.
attendance of buyers, and very Top price realized was £19 19s. ne cows averaged £18 18s, and eraged £17 10s, all being sold

DEBTS.—There were two cases for y Police Court this morning te attended. A man named Sergeant Whelan, Mary street, is wife and breaking furniture.
emanded by the Mayor to Petry other case was a charge of ne suit of the night watch.

OLD WORKHOUSE OFFICIAL.—On John Finn died at Tipperary. ected master shoemaker of the being elected in March, 1846, pointment for the term of 43 uried at Tipperary, his native last, and was followed to the number of friends and admirers.

FIRE AT NEAR ENNIS.—On a pointsman on the West Clare McCormac was returning home as fired at from behind when place called Currawarren, about half from Ennis. He did not ilant, but saw the flash and port. The attempt to shoot tributed to his having taken a bit was threatened not to take—

PRISONERS.—Late on Friday

Begley, Corbally; Mr A Wallace, Town
Clerk; Mr C Russell, Mr W Cantillon, Mr
R J Kane, Mr T A Furnell, Mr E Furnell,
Mr C Heaton-Armstrong, junr; Mr E Fosber,
Mr A Baker, Mr P Baker, Mr J B Blennerhassett,
Mr D Blennerhassett, Mr R Nash, solr; Mr J
Spillane, Mr T D O'Brien, Mr W B Fitt, Mr
James Frost, JP; Mr Benjamin Browning, Mr
D Browning, Mr E H O'Callaghan, Messrs
Willington, Mr P Johnstone, V S; Mr S F
Dowling, JP; Mr F G Kennedy, Col O'Donnell, JP; Mr O D Coll, V S; Mr J McNamara, Mr C Gubbins, Mr W Roger, Mr J P Hall, solr. The service was read by the Rev J Dowd, assisted by Rev Mr Radcliffe, after which the coffin, a massive oak one richly mounted and literally covered with wreaths, was borne by a number of the deceased's friends to its final resting place.
The funeral arrangements were carried out by Messrs P McCarthy and Son.

FUNERAL OF MISS CLERY.

The funeral of the late Miss Josephine Clery, daughter of Mr Michael J Clery, J.P, Chairman of Cannock and Company, took place yesterday.
The remains arrived in Limerick by the mail train from Dublin, and were received at the Terminus by a large concourse of the citizens.
The chief mourners were as follow:—
Mr M J Clery, JP, father of the deceased;
Mr F W Clery, and Masters Robert, Patrick and Michael Clery, brothers of the deceased; Messrs J F Lombard, JP, Dublin; W
A Cray, Dublin; F D Tidmarsh, W J Clery, P D
Clery, M P Clery, M W Clery, J W Clery, W M
Clery, J P Clery; P W Clery, J J Clery, Dr O
Clery, Dr M Clery, D O'Keeffe, Dr Tidmarsh, Wm Noonan, Thomas Mulcahy, and John Mulcahy. Clergy—Very Rev W Moloney, PP, V G; Very Rev Father O'Keefe, SJ; Rev D Shanahan; and Rev J O'Shea. Amongst the general public present were—Mr W Spillane, JP; Dr Kane, JP; Dr Malone, Dr O'Shaughnessy JP; Messrs Bruce Murray, W Hunt, J Haran, Manager National Bank; J Morton, Manager Provincial Bank; J V Golden, Manager Munster
and Leinster Bank; W O'Donnell, High Sheriff; Stephen Dowling, JP; Michael G Dowling, Michael Spain, Richard Smith,
Mr Wm Sydney Cox, Mr Wm Lloyd, Rev Canon
Gregg, Mr J Lavertine, Mr J Guinane, JP;
Mr Edward Baker, Mr John Roberts (W L R C), Mr John McBirney, Mr A Barnett, Mr Julian, Solr; Alderman Clary, JP; Alderman Myles, JP;
Alderman Gaffney, JP; Mr T M Burke, Mr J
Flynn, (Cruises Hotel); Mr James Nash, JP;
Mr R Nash, solicitor; Mr E Conway, Mr J
O'Mara, Mr S O'Mara, Mr Wm Nelson, Ald
Walker, Mr G W Bassett, JP; Mr M Cusack, Mr W Ebrill, Mr V Coll, Mr J G Kelly, JP;
Mr Wm Christy, Mr James Harris, Mr B Cashel.
Those who sent carriages included—Messrs Jas
Quin, D Tidmarsh, J F Walker, T E O'Brien, W S Cox, W O'Donnell, S Quin, J G Kelly S Dowling, J Guinane, J Hanly, Archibald Murray, Mrs Meredith. The coffin, which was of polished oak with a leaden shell, was covered with wreaths and crosses of real and artificial flowers sent by numerous friends. Cannock and Co was closed till after the funeral obsequies had concluded, and in the other monster houses as well as throughout the city emblems of mourning were also to be observed.

DEATH OF MR JOHN CONNOLLY.

Our issue of Saturday contained the announce-other occasions.

How long are you a note-taker?
answer that question.

How long did you take to learn Did you learn it in a month? Indeed I am practising in the school of the the month of May; before that I ha ledge of the system from 1884, an certificate in 1885 from Mr Pitman.

Was Castleconnell your maiden eff had been at two meetings before that Where? Down in the parish of I the release of Father Kennedy; I ha Newmarket and Meelin.

In connection with the same event—
of Father Kennedy? Yes.

The witness was then cross-examin shorthand characters for "Sam" an referred to in his evidence. The ch each word was, the witness said, quit Neither was the character for Lewis the same. Witness might have been in the pronunciation of the word "Sa

Mr Sheehy—Do you swear I us
"Sam"? I understood you to say "

You will also swear that I said " ment were patting the emergency face"? Yes, that was what I under say.

Is it the same phonographic sign w for "are and ought"? No.

How long did these interruptions l varied from a minute to two.

Look at the sentence, "You wi consideration for his fine little points; to make up that you will try if you for ever his foul act, if he will give up You swear I made use of that langua

Mr Sheehy—Speak it out if you don't be swallowing it.

Witness—I am not swallowing it;

Mr Sheehy—You were perfectly comfortable while taking this note?

You had no difficulty in reading afterwards?

Witness—Well not much. The difficulty in reading notes—there is culty than in the case of longhand. (I —I could not say how long you we after I had closed my note book; because the horse was prancing and I no more notes of your speech; I open book as soon as the next speaker came no recollection of what you said whe was prancing.

Mr Sheehy—You would not sa continued on that very point whic noted with reference to outrages
I could not say.

The question was repeated, but wit could not say from memory what said after the note taking had ceased;
his notes that Mr Sheehy denounc and crime.

Mr Sheehy—Yes, but then you sh
note book?

Witness—It was not my fault.

Mr Sheehy—And you had no oth
No.

You had no instructions on the sub
I never got any instructions.

You did not consider it material to I considered it material if I could do You took a report of the Mayo Yes.

You gave a verbatim report? No interruptions in his case too.

How much of the Mayor's spee take? I took a portion of it; I don much.