AMATION BILL.

ES DISCUSSED.

Committee appointed to consider the Bill by the South-Eastern and Dover Companies, for amending their undertakings, was discussed in the House of Commons with the further clause submitted the maximum fares for 8s and 6s to 10s and 10s being placed on the passengers' luggage free of charge. Boyle, representing the Government, on the ground that the Bill was larger than the addition to the company. It was suggested that if the Bill to increase the maximum should be put upon the Bill and transhipment boat, in addition to the charge.—The Chairman of the Committee must insist on the Bill retained at 8s and 6s, whether it should include a clause that could be left to be further observations. The Committee retired to consider the Bill. The Chairman announced that the Bill that the old rates of 8s and 6s were retained, and that the words "or for its transport and steamer."
