In Cape Colony and Natal the Army Order concludes with the following notice relating to the "mobilization of a Field Force for service in South Africa"—"A Field Force, details of which are issued to all concerned, will be mobilized at once. The 9th of October is the first day of mobilization. The Army Reservists required to complete the Field Force to war establishment will rejoin on or before October 17."

It is stated that the mobilization order will affect between 30,000 and 40,000 men.

PARLIAMENT SUMMONED.

The Queen, at a meeting of the Privy Council at Balmoral to-day, gave her formal assent to the assembling of Parliament on October 17th. The officials at Westminster have already received an intimation that the Lords and Commons will meet on that date.

FURTHER DETACHMENTS LEAVE FOR SOUTH AFRICA.

A special train left Waterloo at noon to-day for Southampton with a number of officers, who sail this afternoon in the Union liner "Mexican" for the Cape. Among the officers is Major Girouard, who takes charge of military railway arrangements in South Africa.

A later telegram says:—The Union liner "Mexican" left Southampton to-day for the Cape. She had on board Lieut.-Col. J. F. Brocklehurst, who is to command the cavalry of the divisional troops in Natal, a detachment of the Army Ordnance Corps, and a number of Staff and other officers.
