The Bill of 1897 proposed to bestow £150,000, that sum was declared to be insufficient for the purposes intended under the Bill. Now a special instruction was added, and the amount left practically the same, and more than half of it is drawn from Irish sources. In fact the Government, said Mr Dillon, wish to get out of the financial responsibility, so as the Treasury is concerned, and the Bill would not be regarded as satisfactory by any portion of the Irish people.

DEATH OF THE REV. P. MURPHY, C.C.

We regret to announce the death of the Rev. P. Murphy, C.C., St. John's, which occurred yesterday morning at St. John's Hospital, after two months' illness. The deceased clergyman was brother to the Very Rev. Andrew Murphy, President St. Munchin's College. After a brilliant collegiate career he was ordained in '92, and having spent a short time in missionary work in England, was appointed to the curacy of Knockaderry Parish. He was transferred to St. John's Parish in November last. The rev. gentleman was most highly esteemed and loved by all who knew him, and his death at the early age of 33 years is universally regretted. The funeral obsequies will take place to-morrow at 11 o'clock.

DEATH OF THE REV. P. O'DONNELL, C.C.

The announcement of the death of the Rev P O'Donnell, C.C., which took place on Saturday in St John's Hospital, was heard of with the greatest regret. The funeral took place yesterday, and was attended by the deceased relations and a large number of clergy.

DEATH OF DR C McDERMOTT, ENNISTYMON.

A telegram was received in Ennistymon on Saturday (says the Clare Journal), announcing the death of Dr McDermott, at the Mater Hospital, Dublin. The sad news is the cause of deep regret to his many friends and acquaintances. At the last meeting of the Ennistymon Board of Guardians Dr McDermott obtained leave of absence for 14 days, and went to Dublin next day for medical advice. His friends had not noticed any change in his appearance for some time, and on Tuesday at the guardians meeting he looked as well as usual. He was Medical Officer of the workhouse for the past 16 years, and during that time he gained by his genial and kind disposition, innumerable friends, to whom the unexpected news of his death has come with a severe shock. The poor, who were under his care in the workhouse for such a long time, have lost a kind and painstaking friend, who from day to day zealously tended them by all the means in his power. Deep
