WAR IN COVENT GARDEN.
 r daily supply of potatoes, cabbage, cauliflowers, currants, and summer fruits haparrive about four hours overdue during ing week there is a reason. As the out-a long-standing guerilla fight between n and non-union porters, there is a war the two. By a mutual agreement, made s ago the employers in Floral Hall issued permits of admission to the non-unionists, only during the busy hours of the early : "We," say the union workers, "are 0 strong, and here under this permit o, which we foolishly agreed we have s of non-union porters coming into this y busy morning and taking our living id unless we stop this system at once rowd us out.—"Evening News."
