

... responsible, as is conserve a child about whose age he have a doubt. Let the Tem-nd the trade put their heads andard might easily be arranged could be asked to include in its ect. There is a good deal of th regard to what is called the iren doing their parents' errands, is take them to the drink-shop, to be stopped, those who send to places so unsuited to them, to bear some of the responsibility, uch messengers becomes a public ... story which shows the purely r of the beloved Sovereign who Two hospital nurses were recently r Majesty, who talked to them ces at the front. One of the mple reference to the death of Victor which deeply touched the it into tears, and then expressed words. His family had all been are in the war was over and rn was assured. Of the young if she spoke with great affection. much touched by the scene.

... in is the only member of the s not possess a coat of arms. The le, however, is sufficiently well norial bearings, both ancient and most distinguished perhaps are ness of Lansdowne, who is en-he royal arms of Plantagenet, in from Princess Mary, second ry VII by his Queen, the Prin-lantagenet, the daughter and Henry IV.

... ng a keen interest in automonly is the Prince of Wales the hree motor-cars, but the Duke of ig an enthusiast in the sport. or-Car Journal will contain an ment, giving a photograph of ss on the motor-car belonging to ills. This is only one instance of the subject. The German Em-Italy, the King of the Belgians, of Austria are ardent motorists ; ie President of the French Re-en automobilist. With this ex-eaders in every country, small notoring is becoming so fashionurope.

... the Italian papers, there is a who is seventy years of age and "all his life." Out of the proation he has managed to save matter of, say, £17 per year. eve it would be possible for a than that.

... n artist's experience among the

... be taken without further delay to make provision under section 76 of the Local Government Act for the reception in an auxiliary asylum of chronic and harmless lunatics. And that a committee be appointed to prepare a scheme in consultation with the Lunacy Authorities.

THEFTS FROM CITY ESTABLISHMENTS.—Despite the severe ruling of the magistrates in the cases of boys charged with thefts from business houses in the city, the practice, in which evidently a large number of youngsters are concerned, has not yet been effectually stamped out. A young fellow named James Smith was arrested on Tuesday evening by Acting-Sergeant Clancy, charged with attempting to steal money from the shop of Miss Butler, in Nelson-street. The accused, who was found behind the counter, excused himself by saying that he had been egged on by others. He has been remanded to Petty Sessions. Two young lads, named John Mason and James Danford, were yesterday arrested by the Acting-Sergeant, charged with petty larceny, and they have been discharged, to be summoned.

DEATH OF GENERAL WATSON.

We regret to announce the death of Lieutenant-General George Vincent-Watson, which occurred on the 18th instant at 25, York Terrace, Regents Park, London. He was a member of a highly esteemed family whose name has been associated with Limerick, it may be said for centuries. His grandfather, Andrew Watson, was, as may be observed from our extracts of "100 years ago," proprietor of the Limerick Chronicle, which in turn descended to his son, Ald. Henry Watson, a well-known figure in the municipal and social life of the time. He was Mayor of the city, and in fact during his career was honoured by his fellow-citizens by being appointed to all the principal public offices.
The Alderman married a Miss Vincent of the Castleconnell family of that name. His son, whose demise is now recorded was born in 1829. He entered the army in 1847, and obtained his lieutenant's commission in 1848. Was gazetted captain in 1854, major in 1863, lieutenant-colonel in 1869, colonel in 1874, major-general in 1885, and lieut. general in 1887, when he retired. General Watson married in 1868, Emily, daughter of Mr.
Thomas William Gosselin, of Springfield, Guernsey.
He had resided out of Limerick for a great many years, but he never forgot the old city, by the Shannon, and since his retirement from the Army was a frequent visitor to Kilkee. Many of the older generation of Limerick people, who had the pleasure of knowing him will deeply regret to hear of the General's death.

DEATH OF LORD FARNHAM.

Lord Farnham died in Dublin early this morning.
Somerset Henry Maxwell was the son of the sixth Baron Farnham, and of Charlotte, daughter of Rev. Henry P. Elrington, D.D., Precentor of Ferris. The deceased Peer, who was the tenth Baron Farnham, was born at Newtownbarry, Co.
Wexford, on 7th March, 1849, and educated at Harrow. He was Lieutenant, 98th Regiment, and Captain and Honorary Major 4th Battalion Princess Victoria's (Royal Irish Fusiliers. He married on 5th August, 1885, Florence Jane, seventh daughter of the third Marquis of Headfort. He succeeded his uncle in the title on the 26th October, 1896, and was appointed D.L. for County Cavan.

G.S.W.R. NEW ARRANGEMENTS.

It is generally understood in railway circles that Mr. James Neville, Superintendent between Kingsbridge and Limerick Junction, will be the District Superintendent at Limerick, on the Waterford, Limerick, and Western Railway system

H.M.S. Bangalore, 1878 ; The Pira Penzance, 1879 ; Patience, 1881 ; Iolanth Princess Ida, 1884 ; The Mikado, 1885 ; Ru 1887 ; The Yeoman of the Guard, 188 Gondoliers, 1889 ; Haddon Hall, 1892 ; 1893 ; The Chieftain, 1894 ; The Grand 1896. Publications ; operas, cantatas, o works, songs, church music.

The Press Association learns that Sir Sullivan died quite suddenly. He caught chill in Switzerland, and returned to feeling very unwell last September. At fir were no serious developments, but subse his chest and lungs became affected, and nightago he took to his bed. He was believ making satisfactory progress under medic tion, but this morning alarming symptom observed by the nurse, and he expired in h Sir Athur Sullivan's death took place o'clock this morning.

FUNERAL OF THE LATE MCCUTCHEON.

The remains of this much-esteemed yo were removed yesterday morning from her residence, 73, Colooney street, for inter St. John's Church. The deceased was a of the Young Women's Christian Associat her early demise, after a protracted ill-deeply regretted by very many friends funeral was large and representative.

The chief mourners were :—J. McCu father ; Richard J. McCutcheon, John McCutcheon, Walter McCutcheon, James McCutcheon, brothers ; Robert McCutcheon Peter Galbraith, uncle-in-law ; Joseph Ga cousin.

Amongst the general public were :—Me Brabazon, DeCoursey, J. Wheatly, J. Robin Dowsley, W. Lynch, J. Delany, George M. Buckley, George-street ; H. Griffith Griffiths, W. Griffiths, Joseph Blake, O'Connell, M. McKnight, Bennett, John John Grant, A. Higgins, H. Ievers, W.
Thomas Buckley, J. Meares, J. Brady, R.
P. Hynes, R. Thompson, J. Cooney, G. Hog J. Howell, J. Brockett, J. Fitzgerald, B. r Kerr, M. Irwin, M. Daly, M. Minihan, Co
West and Ford, Messrs. Bell, Swan, Blen sett, J. Stack, Rusk, Fitzgibbon ( McBirney & Co.), C. O'Loughlin, do., etc.

The Rev. Mr. Swaine, St. Michael's, an Mr. Langbridge, St. John's, officiated.

The Service was partly choral. "The Hyr 598, "O Grave, where is thy Victory," wa and as the coffin was being removed fr Church "The Dead March in Saul" was on the organ by Miss Switzer.

Wreaths were sent by brother sister, Mr. and Mrs. Hall, Mi and M. Brady, J. Brady, more ; Miss Grant, Mr. E. Hogan, Mrs. Ga aunt ; Miss G. and J. Moore, Mrs. Griffith Kerr, "A few friends, 103, George-street Flowers by Miss Belshaw, Misses Myle Elliott, Mrs. Stenson, Mrs. Vokes, Miss Mrs. King.

THE BUTTER MARKET

COPENHAGEN.

PRICES TO-DAY.

[BY TELEGRAPH.]

Danish official quotation to-day is 102 kroner (equal to 115s. to 119s. English cu

DUBLIN.

PRICES TO-DAY.

Ordinary—First quality, 89s. ; second do