

a blow has been a pretty vigorous

Barry, formerly of Cork, and for eloquent speaker in Ireland, Scotland, is just now, says the Newark renewing his friendships with the old across the sea. Whilst speaking of the estate of Charles Stewart Parnell, Avoca, "where the glad waters" he told a Pressman that Mr. Parnell was a socialist, and had a well-equipped flat at his home where he worked in his perfecting several valuable inventions which was the patented air-brake used by the principal railways of Ireland of the best features of Parnell's invention appropriated by certain air-brake companies, which act involved litigation, maintained by the heirs of Parnell, in the courts.

John Lynch, late of the Irish Brigade in South Africa, has been telling a reporter that the Irish soldiers who served the Boers in Lorenzo Marques, is arraigned by the British. "Colonel" Lynch says there is a bank in South Africa of £100,000 of the money contributed by the order of Hibernians in the United Kingdom which is available for the Irish soldiers who are fighting for the Boers. The Irish soldiers who have gone to Lorenzo Marques to the United States, found Hibernians there to welcome them and home with every comfort.

But, is very nice and very cheering till they hug themselves with the belief that the Hibernians did anything but hang about. We have heard of no deeds of valour on their parts. No one of the Hibernians appears to have been daring or to have distinguished himself in any great degree of gallantry. On the whole, to have had the expense of their deluded countrymen's return for these good times they do not appear to have had the slightest influence on the Boers, bad, or indifferent—a very poor money expended.

In her instance of the same sort of thing Some of the Dublin admirers of him have decided to present him with the "Honour." If these "admirers" of satire, surely McBride will have the word of honour to a valiant hero who has been principally shown in the Department, is a fine touch of humour. The "Major" regrets that he has no opportunity of displaying his prowess and may take the proposed presentation as a satirically suggestive that he will use another kind of "toasting are requested to turn out punctually, in view of the matches on Tuesday and Thursday.

Some time ago, according to the Daily Mr. Justice Day was judge on

ACCIDENT—John Barnes, labourer, living at Coonagh, was treated in Barrington's Hospital last evening for injuries to his thumb, the top of which got cut off, in the course of his employment at the gas works.

SHIPPING.—The Clyde Company's steamer, "Arranmore" (Captain Williams), left last evening with 188 head of cattle and a few sheep, besides a general cargo. Bad weather is reported off the Irish coast for the past fortnight.

R.I. CONSTABULARY.—It is announced that District Inspector Hussey, who has been in charge of Rathkeale district for the past few years, will shortly be transferred to Gort, Co. Galway.

THE CREAMERY DEBATE.—In our report of the creamery debate at the P.Y.M.A., under the heading "The Change in the Farmer's Life" is an omission necessary to complete the sentence. It should read—"Butter-making cannot be treated as an independent industry; it is simply one of the branches," &c.

PROTESTANT AID SOCIETY—The Treasurer of the Protestant Aid Society begs to acknowledge having received the following subscriptions;—General Fund—L. B. Barrington, J.P., £1. Fuel Fund—L. B. Barrington, J.P., £1; A. Caulfield, J.P., £1; Messrs. J. M'Birney and Co., £1; F. St. Clair Hobson, £1. Donation—Lady Dunraven, £1.

DEATHS FROM BURNS.—Michael O'Gorman, one of three children admitted into Barrington's Hospital during the week, suffering from burns accidentally received, died on Thursday night. This makes the second death, the other being a boy named Ryan. The circumstances of each case were reported by the police to the coroner, but it was not found necessary to hold an inquest.

RAILWAY ACCIDENT NEAR BIRR.—Yesterday morning, through the breaking of an axle on a goods wagon, nearly half of a long goods train was derailed while travelling between Birr and Roscrea, on the Great Southern and Western Railway. Fortunately no one was hurt, and though the traffic between Roscrea and Birr was suspended for many hours, no goods were lost.

"THE NEW EAST LYNNE".—Mr. W. W. Kelly's Company, in The New East Lynne, the adaptation of Mrs. Wood's famous novel, will commence a three nights' engagement at the Theatre Royal on Monday evening next. The company has had a most successful visit to Cork, and we are certain the new play which comes to us for the first time will receive a very liberal share of patronage at the hands of local playgoers.

FASHIONABLE MARRIAGE.—A pretty wedding took place at Sandford Church, Dublin, on the 14th inst. The bridegroom was the Rev. Edward J. Alcock, son of Dr. A. M. Alcock, of Innishannon, Co. Cork, and the bride, Miss Emma Louisa Kathleen, only daughter of Mr. Thomas Sherard Crosthwaite, of Marlborough road, Dublin, and formerly of Limerick. The Rev. Lindsay Darling and the Rev. T. Good officiated.

LAND PURCHASE IN WEST LIMERICK.—The tenants on Miss Nixon's estate at Caher and Mount Collins, near Abbeyfeale, have arranged

CHURCH HOUSES—Speaking on the sub Report recently issued about glebe house ing to the Church of England, The Record "Why should there not be in every standing fund raised by voluntary offerings vested in the hands of the churchwarden time being, to provide for the needful of the parsonage house? It would give the opportunity of showing their personal the parson and his work in a way altogether from the objections open to more costly gifts." A similar suggestion might well in connection with many parishes of the Ireland.

THE S.P.G.—The speeches that were at the "Bi-Centenary Meeting of the show that this ancient and venerable Society has made some enemies, has made many enthusiastic friends (says the Church of Gazette). It would be a great pity if this which has done so great a work in building the Church in partibus, were to be seriously in its good work by the efforts of those who despise the good cause because it is not better.

AN ADVENT PASTORAL ON THE NEW CENTURY.—The Liverpool Courier understands the Chavasse is preparing an "Advent Pastoral" the subject of the old and the new century suggestions for special services in all the of the diocese in the closing days of the opening days of the new century. Very usefully do something of the same kind.

VISITATIONS—We learn from an English pundent that in the Diocese of Cork, by the Bishop, cassocks are worn at Visitation clergy who are not possessed of good custom seems to be reverent and suitable.

A NEW VOLUME—Messrs. Nesbitt will before the end of November a new and volume by Mr. Walter Walsh, the author of Secret History of the Oxford Movement volume Mr. Walsh traces the growth of the Oxford Movement in the Church of England year 1833.

JERSEY INCUMBENCY—For the Parish of St. Paul's, Jersey, of which the income is £1,000 there have been over 150 applicants in the advertisement for an incumbent. The Guardian.

REPRESENTATIVE BODY OF THE CHURCH OF IRELAND—The Representative Body met on Monday, his Grace the Lord Primate presiding. Other members present were the Archbishop of Dublin, Bishop of Meath, Bishop of Clogher, Bishop of Tuam, Bishop of Cork, Bishop of Derry, Bishop of Limerick, Bishop of Kilmore, Bishop of Ossington, Bishop of Cashel, Dean of St. R. Bagwell, Archdeacon of Kilmore, Wilson, Mr. H. Cole Bowen, Mr. W. Dean of Ossory, Right Hon. H. Br. deacon of Armagh, Archdeacon of Clogher, F. de Vismes Kane, Mr. H. de F. M. Dean of the Chapel Royal, Recorder of Dublin, Archdeacon of Connor, Major J. N. Price, Dean of Limerick, Dean of Tuam, the Right Hon. E. H. Cooper, Dean of Clonmacnoise, Colonel Pepper T.C.D., Rev. T. T. Gray, S.F.T.C.I. St. Patrick's, Rev. Dr. Bernard.

To-morrow's Service

ST. MARY'S CATHEDRAL.—Sunday Advent—Morning Prayer, 11.30—Vespers in D; Chants, Mornington in D, H. Service, Hatton in C; Hymn, No. 100. Communion Service, Goss and Hatton