

LIMERICK CHRONICLE, TUESDAY EVENING

on what it costs to measure their at the Local Government Board, guardians of Leicester, in England, y, and the little bill has just been amounts to £1,351, and still the it has to be put in force.

this winter, it is pleasing to say, be of its dullness in regard to public Arrangements are nearly perfected of a grand bazaar, lasting over It is organized on behalf of the cy. Another concert and general ainment, it is understood, will be xt month also by the Church of Irety. In addition to these, the Oper-Society have announced their annual te in December, so that the inha-ve quite a pleasing variety during stive season.

schemes in connection with a Techicultural scheme for the Kilrush disn put before the Joint Committee for and discussion by several promiwho are deeply interested in the t. It is expected that at the public orrow at the Board-room finality will thishead, and a schedule reconciled recommended by the County Council In the framing of this draft, with a g it as complete as possible, the Com-requisitioned the attendance of an he Department in Dublin, so that no could benefit the locality in the be overlooked.

mpton, who has just returned from whither he went in command of a d telegraph brigade, has related some periences. He states that a man ; on a free wheel machine can use with great precision, and further that ed on a khaki covered cycle affords or mark for his opponent at a distance. ards, in fact the chance of being hit indeed. It is interesting to note Drompton himself used road racing xposed sides, and that he never cept by nails and similar sharp in the vicinity of towns. He is of

COLONEL CHAMBERLAIN.—Colonel Chamberlain, Inspector General R.I.C., and party arrived this evening at the Glentworth Hotel. The Deputy Inspector General, Mr. Cameron, left the hotel to-day.

THE ACCIDENT TO MR. WM. LEAHY.—We are very pleased to learn that Mr. Wm. Leahy, Crown Solicitor, who met with a serious accident in the hunting field some ten days ago, is progressing favourably at his residence, Lickadoon.

A PARK MAN MISSING.—A man named Moore, residing at Park, is reported to be missing since Thursday last. It is said that he was eccentric in his habits, and it is feared he has been drowned in the Groody river. The river has been dragged for some distance, but without success.

WEST CLARE RAILWAY.—Traffic Receipts for third week ending 16th November, 1900 (including South Clare Railways)—53 miles, £299. Corresponding week last year—53 miles, £286; increase, £13. Aggregate Receipts—This year, £700; do. last year, £747; decrease, £47.

ALLEGED DESERTION.—Two privates named Eli Brown and John Hewitt were arrested yesterday by Sergeant M'Aree charged with being deserters from the Yorkshire Light Infantry.
The accused, who admitted the offence, were brought before Mr. J. J. Cleary, J.P., who directed the men to be handed over to the Military Authorities.

ANOTHER DEATH FROM BURNS.—A child named Samuel Mitchell, aged 2½ years, whose parents reside in White's Lane, died at Barrington's Hospital on Saturday night from the effects of burns, the result of his clothes accidentally taking fire. This makes the third fatality under like circumstances which has occurred within the space of a week. The Police reported the circumstances to the Coroner, who did not deem it necessary to hold an inquest.

PRESENTATION TO A BANK OFFICIAL.—Mr. T. W.
Chillingworth, of the Munster and Leinster Bank, Limerick, a gentleman well known in aquatic circles, was entertained by a number of his friends at Prossor's Hotel on Saturday evening, and presented with a souvenir, consisting of a silver-mounted tantalus, as a mark of their esteem and best wishes, on the occasion of his transfer to Bantry, on promotion; Mr. W. DeCourcy, L.B.C., of which Mr. Chillingworth is a member, presided, and made the presentation, which the re-

“THE NEW EAST LYNN

There was a good house at the The-last night, when The New East Lynne duced by Miss Bessie Rignold and company. Miss Rignold gave a spirit-ing of the dual characters of “Mrs Car-“Madame Vine.” Mr Graham Price ge-but effective rendering of “Mr. Carlyle, J. O'Brien (“Murty O'Flynn”) into comic element, which considerably ad-attractiveness of the play. The other were well sustained, and the incidental songs rendered were very pretty an-Those who do not disdain a “good cry,” who want a hearty laugh, those who w-the complete characteristics of nature them as they are, those who rejoice triumphant and villainy worsted, who story of woman's suspicions and mar-placed before them vividly, will not m-the New East Lynne, played by a strong who, if they are open to criticism in so give a most realistic three hours' glim-as it is, and as it might be, at the The-to-night and to-morrow night, when tl ment closes.

SHANNON ROWING CI “SMOKER.”

This annual event, which comes off in House on the 5th December promises to previous records. There is an ex-brilliant and representative array of besides various popular local gentleme-of the following amongst other visitors on the programme—Messrs. Hurley anton, of “San Toy” fame; “Dr. I Leslie, Vaudeville Theatre, London Kelly, Dunmore, Co. Galway; Mr Br-known basso, and gold medalist at the Mr. B. Long, Clonmel; Mr. M. Enrigconnell; Mr. F. M'Namara, Ennis. also be a troupe of mandolines, and furin the form of step-dancing by Mr. Ha-performances are well known. A cap-enjoyment may be looked forward to, so as no more hospitable hosts than could be found anywhere. The corissuing a large number of invitations. must be remembered that large as modation is there must be a limit.

THE NEW INSPECTOR-G R.I.C.

Colonel Neville Chamberlain, the ne-General of the Royal Irish Constabular his first inspection of the Limerick City force to-morrow. Colonel Chamberlain