ALLEGED CITY BREACH OF CONTRACT.

In the Court of Queen's Bench, Dublin, yesterday, before Mr. Justice Johnson and Mr. Justice Kenny, in the action Evans v. Kenny, a motion was made to change the place of trial of the action. The writ was issued by Mrs. Mary Jane Evans, of Carrick House, Brighton-road, Rathgar, Dublin, against Thomas Hugh Kenny, 55, George-street, Limerick, solicitor, and Mr. T. M. Kenny, solicitor, of the same place. The action was brought to recover damages for the breach of a contract to keep certain buildings in repair, contained in a deed of 26th July, 1880. The plaintiff was the representative of the original lessor, and the defendants are the executors of the original lessee.

Messrs. Brereton Barry, Q.C., and A. C. Meredith appeared for the defendants, and sought to change the venue from Dublin to Limerick.

Messrs. Wm. Moore, Q.C., and C. Doyle appeared for the plaintiff, and opposed the motion.

The Court were of opinion that the action was purely a local one and connected with premises in Limerick, and for this reason they would change the place of trial from Dublin to Limerick city.
