VALUABLE BULL SMOTHERED.

Today a valuable bull, the property of Fisher, cattle dealer, Charleville, was accidentally smothered in a bridge over the fair of Rathkeale on the 15th inst. The owner purchased a large number of horned cattle and gave in charge to a cattle drover from Croom Railway Station en route to the Police Barrack one of the animals, and at the time could not be seen. The animal was found next day on the bank of the river. On the 15th inst. the beast again broke through the bridge, he could not be recovered or retreat, and was soon killed. The drover did all that was possible in such circumstances, but without success.

DEATH OF MR. LUKE CHRISTY, CROOM.

* We regret to record the death of the above-named highly esteemed and widely known gentleman, which took place on the 15th instant, at his residence, Carrigeen, Croom, in the 74th year of his age. Mr. Christy was one of the most prominent agriculturists in Munster, and was looked on as a great authority on the breeding and rearing of stock. He was for many years one of the judges at the London and Dublin Cattle Shows. He farmed at one time close on 300 acres, and had from 60 to 100 hands employed. In later years, owing chiefly to the fall in prices for farming produce, the deceased did not cultivate as extensively as in former years, but nevertheless he proved himself the poor man's friend, as he kept a good many hands constantly employed. Mr. Christy was for many years before the public as a land valuer, especially after the passing of the Act of 1881, since which time he had been most extensively engaged, chiefly by the tenantry, in the counties of Limerick and Clare. In private life he possessed hosts of friends, and the news of his death has been heard of with sincere regret in this and the adjoining counties.

The remains were interred in Croom Churchyard on Thursday, followed by many sorrowing friends from all parts of the city and county. The Rev. Chancellor Gabbett officiated.

The chief mourners were John Christy (son), Rev. John Quinlan, P.P.; John Cannon, Crovraghan House, Kildysart; Robert and George Stenhouse Mathews, Miltownmalbay (nephews), and Mr Thomas Kelly.

Among the general public were—Messrs W. H. Lyons, J.P., Croom Castle; J. Grene Barry, D.L.; Captain Lyons, Croom House; P. O'Sullivan, Solicitor, Limerick; John Coleman, G.D.C.; John Ryan, Solicitor, Limerick; Raymond Sheehy, Newcastle West; Wm. B. Fitt, Limerick; Joseph Brown, Thomas M'Donnell, J.P., Ballygarry; J. Peacocke, C.E., Limerick; James Delaney, do.; W. Peacocke, do.; P. Ryan, do.; J. Moloney, Croom; John Herbert, do. R. Keating, Limerick; E. O'Connor, do.; T. Bradley, do.; M. J. Hayes, do.; H. O'Shea, Limerick; Wm. Hedderman, Ballygarry; M. W. Long, Limerick; H. O'Donnell, Kileedy; Spenser Lyons, Croom Castle; Joseph Bevan, Dr. Hartigan, et., and a numerous gathering of farmers and labourers of the surrounding districts.

Sir David and Miss Roche sent a beautiful floral cross as a tribute of esteem to their old neighbour.

LAWN TENNIS AND CRICKET CERT.

There can, we think, be hardly a as a result of the proceeds of last night the Committee of the Lawn Tennis Club, will find no difficulty in clearing the remainder of that debt which has long been hanging over their heads. It is a happy idea indeed to organize a concert for such an object, but few, perhaps, anticipated have been the financial success it has achieved. There was a bumper house, even the hall being crowded by eight o'clock, and varied programme, in which a lady and gentlemen amateurs took part through, under the able conduct of Muspratt, and was very highly appreciated as the numerous encores so fully demonstrated. The great success of the concert was the writer of similarly brilliant entertainments in the P.Y.M.A. Hall years ago, and frequently then than they have been in years. We trust that last night will encourage the Executive of the P.Y.M.A. to hold a few such concerts during the winter which we have just entered. The reason to believe that the result would be desired, as in connection with the institution there is plenty of talent available, and it only needs to be developed. Before we say further a word of praise is due to the Committee for the highly artistic manner in which they decorated the Hall. Overhead the harp, surmounted by the crown work of emerald green, occupied a prominent position, at either side of which was the table. There were numerous appropriate tennis rackets, cricket bats and wicket appliances, and so forth, and the side hall were hidden in bunting of various colours, the tout ensemble, as we have said, effective indeed.

The programme opened with a performance of "Sylvia Valse Lente," admirably interpreted by W. W. Cooke. This was followed by a well known part song, "Comrades in Arms," effectively interpreted by Messrs. L. J. Todd, G. Angley, South, Adams, Trousdell. The Rev. G. L. O'Sullivan's voice was heard to good effect in "The Song" (Irish air arranged by Stan. De War) heartily applauded. Mrs. De War of Nenagh, gave a very tasteful interpretation of a simple little song, "The Old Plain," she sang "Killarney" in answer to an encore. A brilliant item was the "Mazur" (Mlynarski), by Miss M. J. O'Sullivan. This young lady plays with great taste and her performance being admirable in purity, depth of tone, and finish, she was vociferously encored, and in appreciation of her melody of Ruben was equally acceptable to the audience. Rosamond Langbridge, whose talent and elocution are so well known, gave a dramatic account of "The Black Sheep"—otherwise "A Prodigal Son," and was heartily applauded. Mrs. F. Cleve, who received, sang "Mary Adeane," a well known ballad, and was also heartily applauded.
