

her's death in the service of en and Country. is pure in heart, for they shall table is a very fine piece of ship.

AILING AT ENNIS, ly should pay more attention to s, who are carrying a regular g blackmail off people, especially ne or two of these gentry, are us in this respect, and yesterday ed in an incident which afforded action to onlookers. He accosted who were enjoying a quiet walk of the town, and his demand for g met with a curt refusal, he then atuperation, and attempted to the young men who, however nd chastisement on the fellow. able (says the Clare Journal), to o ones hands sometimes, and if case of the kind, this was one.

DINAL LOGUE

HOUS DISTURBANCES.

with the dedication of St Peter's olic Church, in Lurgan a meeting vas held after the ceremony for resenting an address of welcome ie. In his reply, Cardinal Logue isturbances that had taken place s in the North of Ireland, and it understand why both Roman rotestants could not be good each other, in order to put an at condition of things which were orth of Ireland. He mentioned ved a letter from a Presbyterian ncover to the effect that Irish discussed questions of religious he did not understand why they same at home. He appealed to d) to do all he could to bring relations between the different s of Irishmen in the North. He plied that so far as he could he and would always continue to use that direction. He expressed a would come to this disgraceful gs, and that all classes and creeds ry would learn to act together as and fellow-countrymen.

business at the Police Court or to-day, and the attendance of not necessary.

RAILWAY COMPANY.—Traffic recek ending 6th August, 1901 (in-Clare Railways), 53 miles, ding week last year (53 miles), 265. Aggregate receipts, this last year, £6,138; increase, to ear, and he had been dead for some hours.

Sullivan's throat was also cut, but only superficially, and he was able to state that a man whom he could not describe, had come in during the night and had inflicted the wound. On being informed that Clifford's throat had been cut, he said he supposed the man did that also. A blood-stained razor was subsequently found in the coupling of the rafters directly over the bed. Sullivan, whose recovery was rapid, was tried on the capital charge at the Cork Winter Assizes, with the result that the jury disagreed. He was again tried at Limerick Spring Assizes, and a third time at the Limerick Summer Assizes, the juries again disagreeing, the last time, it was stated, in the proportion of ten for conviction against two for acquittal. Mr P.
Lynch, B.L., defended Sullivan with such conspicuous brilliancy that he was warmly complimented by the Bench and the Bar.

DEATH OF A POST OFFICE OFFICIAL.

The announcement of the death of Mr. Michael John Dunworth, Post Office official, at the early age of 23 years, which sad event occurred on Sunday, 25th instant, at the residence of his respected father, Mr. John Dunworth, M.C.P., Main street, Ballingarry, after a painfully long illness borne with pious resignation, has been received all over the district with which he had been associated both privately and publicly since childhood, with feelings of the keenest regret. During his connection with the Post Office, a responsible trust which he carried out in the most faithful and honourable manner by his gentle, courteous, and unpretentious demeanour, he gained the affection and esteem of all, and won for himself a host of true friends.
The great concourse of sympathisers who composed the long procession that made up the funeral cortege as it proceeded from his late residence through Furrett street on Monday evening for the interment of the remains in the New Cemetery close by the Roman Catholic Church was representative in every degree, and spoke eloquently not only of the love and esteem in which the deceased youth was held, but every member of his respected family.
In the unavoidable absence of the P.P. the clergy present were—Rev. Stephen Culham, C.C., and Rev. M. McCoy, C.C. The coffin during the mournful journey was borne shoulder high by stalwart companions and sincere friends. Much sympathy is expressed for his grieved father and brothers and sisters.

WELDON'S PRACTICAL KNITTER.

This publication, which forms No. 189 of Wel-don's Practical Needlework Series, is bound to rejoice the hearts of lovers of knitting, as it contains illustrations and full directions for making some extremely choice examples of knitted edg-ings, borders and corners, useful for trimming house linen or underwear. Several of the designs are unique, and are certain to win appreciation and an extensive circulation for this issue.

receipts over the working expenses more this year than last year, but it informs us that £23,000 of additional was owing to the high price of co-added to the £14,000 increased net give us £37,000, for which we are pa-as increased interest. That is a los-on the half-year, or (at the rate of 1½ per cent. per annum on Ordinary is a nice position our directors have b-I think we should insist on no more of capital, and economy in working ex-

KILKEE ATHLETIC S

These sports were held to-day on laid out course near the Puffing weather was beautiful, and there was attendance. The arrangement wercarried out by the Committee, am-were—Messrs H. R. Atkinson, the hc J. V. Phelps, J. Phelps, E. J. Phelp
B.L.; C. C. Hickey, Doctor Hicke handicapper, and Eakins, deserve sp The band of the Boys' Industrial Sch-attended. Details:—

One Hundred Yards: First Heat
Limerick, 1st; J. J. O'Brien, Lih Three ran.

Second Heat: A. F. Kelly, Limer Falvey, Kilkee, 2nd. Four ran.

Final Heat: Kelly, 1st; Coll, 2n Putting 28lbs. (with follow):— Constabulary, 1st, 29ft.; Alexander, 28ft. 11in. Five competed.

One Mile Bicycle Handicap: Halve 1st; Hurley (Charleville), 2nd. V yards. Four competed.

High Jump Handicap: Nono (En 6½in.; Toomey (Limerick), 2nd, 5ft.

Putting 10lb Shot: O'Shea (En 1st, 40 ft 4 in.; O'Sullivan (Enn 2nd; 34 feet.

Three Miles Bicycle Race—Hurville) 1st; Halvey (Limerick), 2nd; C 3rd. 4 competed. Won by half a v 12½ minutes.

120 Yards Hurdle, (final)—O'Brie 1st; Nono (Ennis) 2nd.

INCORRIGIBLE.—Anne Greene, a eighteen years, was arrested yest charge of theft of a small sum of mo-articles from the Magdalen Asylum. had been prosecuted at the Petty Friday week last, at the suit of O Mary street, for the larceny of cloth to a Mrs. O'Shaughnessy, but owing and in face of a promise given by allowed out on condition that she the Magdalen Institution. Her rep-ever, was only temporary, and she w from the Asylum. The accused before Mr. Guinane, J.P., to-day, a to six months imprisonment in dducing bail for her good behaviour.