But is that so? Are there not a number of cases in which people take shooting without paying for a fact, unfortunately for the revenue in this respect is frequently violated ago the attention of the Chancellor was called to this evasion he pointed out that, as the principle of local taxation, it was for the purpose to see that the law was enforced ought to do it more vigorously

WORD FOR WOMEN.

Minister of Harrow, said the other day agreed with Darwin that woman is than man. If he wanted to do it intelligently, and conscientiously could get it done by women.

HOME AT FENLOE.

On the 17th inst, a most enjoyable party was given by Major and Mrs. Lynch, to the workpeople and the neighbours. The ball-room, which was decorated with ferns, evergreens and flowers, presented a brilliant scene. Refreshments were plentifully supplied. Major and Mrs. Lynch opened the ball-room shortly after seven and were greeted with enthusiasm. Major Lynch offered thanks for the kindness offered by Mrs. Lynch, and saying how happy to see their guests present, he opened the festivities by dancing with Mrs. Lynch, while Mrs. Lynch danced with Mr. Lynch. Dancing was carried on with great spirit until daybreak. This was a delightful harvest home ever given in Fenloe. Amongst those present were Mr. P. Quigley, one of the oldest tenants of Fenloe property. Amongst those present were Mr. and Mrs. Lynch, Mr. and Mrs. Walsh, Miss McSweeney, Mr. and Mrs. Conlon, Mr. and Mrs. Ryan (3), Mr. Fahy and sons (4), Mrs. Ryan (3), Miss Ryan, Mr. Minighan and Mrs. Minighan, Mr. and Mrs. Frawley, Mr. and Mrs. Ryan, and Miss Quina and sons (3), Mr. Ryan, etc.

"A NIGHT OUT."

The Wood's Company opened a three day performance at the Theatre Royal last night with the farcical comedy "A Night Out."

mon, was running with some others in a field near the town on Friday evening. After the race the young fellows threw themselves on the ground to rest. The others got up immediately, but Gardner did not stir, and on coming over to him his companions found him dead. At the inquest held by Mr. F. F. Cullinan on Saturday, the jury found that death was due to over-exertion.

P.Y.M.A. LITERARY CLASS.

The opening meeting of this class will be held on Friday next at 8 p.m. in the Association Class Room, when Rev. Canon Vance will deliver a lecture on "Milton—his Life and Works." The programme for the first half session embraces matters of special interest for the junior members, a debate on a local question, a political and other extremely interesting items, and it is hoped that the session will be a successful one in point of attendance.

FUNERAL OF MRS. HARKNESS.

The funeral of Mrs. Sara Anne Harkness, widow of the late Rev. W. Harkness, a lady who had been long and intimately connected with the County Limerick, took place on Saturday last at the family burying-place, Kilgobbin, County Dublin. From the time that she first came to the County Limerick she interested herself in the welfare of her husband's tenants, and of the cottiers on his estate. Her kindness and thoughtfulness for the poor were well known, and many of her poorer neighbours at Clarina and Milford as well as those who had a more direct claim on her charity, still speak of her many acts of goodness. The funeral service was read at her residence, Broovale, Stillorgan, and at the grave by the Rev. Canon Kennedy, D.D., and her remains were laid in the beautiful burying ground at Kilgobbin, by her sorrowing relations. Amongst those present were:—Captain W. Harkness (son), Mr. A. D. Price, Dr. A. Price, Mr. V. Price (nephews), Major Kiggell, Rev. J. Campbell, Mr. G. Knox, Mr. G. Cotter, Mr. G. Lander, Dr. T. Mackay, servants from Brookvale. The following were unavoidably absent:—Dr. W. B. Peebles (brother); Rev. G. L. Harkness (brother-in-law), Mr. Henry Bellingham, Mr. Arthur Bellingham, Mr. J. H. Ryan, and Mr. W. E. Peebles (cousins).

A NEWCASTLE COMPENSATION AWARD.

In the Chancery Division yesterday, before the Master of the Rolls, an application was made to pay out of Court one half of the sum of £150 to Arabella Brophy, of Limerick, and to transfer the other half to the credit of "In the Matter of Julia Murray Gun, a person of unsound mind."

Mr. Patrick Kelly (instructed by Mr. Wm. Leahy), applied on behalf of Mr. George Sheehy, committee of Julia Gun, for payment and transfer. The sums were lodged in Court under an award made by an arbitrator appointed by the Local Government Board to award compensation to the owners and occupiers of the lands of Knockane, in the County of Limerick, consisting of five acres, which were taken compulsorily by the Dis-
