

perance amongst the soldiers those who have not already inst drink, to do so. I have pledge, and I have seen cause right under the notice of the the priest gave the pledge, riously kept. I am sure we it an absolute necessity to soldiers whose husbands are hardships in South Africa, know it is hard to work and have all done, for the soldiers' in some cases, to buy drink and money we have collected. home-coming for poor his wife and children trim, and the little house all life a total abstainer, but oh ning for the poor Tommie who from the cause of intemper-en could only see how it and complexions, pink noses ay need not be astonished if ir husbands. And now I will but will please you all very remember our dear Queen ad us by accepting our box of ame time she suggested that our shamrocks it might help I need hardly say "made the Majesty gave an order, and large boxes to Marlborough in Anston, Adjutant of the d me the other day the Guards had just returned from church on St. Patrick's Day, as a rival from her Majesty lear message such as only our ld dictate. I need hardly say countrymen was great at this still, the four boxes were the e had dispatched and sent. ay well feel proud at our benning the newly-formed Irish n shamrocks. As for me, I merick. I love the place of ur, and love it more and more ll always work in the cause ity. I don't mind what it is for the poor, and that's rk, and hospitals and institu-if politics and religious con-ut in such undertakings, be-mitted like the bundle of twigs, ad through any cause, it will oject. Union is strength. I cept my sincere thanks for the ou have assisted me in the past ing, and that you will continue me good untiring spirit in the sent gave in their names for t was stated that a large num-ntlemen unable to attend had rs.
 decided that as long as the s' families required aid they e's first care, but after that l should be divided among the te of thanks to the Countess residing was unanimously oting then adjourned.

President), Mr Stokes, and Alderman O'Mara, should go to Dublin on behalf of the Chamber and see Mr Horace Plunkett.
 Alderman O'Mara said he could not attend.
 The Chairman said he omitted to mention Sir Thomas Cleave, whose interests in this direction were so big that he might consent to act.
 Sir Thomas Cleave agreed to do so, and with the President and Mr. Stokes will comprise the deputation.
 Mr Boyd was requested to write to the County Council asking them to appoint a deputation to represent them.
 The meeting then adjourned.

FUNERAL OF THE REV. P. KENRICK, C.C.

The funeral of the above much-lamented clergyman took place on Saturday. Office and High Mass were celebrated in the parish church, Kilcorman, after which the funeral cortege started for Ardagh, where the interment took place in the parish church.

The clergy present were—The Venerable Archdeacon Roche, P.P., Glin; Very Rev Monsignor Mahan, P.P., V.G., Newcastle West; Very Rev Dr. Moloney, P.P., V.G., Rathkeale; Very Rev. M. Doner, P.P., Shanagolden; Rev.
 W. Dowling, P.P., Ballygurry; Rev. P.
 Hurley, Ballygran; Rev. M. Irwin, P.P., Castlemahan; Rev. E. Clifford, P.P., Moneguy; Rev. E. Tracy, Askaton; Rev. S. Danaher, Loughill; Rev. J. Sheahan, P.P., Ardagh, Rev.
 J. Fenton, C.C., do.; Rev. M. O'Donnell, Adm., St. Michael's; Rev. John Griffin, C.C., St. John's; Rev. Dr. O'Riordan, Rev. A. O'Leary, Rev. J.
 O'Shea, C.C.; Rev. J. Murphy, C.C.; Rev. J.
 Connolly, C.C.; Rev. M. M'Coy, C.C.; Rev. S.
 Culhane, C.C.; Rev. D. O'Keefe, C.C.; Rev. J.
 Conway, C.C.; Rev. J. O'Gorman, C.C.; Rev. J.
 Foley, Rev. J. O'Carroll, Rev. John O'Connor, C.C. (Effin); Rev. P. Hartigan, C.C.; Rev. W.
 O'Shea, C.C.; Rev. J. Quinlivan, C.C.; Rev. J.
 Reeves, C.C.; Rev. R. J. Ambrose.

The chief mourners were:—Mrs. Fitzgibbon (sister), Dr. Ambrose, Rev. R. J. Ambrose, C.C.; M. Cremin, D.C.; J. Ambrose, M. Enright, J.
 Barry, T. Enright, Thomas J. Ambrose, M. Kenrick, E. Kenrick, M. Fitzgibbon, T. G. Ambrose, Workhouse Master.

Amongst the general public were—Messrs.
 Coplen Langford, J.P.; P. J. Murray, J.P.; T. D.
 McCoy, solicitor; Dr. Condon, Harry O'Donnell, Cave Cottage, Ashford; P. Donovan, R. F.
 McCoy, Dr. C. J. Nolan, J. M. Donovan, D.C., J. Nolan, D.C.; P. O'Shaughnessy, D.C.; P. L.
 O'Sullivan, D.C.; J. O'S. Liston, D.C.; John Egan, J. Scanlan, Rathrugh; P. Condon, P.
 O'Shaughnessy, J.P.; T. Hurley, J.P.; R. K.
 Sheehy, M. Curtin, C. Hartnett, D. Leonard, J.
 Cregan, P. M. Culhane, Peter Culhane, M. Moore, J. Magner, D.C.; John M. Grady, D.C.; J. J.
 O'Donnell, Eugene McSwiney, P. H. Hartigan, John Mangan, J. Liston, Ballynacree; J. Flanagan, T. Liston, J. Murray, J. Egan, Joseph Cussen, J. Lyons, J. Barry, M. Healy, — Nevillé, P.
 Noonan, Cappa; M. Cregan, J. Cregan, J.
 O'Donoghue, Shanagolden; T. Enright, J. Kennedy, J. Barry, Coolanoran, and many others.

ALLEGED INCENDIARISM IN KERRY.

Two large hay sheds, containing about 25 tons of hay and about 12 tons of straw, together with a quantity of turf, the property of Mr. J. E. Hussey, J.P., Edenburn, has been burned down. The damage is estimated at £250 and Mr. Hussey of Dr. John F. Counihan to have another nurse appointed.

 It was decided to continue the temporary appointment for another month.
 DISTRESS.
 A woman named Cahill, who has three and is destitute, applied for out-relief husband was a soldier, and was report dead in the Transvaal war.
 After a discussion,
 The Chairman said they could do nothir law was against them.

THE NENAGH URBA ELECTION.

At Saturday's Petty Sessions, before Dease, B.M., and seven other magistrat men named Meagher and Keating, the o porter of the Labour Party, and the othe herent of the Independent or Petitioners' were bound to the peace for twelve month result of a squabble arising out of the Before the magistrates delivered sentence Constable Horgan asked permission to a few words to the Bench. He said the re of the incidents of the Ryan and Corbett was apparently inevitable in the present s The town at the present early period was in a blaze, and only last night a man h seriously assaulted on the head with a hat outrage being directly attributable to the prejudices. He therefore, asked the mag to take steps to have an end put to th orderly occurrences.

The Chairman said he wished to have p notice taken of the determination of the t impose most rigorous penalties cases connected with the coming which might come before them.

The following persons have been duly nomi Labour Party—Messrs Martin Corber O'Meara, John M'Closkey, Joseph Holton, Jones, John Flannery, (Barrack stree Flannery (Dublin road), Thomas M'G Patrick Kiely, James Haugh, William G Michael Berkerey, Denis Jones, Chr Whitehead, Wm. F. M'Curtin, Patrick
 G. Bernal, William Conway, John Spai Reidy, Wm. Meelan.

Independent or Petitioners' Party—Mes Harty, J.P.; Joseph Gleeson, Thomas Ry M.C.C.; Joseph Gubbins, Thomas M.
 Charles M. Carroll, James Gallagher, Hegarty, Jonathan Daly, Christopher John Pyne, William Harkness, William (Barrack street), Wm. Murphy, Rody M Michael Gleeson (Dublin road), Daniel F Patrick J. Coghlan, Michael Slattery, Carey, and Patrick Kennedy.

SOCIETY OF ACCOUNTANTS AND AU

The Council of the Society of Account Auditors, Incorporated, have issued to th bers of the Society their sixteenth annu to December 31st, 1900. During the p 140 new members were added to the roll, at the close of the period, contained 1,79 The Council state that, although they h been successful in obtaining a second re the Bill for the registration and control sional accountants, yet they are convin the success of the Society's policy on thi is essential, not only to the well-being of fession, but also for the protection of th

Strength with
X O
 UP DATED