

venient hour, returning from Ballingrane in the afternoon. Dame Fortune did seem to favour us in the early portion of the day, as Cahermoyle and the adjoining fields were drawn blank, as might almost have been expected. Let us hope for better success on our next visit. So bidding farewell to Cahermoyle, Captain Wise decided in calling on Mr. O'Brien, and from this never-failing piece of good luck we were fortunate in finding a good-looking fox, who was viewed away over the ridge road, as if Altavilla was his destination, turning left-handed by Mullogh, through the wood, and then pointing his mask in the easterly direction by Curlew hill, touching on Ballyclough, and to ground in Mr. O'Brien's spinneys adjoining Limerick and the Great Western Railway. From Altavilla there was a spin in the afternoon by Miltown, and a round in Ballyclough.

Amongst those out I noticed—The Master (John Wise), Mr. O'Grady Delmege, Mrs. Delmege, Mr. Montiford W. Gavin, Mr. Hardcastle, Capt. White, Mrs. Russell, Mr. A. White, Mr. Westropp, Mrs. Conyers, Mr. L. C. Lang, Miss Massy, Mrs. Studdert, Mrs. Hunt, Mr. R. Hunt, Mr. E. Westropp, Mr. Gatacre, W. F. McDonnell, Mrs. Coogan, Ballinahinch House, Misses McDonnell (2), Miss Harris, Mrs. Studdert, Miss White, Messrs Browning, Mr. Donovan, Mr. M. L. Bourke, Mr. Sheehy, etc.

THE BOY ON FOOT

FOOTBALL.

DENNY'S V. SHAW'S.

The above match was played on Farranshone grounds on Saturday last, 9th inst., and after a very exciting game resulted in a draw, each side scoring a try. In the first half of the game Shaw's matters nearly all their own way, but only secured the line once owing to good tackling by Denny's back division. In the second half Denny's played very hard, and had hard lines in securing the second time owing to the crowd cheering on the field. The following played for Shaw's:—Prosser, Shaw and Ryan, backs; Kennedy, Curran, and Hogan, forwards. For Denny's, in the back line, O'Halloran, Mahony, Moran, played well, and Walsh, Dowsley, and Gerald, forwards. Denny's played one man short. Mr. Stokes refereed the match in his usual able manner.
