

TO BE RESTORED.

d, on undoubted authority, diately the 10.15 morning absence of which there has blaint) will run again. There r train from Newcastle West aving that place at 4.30. is will commence running on fr. Coroner DeCoursey and a st at the City Courthouse on e infant which was found dead ng on the bank near the Ath-. It appears that about 4.30 nan named John Clancy had seeing a bundle on the bank river he went and examined it, e the body of a newly-born y was removed by the police to Mulcahy deposed that the child een a week old, was fully de- een born alive. It had been s in the water. Death was . There were no marks of ly. A verdict in accordance estimony was returned. Head appeared for the police.

INFANTICIDE.

—At the City Petty Sessions l O'Brien, 12, was ordered to g a Corporation lamp.

IT—A charge of assault brought against Michael Connolly was ed at Petty Sessions. Mr Moran r Connihan defended.

—Messrs. Michael Dore, D. O'Connell have been co-opted as Glin Rural District. For the e voting was 5 each for Mr. O'Connell, and Mr. Ruddle, who sporarily, gave a casting vote in to CORK—The Traffic Manager outhern and Western Rail- has held a consultation with authorities and other leading with a view to giving facilities to Cork. It is now under con- ve excursions over the entire ost favourable terms.

MUSICAL APPOINTMENT—We are t that Mr. John Fitzgerald a k musician has been appointed ive and examiner for the Victora ; London. Mr. Fitzgerald is to l on the high mark of distinction conferred upon him by this action with which examinations out the United Kingdom.

E GATHERING is announced in our nns for next Friday, and lovers ould book the date, or take tickets . A. A. and B. C. are having a menade at Bellfield, Ennis Road, to be supplied by the magnificent O. Y. L. I. In addition to the ere will be a tea tent and other ided.

NDONED.—Some few days ago, in og, a child of about three months ean Mr. McEnery's house at Dear

CRICKET—Tea will be given by Mrs. Sandes on Monday, and the Band of the King's Own Yorkshire Light Infantry will attend, at the County Limerick Cricket and Lawn Tennis Club.

KEEPING THEM TO THEIR WORK—The Kilrush Guardians have decided that all members of Committees failing to attend a specified number of meetings, will be removed from such Committees.

A REMEDY FOR SALARIES—Notice of motion has been given by Mr. G. Burke, of Kilrush Guardians, that all officers of the Workhouse seeking an increase of salary must first send in the resignation of the offices they hold.

R. I. CONSTABULARY.—Head Constable Carden has been transferred from Clare to Meath, and Head Constable Downes from Tipperary, S.R., to Clare. Head Constable O'Keefe is also transferred from Kilkenny to Clare.

In the Nisi Prius Court yesterday, Miss Alice Fitzgerald, of Kilmacthomas, Co. Waterford, was awarded £250 damages for breach of promise, the defendant being Mr. Peter Murray, an Athlone merchant.

CLARE SHOOTING CASE—The King' Bench has changed the venue from County of Clare to City of Cork in the case of Bartholomew Crowley charged with discharging loaded fire arms into a dwelling house in County Clare.

Yesterday, at Waterford Petty Sessions, George Hazleton was remanded on a charge of having caused the death of his wife at the Shea Institute. At the inquest the jury found that the deceased succumbed to the injuries received.

ABBEYFEALE WATER SUPPLY—The Newcastle West Guardians decided yesterday to rescind the resolution making the area of charge the Dispensary rating, and making it a Union rating. Mr. Keane handed in a motion to rescind this resolution.

MILITIA TRAINING—It is announced in the Dublin Gazette that the period of training and exercise of various regiments of Militia shall be extended from twenty-eight to forty-one days. These include the 5th Battalion Royal Munster Fusiliers (Co. Limerick Militia).

LORD MONTEAGLE'S BILL—In the House of Lords yesterday, the Irish Pauper Children Bill, the object of which is to assimilate the law of Ireland with regard to boarded-out children to that of England, was read the second time without opposition.

DOCTORS' FEES—The Kilrush Guardians have settled the doctors' fee difficulty by deciding to pay up all arrears at the fees asked, and to grant a fee of a guinea, except in exceptional cases. For the future, an arrangement which Dr. Counihan fell in with and was thanked for.

BURNING ACCIDENT.—A little fellow, named John Bourke, five years of age, residing in Nelson street, was admitted to Barrington's Hospital last evening suffering from severe burns about the body, caused, it is supposed, by boiling water falling on him. The child is in a critical condition.

MRS. J. J. CLEARY, of the Eagle Hotel, Lisdoonvarna, County Clare, returns her sincerest thanks to her many kind friends whose sympathy was extended to her and her family during

The Annual Sports under the auspices of the Limerick Battalion of the Church Lads' Brigade, was held this afternoon in the Markets' Field, which was in its very best condition. The weather were not exactly summer-like, but was dry and bracing, and a brilliant assemblage turned out to witness the proceedings, which were throughout highly attractive. The band of the Yorkshire Light Infantry discoursed charming music. The programme opened with the squad drill competition, and it must be said that each Company acquitted itself with distinction. Although the present holders of the cup, St. Michael's Company, came out winners, they had, to use a sporting phrase, plenty to do to shake off the challenge of Trinity, who were only thirteen points behind, whilst St. Mary's also did well. Sir Henry Johnston acted as judge.

The other items were not decided in time for this issue, but a full report will appear in next.

FUNERAL OF THE LATE MR. CLOSE, B.A.

The funeral of the late Mr. James Close took place yesterday evening, the remains being removed from St. John's Roman Catholic Cathedral at four o'clock for interment at the New Cemetery. The cortege was of exceedingly large proportions, embracing all classes of the citizens, and was a marked testimony to the esteem and popularity which the deceased young gentleman enjoyed, as well being an evidence of the deep sympathy universally felt for his young widow and family. The chief mourners were—Mr James Close (father); John, Edward, Harry, and Charles, (brothers); James O'Halloran (father-in-law), and Michael Larkin (brother-in-law). The clergy present were—Rev. Father Lee, Adm, St. John's; Rev Father Griffin, C.C., do; Rev Father Robert Fitzgerald, C.C., do; Rev Dr. O'Riordan, St. Michael's; Rev Father O'Reilly, St. Munchin's College; Rev Father Riordan, do; and Rev Father O'Leary do. The students of the late Mr. Close walked in the procession which was half a mile in length. The Rev. Father Lee, Adm, officiated at the grave.

SEIZING THE WRONG COWS.

At Ennis Quarter Sessions, yesterday, before his Honor Judge Carton, John Maley, of Clohanemore, had an action against Captain Boyle Creagh, Rothorpe, High Sheriff, claiming £18 for the alleged seizure of two two-year old heifers under colour of a civil bill decree against a Miss Ellen Hinchy.

The case was that the cattle were grazing there and that the bailiffs were warned they were his, but in spite of that they seized and sold.

His Honor gave a decree for £13. Mr. M. Conyn, instructed by Mr. J. J. Daly, LL.B., was for plaintiff.

Mr. F. G. Kern, solicitor was for the defendant.

A DASTARDLY ACT.

At Newcastle West Quarter Sessions, before his Honor Judge Adams, James Lynch, Dubhile (Rathkeale Union), claimed £5 for the cutting off the ears from top to end of two donkeys, his property.

Mr. Frank Moloney, solicitor, for applicant. Mr. Cosgove, solicitor, for Rathkeale District Council.

Mr. William Leahy, solicitor, for County Council.

His Honor awarded £2 10s. compensation.

ROW AT LIMERICK WORKHOUSE.