ELECTRIC LIGHTING SCHEME.

The Electric Lighting Committee, Alderman O'Brien (locum tenens) presiding. Professor Enright reported that the work of laying out has been commenced under his supervision. In consultation with the City Surveyor, C.E., he had placed Mr. P. Semple as mason in the City Engineer's whom he considered competent to have the appointment in charge. The action with the power house was satisfactory, and on an inspection of the supplied through Mr. Dillon, he found them up to specification. In Mr. Enright's recommendation, it is to advertise for a contractor to carry out the wiring, and the Committee also report that a canvasser should be employed. On the motion of Mr. Long, a

SUDDEN DEATH NEAR THE CITY.

MELANCHOLY CASE.

A very sad fatality occurred on the North Circular Road on Thursday night. Mr Daniel J. Fenton, 30 years of age, an official in the Land Agency Office of Messrs. White & Son George St. was out walking and suddenly became ill and soon afterwards passed away as a result of heart disease. The circumstances of the very sad case will be found in the report of the inquest. The deceased, who was a young man of the most amiable and genial manner, was highly esteemed by a wide circle of friends who were deeply shocked by the tragic news, which became known in the city yesterday morning. The utmost sympathy is expressed with the deceased's mother and relatives in their poignant sorrow.

THE INQUEST.

Yesterday an inquest was held on the body by Mr Coroner DeCoursey at the Railway Hotel, a jury of which Mr. Wm. Bateman was foreman, being sworn.

Daniel Callaghan, the first witness examined, deposed that when passing Bell View, on the North Circular Road, at about 10 o'clock, the previous night, he saw two men and two girls on the path and on being asked by witness what was the matter, he was told by the other man that his friend got a weakness. Witness then passed on and the two girls immediately left the place, and were shortly afterwards followed by the other man. Deceased was then left alone. Witness did not know any of the people. He communicated with the police.

Jerh. O'Farrell deposed that he saw deceased at 10.15 on Thursday night, lying on the path, with his back to the wall, at Belleview, and recognised him. There was no one by at the time. Having heard of the incident from O'Callaghan, he reported the matter to the police, who accompanied him to the place where deceased lay.

Michael Hogan deposed he saw deceased lying on the path, as described; another man was rubbing his hands. Witness heard this man say, "Dan is dead. What am I to do?" The man shortly after passed up Rose's lane. He did not know who this man was.

Dr. Graham said he saw deceased that night about 10 minutes to 11 o'clock. He was lying on his back on the footpath. He was then dead. Witness examined the body that day. There were no marks of violence. The appearance of the body showed that death was due to heart disease. His sister stated that deceased had been complaining of a pain in his side, and over the region of the heart for a long time.

Sergeant Murphy deposed to having been informed of deceased's death by Mr. O'Farrell, and on proceeding to where deceased was saw him lying on the path as described by the witnesses. He (witness) put his ear to the deceased's heart, and found it beating very feebly. Seeing he was in a dying state, witness cycled at once to Dr. Graham's, and when they reached back at 10 to 11 o'clock the Doctor examined the body, and found life extinct, witness could find no trace of the parties who had been with deceased. A young man drove out to the scene of death for the purpose of bringing in the body, but he immediately went away again. The driver did not know this young man, and he could not since be found. He was presumably the man who had been with deceased at the time he got weak.

This concluded the evidence. The Coroner said there was no evidence to show how deceased came by his death, except that of the doctor. It was very strange that the parties who were with deceased should have gone away without rendering some assistance.

A verdict in accordance with the medical evidence was returned.

Before separating, Mr. Bateman, foreman, desired to propose a vote of sincere regret with the mother and relatives of the deceased who was well and popularly known.

The vote was seconded unanimously. The Coroner said he desired to join in the vote of condolence.

Mr. Bateman also said that great credit was due to Sergeant Murphy for the prompt manner in which he had the doctor brought to the scene. He must also say that it was very inhuman of those who were with him to have left deceased as they had done.

The funeral took place this afternoon, the cortege being of exceedingly large proportions, giving evidence of the general sympathy which the sad event has created amongst all classes of the citizens. The clergy present were—Rev. Father Cregan, Adm., St. Michael's; Rev. Dr. O'Riordan, C.C., do; Rev. Father Duhig, O.P. There was a long line of carriages, and many beautiful wreaths were sent by sympathising friends.

ANOTHER SUDDEN DEATH.

John Carroll, aged 33, living in No. 3 Clare-street, died very suddenly yesterday evening. The deceased was in the employment as vanman of the Croom Mills Bakery Company, and went on his usual rounds yesterday morning. Near Patrickswell, on his return journey he fell off his van in a fit. Some persons who happened to be near the place removed him to the roadside, and a

MINDEN DAY.

KING'S OWN YORKSHIRE SPORTS.

President of Committee and Referee—Lt. Col. Sir H. Johnston, Bart. Committee and Judges—Capt. H. Trevor, Capt. C. E. Wintte, Lieutenant F. Agg, Qr-Master Sergeant Siddal, Col. Sergeant Naylor, Col-Sergeant Bond, Col-Sergeant Cocker, Colour-Sergeant G. Smith, Captain R. E. Boulton, Capt. R. W. Stantou, Lieutenant F. Postletwaite, Col-Sergeant Barfoot, Col-Sergeant Flanagan, Col-Sergeant D. Smith, Col-Sergeant Tingle, Pr-Sergeant J. Byrne, Sergeant A. Cudworth. Starter—Sergt-Major S. Pennington.

Yesterday, the King's Own Yorkshire Light Infantry celebrated the anniversary of the battle of Minden, which will always be associated with the name of this gallant regiment, by the holding of sports at Cappantimore Camp, the owner of which is Mr. J. O'Grady Delmege, D.L. The day was fine and the event was a great success. Besides a large attendance of the élite of the county and city, there was also a great turn out of the fair friends of the regiment. The services of the city jarveys were much sought after, and the occasion brought considerable grist to their mill. The programme was very attractive, and included some singularly novel events, which were witnessed with interest and enjoyment. The first was a two mile steeplechase across country open to scouts, and the placed competitors, after an exciting and close finish, were—Lance-Corporal Heywood, 1st; Private Tyson, 2nd; Private Judge, 3rd. In the three legged race Buglers Thompson and Lee, 1st; Privates Seagar and Ives, 2nd; Privates Callaghan and Clarke, 3rd. Tilting the bucket, an indescribably funny performance, was annexed by Privates Drabble and Fox, with Privates Wigson and Thompson second, and Privates Miller and Land third. The Sack Race was won in clever fashion by Lance Corporal Cosker, with Private Foster second, and Private Seagar third. The Bun Race caused the greatest amusement, the conditions being to run 50 yards and eat a bun completely, run 50 yards and drink a cup of tea, run 50 yards and light a pipe, and finally arriving at the winning post, 50 yards further, with pipe alight. Victory rested with Private Hough, first; Private Clef, second; and Bugler Morrison, third. The wheelbarrow race was won by Privates Cliff and Callaghan, Privates Harrison and Chambers being second, and Privates Fox and Foster, third. The boot race was another funny proceeding. Competitors boots to be put in a sack 40 yards from starting point, each man to find his own boots and put them on, and return to starting point with his boots properly laced. Winner, Pte. Foster; second, Pte. Power, third, Private Bell. The flour and soot tournament was as exciting as it was laughable. The combatants armed with mops, saturated with flour or soot, slugged each other with great determination, and at the conclusion of the battle presented a striking appearance to say the least of it. The winners were Privates Pepperday and Robinson, with Bugler Morrison and Callaghan second best. The potato race was won by Private Vance, Private-Cutts, second, and Private Holden, third. The band of the regiment discoursed a charming programme.

ALLEGED PURSUIT OF GAME.

At Ennis Petty Sessions yesterday, John Spring and Joseph Considine, were summoned for using an engine or engines for the purpose of catching game on the lands of Mrs. Stacpoole, at Cahercalla, near Ennis. Mr. Willis, gamekeeper, swore he saw a rabbit enter a wall on the lands, and the defendants went after him. There was no proof that the defendants used nets or any other engines, and this charge was dismissed, but on a charge of knocking a wall they were fined 10s. 6d. each and costs.

BOYS PLUCKY RESCUE.

Yesterday, a woman named Twyford, residing in Francis-street, attended at the Town Hall, and informed the Town Clerk that her son Thomas, aged eleven, had rescued from drowning a little girl named Catherine O'Connor, who had accidentally fallen into the water. She said the tide was ebbing at the time, but that the boy without divesting himself of his clothing had jumped in and effected the rescue, which she stated was witnessed by several people. The act, if performed as described, deserves special recognition.
