

6, and from 7 to 10, and the admission is 6d, with half price for the children.
Countess Dunraven has kindly consented to open the St. Munchin's Sale of Work. Several ladies and gentlemen have also consented to sing. The programme will appear in our next issue.

KERRY FARMER'S TRAGIC DEATH.

A respectable farmer named John O'Connor came by his death under tragic circumstances on Sunday evening, at Knockeen, near Castle-Island. Deceased was engaged in putting in his cows for the night when one of them in endeavouring to dash out of the house, horned the unfortunate man in the abdomen, goring him so horribly that he expired in a few minutes. Dr. Rice, who arrived about twenty minutes after the occurrence, found life extinct. Deceased, who was about 56 years of age, leaves a widow and a large family to mourn his tragic end.

ROW AFTER CARDS.

MAN STABBED.

A man named John Lynch, from Cappamore has made a complaint to the police of having been assaulted last night under the following circumstances. It appears that he had been playing cards with some others in a publichouse in the city, and when he came outside an altercation arose between the party, during which he alleges he was stabbed twice—underneath the chin and on the side of the head, and that he was also assaulted by another man. The wounds, which are not serious, were treated at Barrington's Hospital, where it was not found necessary to detain Lynch. Head-Constable Moore is instituting inquiries into the case, and it is probable arrests will follow.

WILLIAM O'BRIEN AND THE GOVERNMENT.

In the House of Commons last night,

Mr. Wyndham, questioned by Mr. Tully as to what steps had been taken to consult the Irish leaders as to the measures for the settlement of the Irish land question, said he had no intention of anticipating what form of legislation would take place next session beyond what he indicated in previous announcements.

Mr. Tully—Has any authority been given by the right hon. gentleman, or any of his colleagues, for Mr. O'Brien to say that he had had a "deal with the Government?"

Mr. Wyndham referred the hon. member to his speech of October 28th. He had added nothing to that either to Mr. O'Brien or anybody else.

ABANDONMENT OF A CHILD.

At Marylebone, London, to-day, Eleanor Susannah Gale, 36, described as a nurse, was remanded charged with abandoning an infant, aged one day. The mother who was single and a ward in chancery, said she arranged with the prisoner to receive her child, the woman being given £20 on the same day as the prisoner took the infant away. It was found abandoned on a railway station.

LIMERICK CREAMERY MARKET. TO-DAY'S PRICES.

Choicest centrifugal creamery, strong demand. 107s to 110s; secondary sold well at 98s to 104s. Stale or badly flavoured hard to move.

(who have been requisitioned to meet by the Mayor) will be held at the Town Hall to-morrow evening for the purpose of making arrangements for the collection of the city in behalf of the Fuel Fund.

At the Ennis markets on Saturday last hay went from 57s 6d to 62s 6d per ton; reed from 45s to 50s 6d per ton; straw from 34s to 37s 6d per ton; oats from 8d to 9d per stone; black oats 8d to 8½d per stone; there was no wheat in the market; turnips sold at from 12s 6d to 15s per ton; potatoes from 3½d to 4d per stone; there were two hundred firkins of butter in market, the average price being from 52s to 54s.

There is a likelihood of quite a "glut" of grain vessels in the Limerick Docks shortly. A four masted sailing vessel the "Lilgate," one of the largest which has ever come to Limerick, has arrived at Queenstown from San Francisco. She has a cargo of close four thousand tons of grain for Messrs Bannatyne and Sons. Two other four-masters are expected as well as a large steamer with cargoes for the same firm.

The Rev. Precentor Meredyth has received a very gracious and genial expression of thanks from Her Excellency the Countess of Dudley for the presentation of his "Historic and Descriptive Guide" through St. Mary's Cathedral, Limerick, as a souvenir of her visit to that ancient temple. She was pleased to call it "a delightful little book, which she will value very much." It was a richly bound and illustrated copy of the third and latest edition, now exhausted and out of print.

On Sunday last a demonstration in connection with the "Manchester Martyrs" anniversary was held in Limerick. The procession, comprising trade and labour societies and representatives of the Young Ireland Society and United Irish League, accompanied by four bands, proceeded from Bank-place to the New Cemetery. A meeting, presided over by Mr. William Whelan, was held adjacent to the Memorial Cross, and the oration was delivered by Mr. P. J. Devlin, of Dublin.

The tragic death of Mr. Andrew Moloney, victualler and pig merchant, of Ennis, created a painful sensation there on Friday morning, when it was reported that his dead body was seen in Ennistymon River. Sergeant M'Mellon and Constable Wood took the body out of the water. Coroner Cullinan, Ennis, held an inquest in the evening. The evidence showed that Mr. Moloney went to Ennistymon Fair from Ennis on the 18th inst. and that he did not return home. There were no external marks on the body. The jury returned a verdict of accidental drowning.

FUNERAL OF MR. JOHN HOGAN

On Sunday the remains of Mr. John Hogan, third son of Mr. Cornelius Hogan, Mountpleasant Avenue, were interred at Mount St. Laurence Cemetery. Deceased, who had been ailing for some months, passed away on Friday night. Mr. Hogan was an ardent and much respected member of the Richmond Football Club, in which he played three-quarter up to last season, the members of which sent a beautiful wreath, as did also the Thomond Football Club. Indeed it may be said that all the football clubs of the city were represented. The chief mourners were—Cornelius Hogan, father; Cornelius, Denis, and Patrick Hogan, brothers; Michael Keane, senr., uncle; Michael Kean, junr., John Keane, Patk. Keane, Peter O'Brien, Patrick Crowe, cousins; Cornelius McNamara, Joseph McNamara, J. Madden, Thomas O'Grady (Blackwater), Rody Moloney (Bridge-street). Rev. Fathers Lee and O'Connor, St. Michael's, officiated at the grave.

O'CONNOR, CARVER & GILDER, CATHELINE-ST

Peter Bourke, Newmarket-on-Fergus presided and there were also present Shanahan, P.P.; Sir Charles Barr Alderman J. O'Brien, Dr. W. A. F. W. Shaw, J.P.; Mr. D. Tidmar Barrington, J.P., Dr. Holm McNiece.

Mr. R. R. Parsons, Registrar applications.

It was stated that Dr. Bourke's attendance, but the Mayor in answer McNiece, said that was not new to the terms of the advertisement.

Sir Charles Barrington proposed Mr. O'Brien seconded the non Waters.

Alderman McNiece said that speaking to Dr. Bourke's brother him to withdraw his application.

The Mayor said that being the case to declare Dr. Waters elected.

Dr. Waters returned thanks, and to give every satisfaction in the discharge of the office.

The Mayor—When is he to take

Dr. Holmes said that Dr. Waters that with the present House McGrath.

The proceedings terminated.

MALICIOUS BURNING

Early on Sunday morning a dwelling-house, at Newmarket belonging to John Fahy, was practically destroyed by fire, which had been started, maliciously, in several places.

ILLNESS OF AN ARCHBISHOP

The venerable Archbishop of Dublin is seriously ill. He is suffering from a disease which has for some time past been attended by a physician. Yesterday Surgeon-General Dublin, was telegraphed for. Telegram from Tuam states that he is entertained for the recovery of his health in his 86th year.

DEATH OF THE REV. JOHN BREWSTER

The Press Association's Aberdeen telegraphs that the death is reported of the Rev. John Brewster, Minister of Education for the Orange Free State. Deceased was a graduate of the University of London. His eldest son, Mr. John Brewster, Minister of Finance for the Orange Free State, and was one of the signatories of the Peace Convention.

The special correspondent of the Gazette writing from Dublin on Monday says—"It was whispered to me that Mr. Wyndham's coming to Limerick is likely to meet with the approval of the landlord and tenant, and that a measure of financial help, which has been demanded will be given by the Treasury."

Some kind of craft, in all probability, lies sunk in twelve feet of water about five miles to the east of the mouth of the river. It is believed to be a schooner, and must have foundered either through the force of the recent gale, or through collision with some other vessel.