

PROPOSED INTERNATIONAL FLOWER SHOW.

At a meeting of the Committee of the Corl International Exhibition held yesterday for the purpose of discussing arrangements with regard to the organising of a great International Flower, Fruit, and Vegetable Show in connection with the Exposition proposed to be held towards the end of August, it was unanimously decided to communicate with all the leading growers in the United Kingdom and on the Continent asking them to compete. Pending replies from these growers the date of the proposed show was not fixed but the Committee will meet on Saturday next and definitely decide on the date and the amount of prizes to be given in connection therewith. The Department of Agriculture have kindly consented to co-operate in the undertaking.

CITY PETTY SESSIONS. YESTERDAY.

Before Mr. E. F. Hickson, R. M., Dr. O'Shaughnessy, D. L., Mr. John Guinness, Mr. J. H. Roche, Mr. Poole Gabbett, Mr. Ambrose Hall.

LICENSE TRANSFER.

On the application of Mr. Ralph Nash, the license held by James Dineen for the premises in John street was transferred to Mr. Thomas Gough.

DISORDERLY WOMEN.

Bridget Neylon and Margaret Minahan, charged by Acting-Sergeant Doran with disorderly conduct, were fined 40s. each.

A THIN-SKINNED ASS.

An old man, named Patrick Cochrane, rag and bottle gatherer, and a resident in a Lane off Jel Street, was charged with cruelty to a donkey.

Constable Reynolds proved that the animal had four sores on its back.

Mr. Courtney Croker stated that the case was a scandalous one, the donkey being in a most terrible state.

Defendant—It is a thin-skinned ass, you worship (laughter), and I have it only a month and did not know that it was suffering.

The magistrates adjourned the case for a month.

THE ENNIS OUTRAGE.

Mr. Lynch was yesterday progressing favourably as could be expected. There had been an increase in his temperature the previous day, which caused some uneasiness, but he was very much improved yesterday. Dr. Scanlan was called in in consultation on Thursday and yesterday. Mr. Moriarty, Dublin, took some photographs of the wound-sites by the Röntgen R process. In all, seven grains of shot have been extracted, and it is estimated that there are 13 or 14 more about the head. It has now been found that there were two different sizes of shot, Nos. 5 and 8. Some of the larger grains were almost flattened against the skull surface.

DO YOU read the Chronicle? Why, certainly. Then give others credit for the same sense as yourself. They read it too. Will you want your advertisement read by the people, where should you place it? Verb sapienter bid.

Avoid Foreign Matches and use only Patent Irish matches. None better made.

St. Ino—There are two, Curacao, a Dutch island in the West Indies, and Curacao, a liqueur made from brandy and oranges.

A B.—The curlew is a wading bird. It is of the snipe family, and its old name was whaup.

SOLDIER—Carragh Camp contains over 5,000 acres.

ENGINEER (J.S.)—The statute of limitations varies. For debt, trespass, or simple contract, six years; assault, menace, or false imprisonment, four years; slander or libel, two years.

S.S.—The difference between a Company and a Limited Company lies in the fact that in the latter the liability of each shareholder is limited to the amount of the shares he has.

A.J.—“In the megrims” is only an old-fashioned way of saying “Has a headache.”

SOPHIE'S TROUBLES—“Sophie,” who gives no other name or address, asks the following question: “Sophie” wishes to know why all her garden vegetables get all without exception into stalks, salad and cauliflowers all into big stalks? Perhaps some of our readers could help the lady.

THE LATE MR. WILLIAM MASSY.

The remains of the late Mr. William Massy, whose premature demise after an attack of paralysis at the age of 57 years, occurred on Monday morning at his late residence, Ballygarry, were on Tuesday evening, 15th instant, borne from the Roman Catholic parish church, where they had lain since early morning for interment in the cemetery close by. The announcement of his death has been received all over the district with regret and sympathy for the widow and family. The deceased, who was the only son of the late Frederick Massy, Esq., Ballygarry, grandson of the late John Neville, Esq., C.E., M.R.I.A., and nephew of the late John Neville, C.E., M.R.I.A., County Surveyor, Louth was largely respected, and very popular, as the representative character of the funeral fully testified. For many years the late Mr. Massy held the responsible position of Town Estate rent collector to Mr. Thomas R. D. Atkinson, D.L., Glenwilliam Castle. The chief mourners present, besides a large number of relatives-in-law, were—Mrs. Massy (wife), Mary Anne and Ellie Massy (daughters), and Willie Massy (son), for whom the kindest sympathy is felt in their sad bereavement.

Repatriation process is proceeding rapidly. The refugee camp at Bloemfontein is emptying at the rate of 100 per day. The Government is assisting the burghers with stock, tents, and seed. All got thirty days' rations on leaving the camps.

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT AND PILLS. Diseases of the skin. No case of disease of the skin, be its nature what it may, has failed to be benefited when these potent remedies have been properly applied. In scrofulous and scorbutic affections they are especially serviceable. Scurvy and eruptions, which had resisted all other modes of treatment, and gradually become worse, have been completely cured by Holloway's cooling Ointment and purifying Pills, which rooted out the disease from the blood itself, and leave the constitution free from every morbid taint. In the nursery Holloway's Ointment should be ever at hand; it will give ease in sprains, contusions, burns, scalds, and infantile eruptions, and may always safely be applied by any ordinary attendant.

HARRIS'S MACHINE-MADE BREAD

It was concerned. The cause celebre was a breach of promise case—rather a ble one in its way, having regard to long period of years over which the “making” extended. The case came on unexpectedly on Saturday afternoon, in presence of a small attendance of the public. Monday morning the news had got out and as might have been expected, the was well filled. One thing which has struck me is the callousness which the display in a case of the kind. They care very little for the feelings of the me; and where there are poetic and love-letters, and witty sallies by counsel (re Thynne case), the average spectator is not satisfied, so long as he finds sufficient amusement. There evidently was of that in the Clare breach of promise proceeding by the “laughter” with which the of the proceedings were punctuated.

—:o:—

rebuilding of that portion of Messrs. biscuit factory which was burnt down in month of February, is in progress. Geary's is a very large factory, and extensive employment to local hands.

—:o:—

Don't vouch for this story of how a gent man got rid of three tormentors, who him to engage in a scheme he had no for. I merely tell the tale as it was told.

They came repeatedly, but with no The other day he saw them coming and immediately burst into a fit of er, in which condition they found him. as to the cause of his merriment he said been thinking of the story of a boy who, Sunday School tried but never could once the three words, Shadrach, Meshach, ego. The teacher helped him twice, but he encountered the formidable words. So can to cry. “Don't cry, Paddy,” said the r. “I c-can't help it” sobbed Johnnie, here comes those three confounded fools” “And when I saw you coming again,” he gentleman genially, “I couldn't”— he trio had fled, and haven't advocated pet scheme since—at all events to him.

—:o:—

Good story is told of an Irishman, more stic than clever, who enlisted in one of the cavalry regiments. The fencing instructor had experienced rather a difficult job in matter of explaining to him the various of using the sword. “Now,” he said, “would you use the sword if your rent feinted?” “Bedad,” said Pat, with ring eyes, “I'd just tickle him with the to see if he was shamming.”

—:o:—

at reminds me—of astory of the gentleman went in to a second rate barber and was l by the knight of the razor, “Razor go sir?” “Well,” was the reply, “if you call it ing, it goes—hard; but if it's skinning alive emarkably easy.”

—:o:—

at another.—A worthy wag entered another plishment. “Is that,” said he, “the razor shaved me with on—?” “Certainly, sir,” he reply. “Then, for goodness sake ge it, or give me chloroform.” It is per-hardly necessary to say these were not erick Figaros.

STROLLER.

ALLAGHAN, TAILOR, THOMAS STREET