

The accidents sustained by O'Halloran and Duggan, Garryowen football team, in the match with Queen's College on Tuesday were of a rather serious nature. Both are being treated in private wards at Barrington's Hospital. O'Halloran who sustained a fracture of the leg, near the ankle, suffered much pain, but is now progressing favourably, and Duggan, whose knee-cap was badly injured, is also doing well. Since their admission the patients have been visited by numbers of their friends and colleagues.

ATTACKED BY A SAVAGE BULL.

While a servant man named John Brien, employed on the farm of Mr. Rody Spain, near Nenagh, was driving the cattle home, a young bull turned on him, chased him towards the house and caught his arm at the wrist with his horns, gored it, and caused other frightful wounds, reducing the flesh of his hand and wrist into a pulp. The unfortunate man tried to escape by getting over the ditch on to the road, but the infuriated beast made for him again, and before Brien could get to the ditch he was tumbled on the bank, and was nearly being gored to death; only that he rolled, and thus escaped getting the horns in the chest. But he didn't escape getting a severe crushing, which rendered him unconscious. By this time several men arrived, and with farm implements, drove off the bull. Only in time to save Brien's life, who, however, lies in the workhouse infirmary in a precarious condition.

SHOCKING RAILWAY ACCIDENT.

A very sad accident occurred on the railway last evening about half-past five o'clock. It appears that a man named Patrick Cowhey, labourer, aged about 50, while crossing the line near the Carey's Road goods store was knocked down by an engine which was shunting some waggons. The poor man's right arm was wrenched off from the shoulder, and his head was desperately injured. He was conveyed to the Terminus on a stretcher, where he was attended by Dr. Laird, G.S.W.R. medical attendant, and then taken to Barrington's Hospital. The man lies in a very precarious condition, but his condition to-day is as favourable as could be expected.

DOUBT AS TO AN OWNER'S IDENTITY.

In the Land Judge's Court (before Mr. Justice Ross), in the matter of the estate of Richard Dowling,

Mr. Moore, solicitor, said there was a difficulty in ascertaining whether the owner was alive or not. The estate partly consisted of houses in Johnston street, Clonmel. They had made inquiries as to the owner, who had been connected with the Press in London, and they had ascertained that a Richard Dowling had died there, but they had not up to the present been able to identify him as the owner. They had no evidence that could satisfy the court on the subject.

Mr. Justice Ross directed that further inquiries should be made.

HARRIS'S MACHINE-MADE BREAD

ZENANA MISSION.—A Sale of Work in aid of the Zenana Mission Work is announced to be held in the Lecture Hall of the Presbyterian Church, Mallow street, on Saturday week, April 5th. This spacious Hall is very suitable for the effective display of the many things which the workers will bring together on behalf of the cause for which the sale will be held. The doors will be open from two to six in the afternoon, and at 7 in the evening.

FORTHCOMING MARRIAGES.—The marriage of Major-General Sir C. Tucker, K.C.B., to Nellie, daughter of the late Sir Maurice O'Connell, Bart., will take place at Killarney in April. A marriage is arranged between Captain Albert E. Steward, son of Sir John Marcus Stewart, Bart., now on special service with the Aro Expedition, and Rita, second daughter of the late Judge Christian. The marriage of Mr. Alley, Athboy, and May, daughter of the late Mr. G. Stokes, Ballinlough Castle, County Westmeath, takes place in June.

THE PEEP O' DAY BOY.

Readers of Robert Buchanan's thrilling tale of '98, under this title, will be glad to know that it is now published, in an unabridged form in an attractive paper cover for sixpence. The publisher is Mr. John Dicks, of the Strand, London. There is no need to recommend the novel itself to Irishmen. Buchanan is at his best in dealing with Irish subjects, and the "Peep o' Day Boy" is by no means one of his worst efforts. It is a book to be read and re-read, and we are sure the popular form in which it now appears will be acceptable. It is nicely printed in good readable type and on excellent paper, really a marvel of cheapness and excellence.

CLAIM AGAINST THE CORPORATION.

At the Corporation Committees last night, the Town Clerk announced that a writ had been served by Mr. P. S. Connolly and Co., Solicitors, against the Corporation at the suit of William M'Inerney, formerly an assistant at Messrs M'Birney and Co., and now resident at Bunratty. The damages claimed is £500, and the cause of action is "that the defendants erected a large heap of mud in Lower Cecil Street, and allowed same to remain there until it hardened, thereby causing a nuisance on the highway, whereby the plaintiff when crossing the street was knocked down and severely injured." The accident occurred on the 19th October last.

DEATH OF MRS. POWER, RATHCANNON.

We regret to announce the death of Mrs. Power, of Rathcannon, which took place on last Tuesday afternoon. The death of this most estimable and charitable lady, almost in the prime of life, has caused profound regret amongst her friends and neighbours of every class, and there is a widespread expression of deep sympathy with her afflicted family in the irreparable loss which they have sustained.

GENTLEMEN'S RAINPROOF COATS.—C. Corneille, Thomas street, is now showing all the latest styles at very moderate prices.—ADVT.

Purchase Acts. So long as land premium a landlord can afford to 21 years' purchase, the premium balance of the purchase money. shown by the fact that whereas were only 1,501 purchase ag under the ordinary provisions of when land stock was at a large number rose to 6,382. With this in the price of stock came a corresponding number of purchase agreements year ending March 31, 1901, a reduction this year. In view of 1 year adds to the aggregate of purchase Act, and consequently to the interest it is almost an economic certainty is not likely to advance in price. quite futile for tenants to refuse able price now in the hope of getting later on. On the contrary, it is tagueous to them to offer now to pay landlords to accept, and thus begin to obtain actual ownership but also at the same time to obtain reduction in the annual payment any of the cost or complications incidental to the fixing of a fair rent they can only expect to find that time the minimum price which afford to accept will have risen. impossible for the owners to sell years' purchase and accept in stock bearing 2½ per cent. into clear net loss of one-half their in-

KILLALOE DIOCESAN

The usual quarterly meeting Council for Killaloe East was held at Hall, Nenagh. The Bishop and Dean were also present.—The Dean Dunalley, Chancellor O'Sullivan J.P.; Hon. Cosby Trench, Anthony Tuthill, Canons Gillespie, Homa Samuels; J. C. Darby, Major R. Myles, J. T. Stoney. The following was passed unanimously—The express the great concern and which they learned of the serious Archdeacon of Killaloe and M sincere pleasure with which they both are now convalescent." by the Bishop that the Rev. J. resign Bou rney from the 7th April

MUNSTER HORSE

The Munster Horse Fair for 1901 held to-day, was one of the smallest new fair was established. We who usually come to Limerick fair, and make the bulk of their conspicuous by their absence, a horses in William street to-day small, and much below the average. In the circumstances the number sales was so small as not to be The cattle fair will be held to-day

WHITE SCOUR in Calves held in the land for many years, and strongly urged to take measurement at this particular season necessary for carrying out the treatment, with a printed leaflet be had from J. Laird & Co., Che street, Limerick.