Councillors Sir Thomas Cleave, J.P. (Customhouse), David Begley (Market), and John Clune, J.P. (Market) will not seek re-election. It is also understood that Councillor Jeremiah O'Brien (Ghentworth) will retire. It is likely that most of the other members of the Council will go forward, so that with the large number of new candidates already mentioned, the list will be a very full one.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE LIMERICK CHRONICLE.

DEAR SIR—The meeting called for Sunday in Dr. Coll's yard, will now be held in Kelly's yard, a little higher up in Thomas street. Dr. Coll was not consulted, and declines to give his yard for the purpose—Yours truly,

STEPHEN O'MARA.

THE LATE MR. DAVID B. REIDY.

The funeral of the late Mr. David B. Reidy, who died so unexpectedly on Wednesday night, took place yesterday, and notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather, was of large dimensions and a most representative character. The funeral started from the Cathedral where the remains had been brought overnight. The officiating clergyman was Rev Dr. Devanny. Mr Reidy, brother, and Mr Linehan, cousin, were the chief mourners.

Among those present were—Messrs J. F. Cullinan, S.C.S.; J. Cullinan, C.S.; F. G. Kerin, solr.; J. McDonnell, Dr. T. A. Greene, Dr. H. Greene, Dr. Mangan, Dr. O'Mara, Clare Asylum; E. Crowe, solr.; F. The revenue of Western Australia for the last month amounted to £320,739, being an increase of £51,391 compared with December, 1900. Commonwealth collected £124,393 of the total, and State £196,346.

A destructive fire broke out on Thursday in the Shrigley Spinning Mills, near Killyleigh, Co. Down, belonging to Mr. John Martin, and property valued at over three thousand pounds was destroyed.

Yesterday Mr. E. Wales, proprietor of the Railway Hotel, Hunstanton, was dangerously wounded in the head by a pistol shot fired by an employe, who afterwards placed the weapon to his head and shot himself dead.

A burglar who was disappointed with the amount of money which he found in a publichouse at Johnstone, near Paisley, intimated his resentment by turning on the tap of a whiskey cask and running off £5 worth of spirit.

The Socialist organ, the "Vorwaerts," states that Captain Freilitz, the officer who was dismissed from the Bavarian Army for repeated acts of brutality during the recent Chinese campaign, has entered the Prussian Army with the rank of Captain.

The Hardings of Berry street, Bootle, who gave information to the police which resulted in Goudie's arrest, have received their reward. The Bank of Liverpool has placed to their credit £250, the account being opened in the joint names of husband and wife.

"LADY'S PICTORIAL."

The frontispiece in to-day's Pictorial consists of a very seasonable sketch entitled "New Year Greetings." We have no skating at the present moment, nor does there seem much immediate prospect of it, but the "At Home—in the Park" may inspire us with some hope that a little of this fine, exhilarating pastime may be vouchsafed us before many weeks have passed. A portrait is given of Miss Sybil Napier, only daughter of Colonel and Mrs. Napier, who will be one of the Coronation year debutantes. An illustrated serial entitled "A Modern Masquer," by John Oxenham, is begun. The Fashion plates comprise many charming lace gowns and several matinee costumes. "Love's Messenger," is the title of a very pretty supplement which accompanies this number.
