BALSARROCK AND CHEERS SCRATCHED

We are officially informed that Balsarroch and Cheers were withdrawn from the Cesarewitch
 Stakes at nine o'clock yesterday morning.

The Press Association says:—The Solicitor, Robert Lediabie, Shaun Dhuv, and Lord James,
 are the latest eliminations from the Cesarewitch.
 The former two were officially withdrawn at 1.25 p.m., October 13, and Major Edward's pair at nine o'clock this morning.

Lady Linton is another who has been struck out of the Newmarket race.

BALLANTREE.

With reference to the report that Ballantree,
 the favourite for the Cambridgeshire, was reported coughing, the Press Association's Newmarket correspondent telegraphs this afternoon that the filly, in company with Spectrum and Game Chick, galloped five furlongs at three, Park speed, this morning, and that nothing whatever was wrong with her.

Sidus, who was officially eliminated from all engagements at eight o'clock yesterday morning,
 retires from the Cambridgeshire, for which race Cossack is Blackwell's sole representative.
