Great sympathy is felt for Mr. Stephen Parcell, overseer of the Gas Department (brother) and with Mr. Cornelius Crowe (husband) at the death of Mrs. Teresa Crowe, which took place on Tuesday at her residence in Edward street. The deceased lady was only 27, and her sad death was wholly unexpected. Deceased was the youngest daughter of the late Mr. Thomas Purcell, overseer of the Gas Department, and she leaves a young family to mourn her loss. The representative funeral this aft rnoon, fully testified to the esteem in which the deceased and her family are held.

At Sixmile-Bridge Petty Sessions yesterday, Michael McMahon, labourer, was sent to the Assizes for trial on a charge of stabbing a policeman. On the 8th inst. Sergeant William Hood had him in custody for drunkenness, and it is alleged, he tried to get away by stabbing the Sergeant in the arm.
