

... C. Cleave, F. G. M. Kennedy, B. C. Nash, J. G. Wilkinson, R. Jackson Harris, and J. W. C. Barry. General discussion on the Church following votes of thanks were unanimous, viz:—"That the general Easter Michael's Parish desire to express and gratitude to the donor of the ar-cloth lately presented to the hat the general Easter Vestry desire sir appreciation of the efforts of the action with the worship of the con-RY'S AND S. PATRICK'S. UNITED PARISHES).

Easter Vestry for the above union Thursday in the Chapter Room. The Dean presided. The following were made:— Mens—St. Mary's Parish, Samuel E. T. Day. St. Patrick's Parish, Adam H. Fitt.
 W. Shaw, J.P.; Sir Thomas P.; Richard J. Lee, Robert Evans, Hugh A. Earls, Thomas Rice, S. C. I.; James Hewson, William H. D. Bell, James Welply.
 A resolution was passed unanimously that the best thanks of the Select be ordered to Mr. Muspratt for his exertions in bringing the Special during Passion Week, and the is, to so successful an issue, and the ar desire to express their hearty members of the choir and the ladies n who so kindly assisted."

URCH AND THE PARISH OF ST. LAWRENCE.

g of the General Vestrymen, held 1902, the following appointments—Churchwardens, Mr. W. M. and Mr. John Scallan. Select Messrs C. O'Donoghue, E. L. Hunt, Hassett, J. Bromell, Bell, Cleland, pin, Finch, Dr. G. Myles, and Mr. xmen—Mr. P. R. Toppin, and Mr. w.

IANA MISSION.

rk in behalf of the Zenana Mission, rian Church, was opened this after- spacious lecture hall of the hurch, Lower Hartstonge Street. very artistically arranged round nclude a beautiful variety of useful articles in needlework, etc., while all is a charming collection of nts and handsome ferns and ore cheerful building for the hold- Work could be found, and lit up afternoon by the sunlight which gh the Cathedral glass windows, very pretty. There was a large ing the afternoon, and the ladies various stalls did a brisk business. continued this evening. d Fancy Work Stall is presided l Miss Goodwin. -Miss Murray and Miss Ewart. -Mrs. Semple and Mrs. Kim- ets Stall—Mrs. Andrew Murray. ss Harrison.

GOLF.

natch was played on Thursday imerick and Newport clubs on rmer at Newcastle. The result erick by 18 holes. Details:—

for keeping a betting shop on Wellington quay, and his clerk, James Troy, £10. For a similar offence Thomas Faulkner, of 29 Great Brunswick street, was also fined £50.

It is stated that at a German china factory large orders have been received for Coronation mugs with portraits of the King and Queen. The mugs are not to be stamped "Made in Germany." Another report says that the orders are only for plates for the mugs.

The Queen's dog Lockey, won two challenge cups and the Coronation Shield at the Norwich Kennel Show. The King's spaniel, Sandringham Rambler, secured a silver cup. One of the Prince of Wales's retrievers was highly commended, his Majesty's retriever gaining the first prize.

Mr. Arthur Doubell, of Edenbridge, was thrown from his horse while out with the Surrey Staghounds on Thursday and sustained concussion of the brain and had three ribs broken, two of which penetrated the lungs, causing hæmorrhage. Mr. Doubell's condition is critical.

The magistrates of Glasgow have made proclamation that public house licences will not be granted at the annual Licensing Sessions to be held next week, to persons who employ barmaids, except those where the proprietors are women. The new rule affects all public-houses, bars, stations, and theatres.

FUNERAL OF MRS. MASSY HEWSON.

The remains of the late Mrs. Massy Hewson who passed away on Tuesday last in the 68th year of her age, were removed on Thursday morning from her late residence Briska-beg, Clarina, for interment at the family burial ground at Killeedy. Mrs. Hewson was beloved by all classes for her unostentatious charity and simple piety which characterised her through life. Deep sympathy is expressed with her respected husband—the oldest surviving member of an old Limerick family—in his keen sorrow. The funeral was very large and representative. The chief mourners were—Mr. Massy Hewson, husband; Messrs Edward, James, Thomas, and Septimus Hewson, and William Kirkpatrick (nephews); Massy, George, Lindsay, Victor, Aubrey, and Richard Hewson (grand-nephews); Mrs. Massy Hewson, Mrs. Nelson, Miss Tracey, and Miss Mercer.

Amongst the general public were:—Rev. T. F. Abbott, Rector of Killeedy; Lord Clarina, Mr. John Corneille, Bushmount; Mr. Michael Costelloe, steward, Elmpark; Mr. Michael Doolin, Briskabeg; Mr. John Costelloe, Ferrybridge; Mr. George Walsh, Clarina; Mr. Richard Walsh, Clarina; Mr. George Smith, Briskamore; Mr. George Smith, Rahina; Mrs. Smith and Miss Smith, Sergeant Wilson and Constable Langvill, Clarina; Mr. Michael Kenny, Clarina; Mr. John Doolin, Briskabeg; Masters John and Willie Smith, Briska; Mr. W. Goggin, Meelick; Lord Clarina's workmen, Mr. Patrick Moore, Mr. J. O'Sullivan.

Amongst those present from the city were—Messrs. T. A. Ferguson, C. Hill, R. Ellis, E. Holliday, S. E. Lee, R. Hanna, W. Nelson, J. Wilkinson, R. Parker; O'Donnell, McArthur, Harnett, and Gleeson (Todd & Co.) H. Thompson, J. Reid, W. Christy, junr., H. L. Stewart. Carriages were sent by—Lord Clarina, Mr. John Corneille, Mr. John Costelloe, Ferry Bridge; Mr. George Smith, Briskamore; Mr. J. C. Cooper, Cooperhill, and several other gentlemen. The Rev. T. F. Abbott officiated.

CORK AGRICULTURAL SHOW

The attendance on the second day of the Cork Agricultural Show was, to say the least, limited. A Flower Show going on in Cork seemed to attract the upper ten. Notwithstanding, the show of smarrh thorn bred since was a very marked one.

LORD KIMBERLEY.

Lord Kimberley's condition remains unchanged.

EUSTON HALL ON FIRE.

The Press Association telegraphs—Euston Hall, Thetford, Suffolk, seat of the Duke of Grafton, is on fire. The East and South wings have been gutted. At eleven thirty this morning the fire was still raging.

[LATER.]

A later telegram says the main building and south wing were completely gutted, and the walls are mostly fallen in. Most of the pictures, and portion of the furniture have been saved, but the library is totally destroyed.

THE GOUDIE FRAUDS.

At Liverpool to-day John Aithen and John Roberts were charged on remand with being accessories after the fact to the Goudie frauds on the Liverpool Banks. Prosecuting Counsel withdrew the charge, and the case was withdrawn. The defending solicitor said the men were innocent.

WIFE MURDER.

A Cotton Operative hand named Thomas Marsland was, at Oldham, to-day remanded charged with murdering his wife last night. Accused, it was stated, confessed the crime to a constable, and the woman was found with her head injured and throat cut. The couple had been married about four months.

THE COLLIERY EXPLOSION.

Robert Davies, of Aston, one of the men rescued from the Garwood Colliery, Wigan, after the explosion on Thursday, died to-day.

IMPERIAL YEOMANRY.

Four of the Imperial Yeomany Battalions, enlisted for South Africa, have been ordered to Salisbury Plain from Aldershot for further training. Much disappointment has been caused, as the men are very keen on going to the front.

MR. RHODES' WILL.

The will of Mr. Cecil Rhodes was published yesterday. The testator gives direction for his burial in the Matoppo, and makes provision for establishing a Matoppo and Buluwayo fund, which is to bear the cost of laying out a public park for public use, for works of irrigation, and for the maintenance of an Agricultural College. Mr. Rhodes gives £100,000 to Oriel, his old Oxford College. Considering the education of young Colonists at one of the Universities of the United Kingdom as of great advantage, Mr. Rhodes founds sixty scholarships for male students of the yearly value of £300, tenable at any college in the University of Oxford for three consecutive academic years, and appropriates two American scholarships to each of the present States and Territories of the United States of America. By a codicil executed in South Africa, Mr. Rhodes, after stating that the German Emperor had made instruction in English compulsory in German schools, establishes fifteen scholarships at Oxford for students of German birth to be nominated by the Emperor, "for," says the testator, "a good understanding between England, Germany, and the United States will secure the peace of the world, and educational re-

V
C
S

A
O
P
W
M
H
P

L
S
h
a
p r e
c

C
C

f o r

t h e
=

I
b
a
l
2
4
W. p
o
l
m e
I 7
k
s o k g o
c o
a t I
b u t
s
a l t
f r
o
m L
u
C
W
l
1
0
d F
y o
u
E
A 9
d
m
a
i s o
u P m
a r s t o
r T
m
a r t o n.
d
s o
l
d
S
A 2
c
c e
a
c l