

by her sister, Mrs. Marshall, a fine song with exquisite taste. Captain O'Donnel, R.E., also present, and the other items were

THE KELLY-KENNY ESTATE.

Conditions and agreements were entered into between the tenants on the estate of the late Kelly-Kenny, K.C.B., and the agent, Mr. H. M. Polminga, and the agent, Mr. H. M. Polminga, have been arranged whereby the tenants become owners at a price equal to the half years purchase of first term and the payment of all arrears due on the termination of a half years rent to the reduction means 8s. in the

BUILDER DEAD.

[BY TELEGRAPH.]
Middle, of Scotswood-on-Tyne, a racing sculler, died to-day.

SHOT TO DEATH.

[BY TELEGRAPH.]
Johnson, 44, shipwright, was shot to death for the murder of his son in a boat at Sunderland.

OPINIONS.

CORRESPONDENTS.—We cannot insert letters sent to us on condition. They should be sent previous days—Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays.

Our doors being open to all, we do not consider ourselves responsible for the expressions.

SWIVEL BRIDGE.

OF THE LIMERICK CHRONICLE.
Once more to call attention to the swivel bridge. It is again in the hands of the Corporation. It says that "galvanism sets in" so with that moribund yet it countrywards, the North still a torse, dragon lying in dispassionate, however, Corporations, said, "have not a body to be saved," but if you would take it in gall and plunge it into the sea possibly do something.—Yours, M.

Devon estates have demanded 20 per cent in their rent owing to the Earl of Devon has demanded 15 per cent.

Hour—Fl. 30.

GALTEE HOUNDS.

NOVEMBER.

Tuesday, 25th..... Ballinard
Friday, 27th..... Brackbawn Bridge
Hour—11 o'clock.

CASTLEMAHON ESTATE.

[BY TELEGRAPH.]

The tenants on the O'Grady and Massy Estates at Castlemahon and Fcenagh met the Agent, Mr. Arthur White, there to-day. After considerable discussion, the tenants offered to purchase at 25 per cent off first term judicial rents, and 25 off second terms. Mr. White promised to forward the terms to the respective landlords.

BIRTHS, MARRIAGES, AND DEATHS.

BIRTHS.

CAHILL.—At her residence, Burton street, Kilrush, on the 14th instant, the wife of Mr H. Cahill, of a son.

RUSSELL.—At Ballinacurra, on the 16th instant, the wife of Henry Russell, of a son.

MARRIAGES.

DUGGAN and SHERIDAN—November 15 at Drumcondra, by Rev. J. Byrne, P.P., Morgan J. Duggan, manager "Free Press," Wexford, to Kathleen Helen, daughter of Redmond Sheridan, Esq., South Mail, Cork.

DULKEN and HARVEY—November 18, at St Marylebone church, London, by Rev W. A. Southgate, Alfred Dalziel, fourth son of the late H. W. Duleken, Ph.D., to Olive, younger daughter of the late Surgeon-Major C. A. Harvey, and niece of the late John H. Harvey, Clerk of the Crown, Co. Clare.

LOVE and MURDOCK—November 12th, at Feakle Church, Co. Clare, by Rev. J. B. Greer, Rector of Tulla and Feakle, Richard J. Love, Ballyknocken, Mallow, Co. Cork, to Mary Anne, eldest daughter of James Murdock, Major Park Caher, Feakle, Co. Clare.

SILVER WEDDING.

BARONSFEATHER and HOGG—November 21, 1878 at Holy Trinity Church, Wimbledon, by the Rev L H DeFontaine, Vicar, Wm Nicol Barons feather, of Birr, King's County, Ireland, to Julia Jane, daughter of the late Colonel Gilbert Hogg, K.T.S., K.S.F., formerly Chief Constable of Staffordshire.

DEATHS.

BLENNERHASSETT.—On Thursday morning, the 19th instant, at his residence, Shannon Lawn, Glin, Co. Limerick, William Massy Blennerhassett, aged 89.

BRADY—Oct 21st, at St. Ronan's, Bloomfontein, Isabella Constance (Nattie), dearly beloved wife of Irby Brady, Esq., and niece of Sir John Banks, K.C.B.

KELLY.—At Henry street, Kilrush, on the 7th instant, the infant son of Dr. J. J. Kelly, V.S.

MURPHY—November 19, Grace Anna, daughter of the late D. E. Murphy, King street, Cork, and sister of the late Rev. Alfred Murphy, S.J.

Cheapest Boxes 1
Choice 2
Fresh A, 54s; B, 8
In market 180.

FAIRS.

FAIRS OF MUNSTER—NOVEMBER
Friday, 20—Limerick: Kilmallock.
Dromagh Tipperary; Portroe Kerry mare.

Saturday, 21—Limerick: Ardagh. Clare:
ford Tipperary: Fethard. Cork: Donag
*Newmarket.

Monday, 23—Clare: Corofin Cork: Kil
Kerry: Castlemain. Waterford.

Tuesday, 24—Limerick: Pallasgreen.
Castlegregory. Waterford: Kilmacthomi
In places marked (*) thus a pig fair is held previous day.

Ennis monthly fair is held on the first Sat
each month.

FINANCES OF THE CHURCH OF IRELAND.

APPEAL BY THE BISHOPS.

The Bishops dealt at their last meeting the question of making a special 20th appeal to Irish Churchmen. Their Body has now decided to issue an appeal with the pressing financial needs of the they would postpone their contemplated upon the same subject until the appeal Representative Body is fully prepared.

Dales'

GOLD MEDAL

Dubbin.

Makes BOO
HARNESS w as a duck's bar velvet, and we
as long; pleas Allows polishin hibition High for superiority
6d., 1s., 2s. 6d
makers, Sadd mongers, &
tory, E. Duiwi-

A fire broke about at half-past eleven to-day in the tenement house of Mrs. Nelson-street. Owing to a defective flooring on the second storey began but the Fire Brigade, in charge of Hayes, were speedily on the scene with pump, and had the fire extinguished before anything beyond trifling damage had been done.

Compensation to the amount of £12 allowed to John O'Connell, Macroson, Michael O'Connell, was crushed two buffers while plying his trade at the Abergorki Colliery, South Wales from the injuries sustained.

At Wednesday's meeting of the Cor of Guardians, Mr. M. Gruffy presiding read a resolution from the Omagh Guardians viewing with alarm Mr O'Brien's retirement from public life, the earliest opportunity of asking him to consider his decision. The resolution was unanimously adopted.